Osteopathic Groups Hold Dinner Meeting; Auxiliary Organized

Dr. and Mrs. Roy White of Jacksonville, were hosts to members of the Southern Oregon Osteopathic association and auxiliary, at a dinner meeting of the group at Mon Desir dining inn Monday.

The newly formed auxiliary meets regularly with association members. As a part of a state and national organization, the women aid in raising money for the osteopathic student loan fund, osteopathic progress fund and osteopathic scholarship fund.

Officers of the group are Mrs. G. A. Dierdorff, president, Mrs. B. B. Pruitt, Grants Pass, vice-president, and Mrs. Roy White, Jacksonville, secretary-treasurer.

The "March of Dimes" dance in the Rogue Valley Country club in January was sponsored by the group as a community program service.

Members of the auxiliary in addition to the officers are Mrs. George S. Jennings, Mrs. H. A. Krause, Mrs. J. S. Heatherington, Mrs. W. W. Howard, all of Medford; Mrs. G. C. Newton, Ashland, and Mrs. E. Chance and Mrs. Paul T. Rutter, Rogue River.

50th Anniversary Applegate Couple Observed At Party

Jacksonville—An open house held Sunday, April 9, honored Mr. and Mrs. Hugh L. Martin on their golden wedding anniversary. The event was at the home of the Martin's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Culy in Jacksonville.

Hostesses for the party were Mrs. Culy and another daughter of the Martins, Mrs. Willard E. Moss, also of Jacksonville. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. Gene Cowden of Jacksonville. A three-tier wedding cake with gold decorations and ices in the shape of golden wedding bells were served. Table and house decorations were of yellow roses and yellow daffodils.

The Martins were married in Great Falls, Mont., April 10, 1900, and lived in Montana until Mr. Martin retired from ranching and mining. They lived for a time in Long Beach, Cal., and now make their home on route one, Applegate.

The couple has two daughters, Mrs. Culy and Mrs. Moss, and two grandchildren, Willard E. Moss Jr., and Betty Joan Moss, both of whom were present for the party.

Eagle Point Gardeners Plan April Meeting

Eagle Point—Eagle Point Garden club will meet at the home of Mrs. Lewis Stonebreaker in Eagle Point on Wednesday, April 19, at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Sam Bellah of Gold Hill will speak on "Our Native Aristocrats." Mrs. Bellah is considered an authority on wild flowers and plants and often writes and speaks on the subject.

For the last meeting Mrs. D. W. Wood of Medford was guest speaker, telling of the beauty and culture of Japanese iris.

Mrs. Clarence Davies, president requests members of the executive committee to meet at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Stonebreaker. The group will act as nominating committee.
