

St. Anne's Altar society's annual Easter Monday luncheon this year attracted almost 250 women and shown is a section of the YMCA recreation room where the party was held. Started many years ago, the yearly party has grown in popularity until it can no longer be held in the parish hall of Sacred Heart Catholic church. Mrs. J. W. McDuffie Sr. was chairman of this year's event. (Brainerd photo).

Miss Inez Brabbin And Verle Lubbers Married Recently

Wagner Creek—Miss Inez Brabbin and Verle Lubbers, Medford, were married by the Rev. J. C. Barnett at the Wagner Creek schoolhouse April 1. Attendants were the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Brabbin. The bride wore a suit of dusty rose with grey accessories, and a corsage of white carnations. She carried a white Bible. Mrs. Brabbin was attired in a grey suit with black accessories and her corsage was of pink carnations. Many friends and neighbors were present for the wedding, followed by a reception for the bridal party and relatives held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long Jr. The newlyweds are living in Medford.

Mrs. Jake Bleth is the former Miss Freda Lou Gravelle, whose marriage was an event of March 31 in the Judge F. L. TouVelle home in Jacksonville. Mrs. Bleth is the daughter of Mrs. Lee Matney, Jacksonville, and the bridegroom is from Vancouver, Wash., where the couple are making their home.

Couple Returns From California

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Wilkinson have returned to their home on Park avenue after spending the past two weeks in California. The Wilkinsons were in San Francisco, San Jose, Saratoga, and also spent some time in Monterey and Carmel. The Wilkinson's daughter, Miss Dolores Wilkinson, left Saturday for Marlyhurst college after spending the Easter vacation in Medford with her family. Mrs. Wilkinson and another daughter, Miss Pat Wilkinson, motored north with her, and are spending the week-end at the college and in Portland.

PTA Council Plans Meeting Wednesday; To Hear Professor

Professor Loren Messenger of Southern Oregon College will be principal speaker at a meeting of the Jackson County Council of Parents and Teachers Wednesday, April 19, in the Jacksonville Presbyterian church. The session will begin at 10:30 a.m. and luncheon will be served at noon by the Mariner club of the church at a nominal charge. Committee reports will be given during the morning business session and will include one by Mrs. Frank Connors, state mental hygiene chairman. Mrs. Connors will also include a brief discussion on the national parent-teacher magazine.

Easter Luncheon Is Largest Event Of Recent Days

Largest social event of the week was the annual Easter Monday luncheon and card party of St. Ann's Altar society of Sacred Heart Catholic church. About 250 women attended the luncheon and card party, held in the recreation room of the YMCA.

The Easter Monday luncheon is a tradition of many years with the society, and each year attracts a throng of bridge players.

Mrs. J. W. McDuffie Sr. was chairman for the event this year, and her committee included Mrs. W. W. Stevenson, Mrs. Paul Meyers, Mrs. Raymond Miksche, Mrs. John Boyle, Mrs. Myrtle Merriman, Mrs. John Murphy, Mrs. O. J. Halboth, Mrs. George Horton, Mrs. Walter Young, Mrs. Thomas Elinger, Mrs. James Dunlevy, Mrs. Louis Reutz, Mrs. Robert Wright and Miss Patricia Wilkinson.

During the afternoon prizes were awarded to Mrs. J. V. Moore, Mrs. S. M. Rhodes, Mrs. E. G. Weiss, Mrs. Russell Barnes, Mrs. Georgia Adams, Mrs. Warren Bayliss, Mrs. Herbert H. Squires, Mrs. Leland Clark, Mrs. Elder Conser, Mrs. Elaine Griffin, Mrs. James Murray, Mrs. Claude Holmes, Mrs. B. B. Bartels, Miss Laurette Seitz, Mrs. A. C. Fries and Mrs. Richard House.

The room presented a gay scene Monday, with the "Easter bonnets" and fashionable suits and frocks of the guests. Mrs. Joe Clark wore a navy blue ensemble with touches of white and red. Mrs. Herbert Seitz wore a grey suit and Mrs. H. D. Poston wore a smart, hand-knitted suit, knitting being one of Mrs. Poston's hobbies.

Mrs. Claude E. McIntyre topped her costume with a chic green hat, and another smart green hat was that worn by Mrs. James Grigsby.

Mrs. Sam Gilbert's modish costume was in shades of beige and brown, and Mrs. Joseph T. Antony also wore brown, with orchid corsage. One of the most intriguing hats in the room was a shell-shaped white and blue straw worn by Miss Pat Wilkinson, and Mrs. Mary Brown's Easter frock was worn with a pink cartwheel hat.

Mrs. R. A. Miksche's interesting ensemble was a chartreuse and grey print worn with a chartreuse colored straw hat trimmed with the new shade called "cola brown." Mrs. Miksche's pearl beads and earrings were in a shade which blended with the chartreuse tone.

Mrs. Edwin O. McKeen also wore a smart print frock and a pink hat. Mrs. Clay M. Lee's grey suit was set off with a red straw hat and Mrs. Eugene Peterson wore black topped with a shiny black straw hat.

The altar society's regular meeting, postponed from last week, will be held Tuesday, April 18 at 1 p.m. in the parish hall. Mrs. Carl Mundon's unit will serve luncheon.

Saltgavers Honored At Shower and Party; Wedding March Event

About 100 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dixon K. Saltgaver of Central Point gathered at Willow Springs school house recently to honor the couple with a miscellaneous shower. The couple's marriage in Vancouver, Wash., was an event of March 28. The bride is the former Miss Lola Blackford.

The couple was presented gifts from a table arranged with a lattice work arch covered with daffodils. Mrs. Delmar Smith furnished background music and Frank Hammond and Mrs. Homer Conger sang.

Following the opening of gifts a wedding cake which had been baked by Mrs. Lloyd Hammond and Mrs. Conger was served. A guest book which was signed by those attending was presented to the couple.

State President FL Club Visitor

Mrs. Margaret Hull and Mrs. Margaret Jackson of Monroe, Ore., were honored guests at a meeting of the FL club recently in the home of Mrs. Vivian Knox, 127 Portland avenue. Mrs. Hull is state president of FL clubs of Oregon and Mrs. Jackson is president of the Monroe chapter.

The hostess prize was won by Mrs. Fredene Doty. A salad supper preceded the meeting and refreshments were served at its close. Mrs. Knox and her committee. Decorations were in the club colors and Easter theme. Next meeting of the group will be April 24 in the home of Mrs. Iva Walden, 1014 East 11th street.

Jacksonville Girl Married Recently To Vancouver Man

Jacksonville—The marriage of Miss Freda Lou Gravelle, daughter of Mrs. Lee Matney, Jacksonville, and Jake Bleth, of Vancouver, Wash., was an event of March 31 in the home of Judge F. L. TouVelle, Jacksonville. The ceremony took place at 8 p.m.

For her marriage, the bride wore a royal blue suit with gray accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. Mrs. Thelma Howard, Medford, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her suit was beauteous with red accessories and she wore a gardenia corsage. Lee Matney acted as best man.

A reception was held in the TouVelle home following the ceremony. Mrs. Richard Gravelle served and Mrs. Sadie Opp and the Misses Pauline Hardy and Janet Tuttle poured. The bride's mother cut the cake. About 30 friends and relatives attended.

Mixed spring blossoms and daffodils formed decorations for the ceremony and reception. The bride was a member of the 1950 class of Jacksonville high school and had attended Jacksonville schools the entire 12 years.

The couple has left for Vancouver, Wash., where they will make their home.

Plans Brief Meeting Jacksonville—Adare chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet in the Jacksonville Masonic hall Thursday, April 20, for a brief business meeting.

Following the business meeting the group will make a visitation to the joint meeting of Reames and Nevita chapters in Central Point.
