

Raiders Lose Two Games to Chico State

Central Point, Apr. 15—Chico State college captured both ends of a Far Western conference baseball doubleheader here Saturday afternoon by defeating Southern Oregon college 9 to 6 in the second game after winning the opener 7 to 3.

The Raiders rapped out 11 hits to six for Chico in the second game but four errors hurt. The visitors from California pushed over six runs in a big fourth inning for more than enough to win the game. Don Campbell tripled for SOC in the first inning.

A costly error by the Raiders in the fifth inning of the first game gave Chico the initiative to punch out a victory. Two men were out when a SOC infielder threw wild to first on an easy grounder. Lutz, Taylor, Gray and Farthing rapped out hits for SOC.

Martindale hurled for the Raiders coached by Ted Schopf in the second game and Johnnie Gray and Pinkham did the SOC pitching chores in the opener. Farthing was catcher for both.

Talent High Winner, 5-0

St. Mary's high baseball team opened its county class B conference schedule Friday afternoon by dropping a 5 to 0 decision to Talent on the Bulldogs' field.

Zumwalt on the mound for Talent limited the Crusaders to five scattered hits, struck out 12 opponents and walked but one. Driscoll, pitching for St. Mary's, allowed seven hits and failed to either strike out an opponent or walk one.

Each team made three errors. Sakraida lashed out a double in the seventh and Davis of Talent stole home in the sixth for highlights of the game.

Jerry Montgomery, veteran pitcher for Talent, was unable to play because of being ill with mumps.

Pointers Losers In JDJ Game 8-5

Central Point, Apr. 15—Central Point high baseball squad today looked forward to playing its rivals from Eagle Point high at Eagle Point Tuesday afternoon with the hope that the Pointers would get into the winning column.

Last Friday afternoon on the C. P. field the boys coached by Clarence Mellby dropped an 8 to 5 decision to Illinois Valley in a Southern Oregon and JDJ conference tilt at Central Point. The visitors took a first inning lead and never were headed after that.

Bigman, Hedgpeth and Trautman led on the mound for the Pointers with the latter showing best results in the final four innings of the seven-frame affair.

The Pointers scored one run in the second and four in the fourth while Illinois Valley coached by Wes Peters of SOC athletic fame, tallied one in the first inning, four in the second and three in the third stanza.

Oregon U. Baseballers Lose Wash State, 9-5

Eugene, Ore., Apr. 15—U.P.—Washington State college successfully opened its defense of its northern division baseball crown here Friday by blasting out a win over the University of Oregon.

The Webfoots were snowed under by the superior hitting power of the Cougars. WSC slammed 16 hits, including five for extra bases.

Crosby and Hope On KYJC Monday

Bing Crosby and Bob Hope team up in a special radio salute to the start of the new baseball season. Titled "Welcome Back to Baseball," the half-hour program will be heard at 5:30 p.m. over KYJC and the American Broadcasting company Monday.

A sure-fire comedy team, Hope and Crosby are also allied in baseball interests. Hope is a man behind the scenes of the Cleveland Indians and Crosby owns shares in the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Dorothy Lamour and the four Crosby children will also be heard on the show.

State Golfers Entered Tournament at Eugene

Portland, Ore., Apr. 15—U.P.—Thirty players representing local member clubs of the Oregon Golf association will play in the initial 18-hole handicap sweepstakes Sunday at the Eugene Country club.

Association Secretary Regge Ott said the entrants will be divided into two classes, "A" and "B." Several local players entered in the sweepstakes also plan to play in the pro-amateur event of the Oregon Professional Golfers association, to be held at Eugene Monday.

EUGENE TEAM LOSES
San Jose, Cal., Apr. 15—U.P.—Eugene, Ore., Far West league baseballers suffered a resounding 12-2 defeat here Friday at the hands of the California State league San Jose Red Sox, in a night exhibition game.

Tornado Nine Wins, Loses

Corvallis, Apr. 15—(U.P.)—Medford high baseball team broke even in its week-end invasion of Corvallis by downing Corvallis high diamond players 8 to 4 Saturday after dropping an 11 to 4 decision to the Oregon State Rooks on Friday.

Saturday Terry Maddox and Derald Wooten hurled four-hit ball with the latter being credited with nine strikeouts. Each team made two errors and each team was credited with twodoubles. The Corvallis high pitchers struck out seven players between them.

The Tornado was credited with eight hits against the Spartans on Saturday.

Friday's game against the Rooks saw the Tornado garner but a single hit in a seven-inning game played on a wet field. Corky Coleman and Irv Lahti hurled for OSC.

Fish Season Opens Coast

Portland, Ore., Apr. 15—(U.P.)—In rainy weather, Oregon trout fishermen set out today to test the game commission's prediction that fishing will be good this spring.

The state's legal trout season opened on coastal lakes and streams with the exception of the upper Rogue and upper Umpqua river systems.

The season also started on streams flowing into the Columbia river between its mouth and the east boundary of Hood River county and into Willamette valley streams except the North Santiam system and streams in Linn and Lane counties.

Opening date for the remainder of the state is May 1.

During the past year the game commission has released 2,200,000 yearling steelhead, cutthroat and rainbow trout in streams throughout the state, and planting will continue throughout April.

Prospect Hi Winner, 5-3

Prospect high's diamond crew pushed its way into the winning column Friday afternoon by defeating Rogue River high's baseball team 5 to 3 on the Chieftains' field.

Lenderman on the mound for Prospect struck out 12 opponents, walked none and allowed three hits, all singles. Sovles hurled for Rogue River and struck out four, walked one and gave up eight hits. Prospect made five errors and Rogue River four.

Prospect tallied two runs in the first, one in the fourth and two in the seventh while the Chieftains pushed over one in the third and two in the seventh.

Burrill rapped out two hits in three trips and Lenderman got a double to pace Prospect. Glen Dupuy, Reid and Smelling were credited with Rogue River's three hits, all singles.

Trapshoot Dated Today Medford Club Grounds

Pistol Tournery Billed Today Merrick's Range

Forty pistol shooters are expected in Medford today for the second annual spring gallery shoot sponsored by the Medford Rifle club to be held in the indoor range at Merrick's. Competition will begin at 9 a.m.

The N.R.A. registered shoot is open to anyone. Competitors having either official or temporary NRA classifications are required to be NRA members. Those classified by NRA will shoot in their respective classes. Non-classified competitors will fire in the expert class and marksmen whose averages are below 70 will be permitted to shoot in the tyro class.

Friday, April 14, was the deadline for entering matches while post entries will be allowed today for an extra fee.

Gold medals will go to the winner, silver to second and bronze to third in matches 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6. Silver medal to first, bronze to second in expert, sharpshooter, marksman and tyro classes if four or more are entered in the class.

First place only if fewer than four are in the class and if there is only one entry he automatically will be moved into the next higher class.

Match 7 Medals
In match 7 four bronze medals will go to the winning team and the first of the three legs on the Bolton trophy. The team match is unclassified and the team will be made up on the point system as no expert and master shooters are in this locality.

Matches include—No. 1, 20 shots slow fire; match 2, 20 shots timed fire; match 3, 20 shots rapid fire; match 4, 20 shots slow fire; match 5, 10 shots slow, 10 timed, 10 rapid; match 6, aggregate of matches 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5; match 7, national course team match.

During the past year the game commission has released 2,200,000 yearling steelhead, cutthroat and rainbow trout in streams throughout the state, and planting will continue throughout April.
