Medford Boxers On Grants Pass Card Wednesday

A double main event will headline Bill Berry's second promotional venture in amateur boxing ranks at the Grants Pass national guard armory tomorrow night, starting at 8:30 p.m.

The complete card follows:

Joe Carothers, Grants Pass, vs. Al Offard, Medford (middleweights); Corky King, Medford, vs. Ray Peaker, Grants Pass (middleweights); Dick Adkins, Griffin Creek, vs. Milton Fox, Grants Pass (lightweights); C. W. Lacy, Medford, vs. Gayle Christler, Grants Pass (middleweights); Jackie Johnson, Medford, vs. Dick Stevens, San Francisco (lightweights); Norman Stagner, Grants Pass, vs. Ray Harp, Medford (middleweights); and Bogey (Circus) Bogart, Central Point, vs. LeRoy Cox, Grants Pass (welterweights).

Salem Senators Topple OSC Varsity by 4 to 0

Salem, Ore., Apr. 11—(U.P.)—Salem's Senators of the Western International league finally hit playing stride yesterday in drubbing their previous tormentors, the Oregon State college Beavers, 4 to 0, in a pre-season baseball game.

OSC won the first game last week, 9 to 0.

Portland, Ore., Apr. 11—(U.P.)—Beaver rightfielder Joe Brovia, who suffered a mild concussion when he was hit by a pitched ball Sunday afternoon, was resting at the Good Samaritan hospital here today. His doctor said there was no fracture.

Rogues Have 18 Pitchers

Business Manager Mel Carpenter of the Medford Rogues (Nuggets) of the class D Far West Baseball league was scheduled to return to Medford today or tomorrow after seeing that spring training of the local pro club was underway as wished at Santa Maria, Cal.

A telegram from Carpenter late yesterday morning said that the New York Giants with whom the Rogues have a working agreement, have turned over 12 players to the local club, including an entire infield and outfield.

The business manager described a fellow by the name Bolen who is at Santa Maria for training as "comparable" to Gorbous as a third baseman.

Eighteen pitchers are at the training camp and only one day had been lost to rain up to Sunday night, Carpenter said.

Giants Top Cleveland In Exhibition 15 to 8

Wichita, Kan., Apr. 11—(U.P.)—The New York Giants led the Cleveland Indians seven games to six in their spring exhibition series today but neither club was gaining much prestige.

The Giants won, 15 to 8, in a wild exhibition staged during a dust storm in Tulsa yesterday. They fell on Lefty Gene Bearden for seven runs in the first inning and were never headed.

Wes Westrum, Bobby Thomson and Joe Lafata hit homers for the Giants and Catcher Ray Murray hit one for Cleveland.

MONDAY'S RESULTS

Portland 12, Oakland 6 (Only game scheduled)

play got under way today in the Pacific Coast league baseball race.

Hollywood and San Diego, as expected, were running one-two in the chase, with San Francisco a close third. Sacramento, as predicted, was down in the basement.

However, the surprise was the poor showing of the Oakland A's after playing 13 games. The Oaks have won only four and their pitching appears to be just about the worst in the loop.

However, Owner Brick Lums has been assured he'll get some mound help from the New York Yankees in the near future.

Meanwhile, the teams square off again tonight, with Hollywood at Portland to test the surprising Beavers. Sacramento at Los Angeles and Oakland at Seattle. San Diego invades San Francisco.

Last night, the Beavers defeated Oakland for the third time in the series, 12 to 6, for their fifth win in the six-game series. It was the worst performance so far this season for the hapless Acorns.

The Beavers went into a 2 to 1 lead in the third inning and were never headed from then on. In the next frame Oak Pitcher Earl Jones was replaced by Forrest Thompson. Beavers' Bob Cherry, Vince Shupe and Eddie Baskins promptly slammed out three consecutive doubles to tote up four more runs.

The Oaks put four pitchers into the fray, with Jones getting credit for the loss. Red Adams was winning pitcher.

Louisville, Ky., Apr. 11—(U.P.)—The Boston Red Sox are putting their much-famed power on display. If Ted Williams isn't staged in a one-man show there is always somebody else to fill in for him.

Boosters Club Talks Opening Day, Parade

Committees for opening day ceremonies, a parade, ticket selling booth downtown and one to contact local and Ashland businessmen on donating prizes for opening day were named last night when the Athletics Boosters club met at the Holland hotel.

About 30 persons, including more than 20 new people, attended the second meeting of the organization dedicated to promoting sports in southern Oregon.

A brisk business of selling memberships to the new people was conducted by Club Treasurer Ned Liebman. Men, women and young people wishing to join may purchase memberships at a small cost from any member.

The opening day committee of the club will cooperate with a similar committee from Rogue Valley Baseball, Inc., in promoting the day, May 2, when the Rogues open against Marysville at the Fairgrounds park at 7:45 p.m.

Fred Lawrence, local sign painter, offered to make placards advertising opening day to be put on automobiles and trucks and at the cost of paint and paper needed.

Plans call for inviting Mayor Diamond Flynn and possibly Police Chief Gault and one or two other city and county leaders to take part in opening day ceremonies. A parade starting about 5 p.m. on May 2 will include players and some floats.

44 PC Balks In 2nd Week

San Francisco, Apr. 11—(U.P.)—Pacific Coast league pitchers didn't learn a thing in the second week of competition—at least as far as the controversial balk rule is concerned.

The moundmen, who handed base-runners 44 free advances during the first week, came right back with 44 more balks the second week for a total of 88. During that time there have been only 52 games played.

Most of the managers and players during the first week took the "wait and see" attitude. But today, while veteran managers like Del Baker of the San Diego Padres and Lefty O'Doul of the San Francisco Seals still favored the "hesitation" Red Kress, new manager of the Sacramento Seals, termed it "a pain in the neck."

BOWLING MAJOR LEAGUE

E. McGraw with 608 and Norm Hillier who recorded a 682 took high individual series in the first and second shifts respectively last night when the Major Bowling league rolled at the Medford Bowling lanes alleys.

The same two men won high individual game in their respective shifts. McGraw got 236 and Hillier 265.

Valley Music company with 2,647 won high team series in shift 1 and Charles Barber shop took similar honors with 2,674 in shift 2. High team game in both shift 1 and 2 went to E. McGraw company with 933 in shift 1 and 943 in shift 2.

Amateur Boxing Card Scheduled April 19

Larry Burdette and Owen Thomas, promoters for the Southern Oregon Boxing club, announced the completion of their all-star amateur boxing card to be presented at the armory on Wednesday, April 19.

The promoters said that additional ringside seats will be added and that there will be a slight increase in admission prices to meet the expense of bringing so many out-of-town boxers here for the special card.

Halsey Signed

The main event will send Bull Halsey, Portland Negro whose easy style won a lot of friends when he outpointed Don Harper three weeks ago, against Levi Robinson, 5 to 0. The winner will be declared the Oregon-northern California middleweight champion.

Bob Stumbo, former Southern Oregon college student now residing in Grants Pass, will go against Gene Shepard, Medford, in a southern Oregon heavyweight title affair. Stumbo won the crown over a year ago and is defending it for the first time.

Harper Vs. Wolfe

The match for which local boxing fans have been waiting will occupy the special event spot. It sends Donovan Wolfe, pride of Phoenix, in with hard-punching Don Harper, Gold Hill, in a southern Oregon light-heavyweight title bout. Wolfe is the only local boxer to win over Harper since the Gold Hill schoolboy started his sensational rise in the simon-pure ranks.

Other matches follow:

Darrell Johnson, Medford, vs. Sylvester Jones, San Francisco, for the southern Oregon-northern California welterweight championship.

Dick Adkins, Griffin Creek, vs. John Law, Oakland, Cal., for the southern Oregon-northern California lightweight championship.

Johnson Risks Crown

Freddie Johnson, Medford, vs. Coe Brown, Medford, for the southern Oregon flyweight championship.

Byron Carter, Medford, vs. Hilton Garner, San Francisco.

Corky King, Medford, vs. Joe Carothers, Grants Pass.

Bogey (Circus) Bogart, Central Point, vs. One Round Hogan, Table Rock.

Medford Women Take Honors In Keglers Tourney

A Medford doubles team, a local singles entry and a Crescent City kegler captured all-around honors as the women's half of the Southern Oregon bowling tournament closed at the Medford Bowling lanes, statistics released today revealed.

Louise Mann and Delores Hawley took double honors with a 1,123 with Bunny Tollefson and Maxine Shaw taking second with a 1,119 pinfall. Maxine Shaw also captured all-events honors with a 1,649 total pinfall.

Freda Jackson of Crescent City won singles honors for the two week-end competition with 632.

Other Results Listed

Other doubles results for Medford Sunday were Littrell and Rhoades 443, Barr 577 and Swoape 443.

Beck 969, Corby and Cummings 1,006, Learning and Burroughs 982, Rhoades and Swoape 989, Lownd and Barr 1,030 and Tennant and Curry 996.

Scores for Medford women in singles' competition—Mann 510, Hawley 492, Tollefson 540, Lownd 492, Tennant 537, Curry 503, Harnish 493, Shaw 563, Beck 478, Littrell 501, Carbinier 557, Corby 431, Cummings 505, Learning 533, Burroughs 456, and Rhoades 443.

Last Sunday's tourney competition closed the tournament as far as women's events are concerned. The men will resume their competition this week Saturday night and Sunday afternoon and evening at the local alleys.

Old Timers Play Baseball Tonight

Dallas, Tex., Apr. 11—(U.P.)—Time will turn backward tonight for some of the grandest "old men" of baseball.

For what may be more than a few seconds a baseball team made up of such illustrious names as Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, Charlie Gehringer, Mickey Cochrane and Dizzy Dean will take the field in a regulation Texas league game under the banner of the Dallas Eagles.

It's been as long as three decades since some of the Eagle "starters" took their last fling at organized ball, but they were confident they would be able to fulfill their mission against opposition—the Tulsa Oilers.

Jackson Wins Track Meet: Slate Listed

Jackson school defeated Lincoln in the first local grade school track meet of the year when classes A, B, C, and D met in a dual meet at the senior high field yesterday afternoon. The score was 110 to 95.

Jackson took class A, B, and D while Lincoln school took honors in class C. Jackson won class A 26½ to 23½, B 25½ to 24½ and D 36 to 14. Lincoln won class C 33 to 17.

Next track meet for local grade schools will be Thursday, April 13, when Lincoln, Roosevelt and Washington clash in a triangular meet at the senior high field. These meets start about 4 p.m. and are open to parents and friends as well as to students.

The grade school track schedule is as follows:

April 13—Lincoln-Roosevelt-Washington.

April 21—Washington-Jackson-Lincoln.

April 28—Roosevelt and Washington.

May 6—All city meet at 10 a.m.

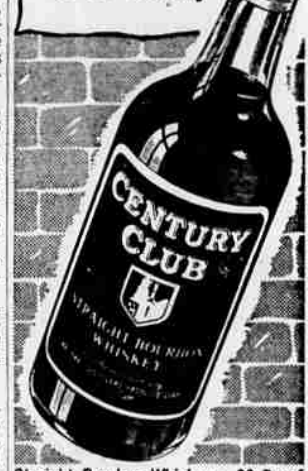

A baseball schedule between teams in the four grade schools is being arranged and will be announced soon.

April 17—Jackson and Roosevelt.
