Talent Resident Dies, Funeral Arranged

Ashland, Apr. 18.—(U.P.)—Austin, 52, a resident of Talent, died Sunday while visiting neighbors. He was born Apr. 9, 1896, in Missouri and worked as a farmer most of his life.

Mr. Austin served with the marine corps in France during the World War I and was a life member of the Disabled War Veterans. He was married to Pearl McMurray in 1936 at Reno, Nev.

Survivors include, besides his widow, two daughters, Mrs. Thelma Packard, Vancouver, Wash., and Mrs. Beryl Baker, Bandon; two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Miller, Grants Pass, and Mrs. Rena Barton.

Services will be held Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. at the Litwiller funeral home with the Rev. Alice Wooley of the Talent Methodist church officiating. Final rites will be held at the Siskiyou Memorial crematorium.

Elizabeth Expecting, Palace Source Says

London, Apr. 18.—(U.P.)—Princess Elizabeth, heiress presumptive to the British throne, is expecting a second child this summer, Buckingham palace disclosed tonight.

In 15 words, probably the only information it will issue until the baby is born, the palace substantiated persistent reports that Elizabeth is pregnant again.

Her royal highness, the Princess Elizabeth, duchess of Edinburgh, will undertake no further public engagements, the palace statement said.

Methodist Women In Ohio Convention

Cleveland, O., Apr. 18.—(U.P.)—Methodist women, 3500 strong, representing every state in the union, gathered here today for the quadrennial assembly of the Woman's Society for Christian Service to write a new charter for participation in world affairs.

The women are here in conjunction with the week-long executive session of the council of bishops of the Methodist church. The bishops last night appointed a sub-committee to consider offers for interdenominational sponsorship of a Christian liberal arts college somewhere in Alaska. Selection of a site for the university was held up pending a report by the committee.

Court Reverses Hanna's Decision

Salem, Ore., Apr. 18.—(U.P.)—The Oregon supreme court today reversed a decision of Circuit Judge H. K. Hanna of Jackson county and sent the case back for further proceedings.

The action involved an option on a 20-acre tract in Jackson county. Wendell L. Taylor and his wife, Alice M. Taylor had brought suit to enforce an option on the tract against John F. Wells and his wife, Katherine Wells.

The supreme court, in an opinion written by Justice James T. Brand, affirmed Circuit Judge Carl E. Wimberly of Douglas county in the case of Umpqua Forest Industries, plaintiff, vs. Neenah-Oregon Land company, defendants-respondent, and Orval C. Schaefer, Erma L. Schaefer, Edmund Stafford and Elizabeth Stafford, defendants-appellant. The high court held with the circuit court that deed to certain timberlands in Douglas county constituted a mortgage.
