

Adviser Entertained
By Lively Oaks Club;
Salad Supper Planned

Members of the Lively Oaks club had their advisor, Mrs. Betty Franklin, as their guest at the last meeting, held April 12. There was discussion concerning the club's "mother" in the Royal Neighbor home and it was planned to send her a gift every month. Discussion also concerned a carnival to be given in the fall.

Next meeting of the group will be a salad supper Friday, April 28 in the home of Mrs. Robert Davis. Husbands are invited, and cards will follow the supper. Members attending are each to bring a salad.

Miss Beverly Mee won the hostess prize at the meeting.

There are 6,335 hospitals in the United States. They contain 1,423,520 beds.

Plan Spring Dance
For Medford Club

Further details of the spring dance of Sojourners' club were announced at the last meeting of the club, held Thursday at the YMCA. A brief business session followed dessert, and bridge, canasta and pinocle were played later.

The dance will be held April 28 at the Ashland Elks temple, and reservations which are available to members and prospective members only, may be made by calling Mrs. Elmer Fayingter, 3-1402, Mrs. Ray Nolf, 2-6446, or at Karl's shoe store.

Canasta prizes were awarded to Mrs. M. Prescott and Mrs. G. Ruffin, and other card prizes were given to the Mesdames E. A. Nelson, M. Nulton, Sara Wood, C. L. Howard and A. E. Oines. Mrs. A. B. Fleming received a special prize.

Mrs. Frank Cantrell, Mrs. Oral Freemyer and Mrs. Elmer Fayingter were hostesses.

Prospect Play Cast
Holds Final Rehearsals

Prospect—Final rehearsals of the play, "Mumbo Jumbo," which the Prospect Parent-Teacher association is sponsoring, are being held this week and the play is scheduled for presentation on Friday, April 21. Admission will be by donation.

The play is described as a comedy-mystery. In the cast are Everett Shafer, Kathryn South, Jake Jones, William Schulz, James Popp, Alta Goode, Ralph Goode, Florence Shafer, Sharon Schmidt, Louis South, Edith Jones, Harry G. O. O. Norman, Haliburton, Janice Popp, Velma Chapman and Madeline Geska.

Sams Valley—Sams Valley Ladies' club will meet Thursday, April 20, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Straus in Gold Hill. The club held its last meeting at the home of Mrs. Arnold Nease April 6 and during the afternoon presented Mrs. Joe Brooks with a shower of gifts.

Mrs. Edna Throne of St. Helens, Ore., worthy grand matron of the Order of Eastern Star, will arrive in the valley today to conduct district meetings for the four valley chapters. She will be honored at a tea Wednesday to be given in the Medford Masonic temple.

Mrs. Drew Is Leader
For Delphian Meeting

Delphian society met April 11 with Mrs. H. Chandler Drew as leader and discussed "adaptation, adjustment and integration." Speakers were Mrs. Earl Lawson, Mrs. Ray More, Mrs. Glenn Phetteplace, Mrs. Scott Davis and Mrs. I. E. Staples.

Members were told that "adaptation means the advantage the living organism gains as a result of change in body structure, or biological changes, and adjustment means the advantage one gains as a result of change in behaviour, or psychological changes." Integration was said to refer to advantages gained as a result of being harmoniously organized, or resolving one's minor conflicts.

Chaplain Is Speaker For WACTU Meeting

Woman's Christian Temperance union met Thursday afternoon at the Girls' Community club and heard Chaplain Harold Anderson of Camp White speak. The chaplain told of his mother's work with the union many years ago, and spoke of his duties as a chaplain, both during the war and now at Camp White.

Mrs. Sherman L. Divine read from the study book, "Prayer and Purpose" from the national union, and Mrs. Everett Finley, who was president of the Medford union several years ago, gave devotions. The group sang a union prayer, with Mrs. Robert Taylor at the piano. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Minnie Bryant and Mrs. Mable Houck.

Attends Reunion

Mrs. Alva W. Ford and children, 200 West Jackson street, have returned after attending a family reunion held recently in Salem. The reunion was held by the last members of one of the first families in the Pacific northwest, and it was the first time in twenty-five years that the granddaughters, great-granddaughters and great-great-grandchildren of the first factor of the Hudson Bay post, Fort Victoria, B. C. had been together.
