Annual Dinner Given By Howard PTA Unit; Name Year's Officers

The annual dinner of the Howard Parent-Teacher association was held Friday in the school cafeteria, with a capacity attendance. Spring flowers and candles were used by Mrs. D. P. McCurdy and her committee to decorate the 14 tables, and Mrs. H. W. Welburn was chairman of the dinner. Mrs. J. A. Cummings, vice-president, presided at the dinner. Following dinner Mrs. Lester Gilman, president, presided at a brief business meeting, with election of officers held. Mrs. Jack Campbell was named president. Mrs. Jess Cummings, vice-president; Mrs. Wayne Smith, secretary, and Mrs. Don Elliott, treasurer.

This slate had been presented by the nominating committee, consisting of Mrs. A. Bebout, Mrs. Leslie Croucher and Mrs. A. R. Eslinger. The organization authorized the new president and her alternate to represent them at the convention of Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers to be held April 25-27 in Portland. Mrs. A. C. Urdel, program chairman, had arranged entertainment. Clinton and Calvin Gillespie played two duets on accordion and steel guitar. Miss Virginia Bertone presented her baton class of 10 little girls in a colorful and a girls' quartet consisting of Miss Bertone, Connie Lambert, Dona Lee and Dona Mae Parsley, sang three numbers. Mrs. Jack Campbell played two piano solos.

Final meeting of the Howard group will be held Friday, May 12 at 2 p. m. and at this time children who will be entering the first grade next fall and their parents will be guests of the association. Pre-registration for the fall term for the new pupils will be held.

Announce Showing Here Of Girl Scout Picture; Activities Portrayed

Girl scouts workers and friends will have an opportunity to see the Girl Scout film, "Women of Tomorrow" which will be shown at the Holly theater along with the feature "Jolson Sings Again," April 20 through 25, the Girl Scout office announces. "Women of Tomorrow" is being released in 150 cities across the country. It tells the story of the Girl Scout, beginning with the Brownie making her "Promise." It shows how Girl Scout gives her a sense of belonging and at the same time leads her into ever widening interests—in service at home and in the community, learning self-reliance at camp, according to the announcement. It shows how Girl Scouts go on to more camping, more knowledge of communities and the world, how seniors follow special interests as wing scouts, mariners, hospital aides, and how all scouts with the help of their leaders and community backing, are better citizens of their own nation and of the world. It is stated.

The film is said to appeal to all; the Girl Scout sees her place in the whole field of scouting, the parents are given an overall picture of the importance of the scout program to their girls, and leaders and possible volunteers see how vital their contribution is to carrying on the Girl Scout program.

From Albany

Mrs. Jack Draper and small son, Jack Alden II, of Albany, Ore., are in Medford to visit Mrs. Draper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schmidt, Pacific highway south. Mrs. Draper arrived by plane Saturday and will remain for the week.

Fellowship Day Plans Announced By Church Women

Plans for the annual May "Fellowship Day" observance of the Medford Council of Church Women will be held as a tea this year instead of a luncheon, according to Mrs. William Myers, chairman. It is to be held May 5 in the First Presbyterian church, Eighth and Holly streets, beginning at 1 p. m.

The theme for the day will be "Our Daily Bread," with Mrs. Mabel Winston, dean of women of Southern Oregon college, as the main speaker. The theme, stressing that a Christian economy needs to be the concern of church women, will be discussed in councils throughout the nation. According to the national committee, "The Christian church is a fellowship which includes persons of all economic groups, and has a unique opportunity for leadership. Today church groups are at work in struggles for better housing, health services, education and family and child welfare, often in cooperation with social welfare and labor groups."

The annual May fellowship observance is considered of outstanding importance in church circles of the city and has grown in attendance each year, often of 13 affiliated churches make up the council organization and they extend a cordial invitation to all women of the city to attend any of the special observances during the year.

Program To Be Given By Foreign Students For Washington PTA

Three foreign students will speak at the meeting of Washington Parent-Teacher association set for Friday at 8 p. m. in the school gymnasium. Speaking will be Harald Stieler, German student attending Southern Oregon college; Knud Anderson, from Denmark, and Miss Madelein Michel, both students at the University of Oregon.

The students will be accompanied by Dr. John A. Schulz, assistant professor of psychology at Southern Oregon college. It is stated that a short business meeting is set for 7:45 p. m., at which time election of officers will be held, and the speakers' program will follow. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

District Officers Named By Pythian Sisters Lodge

About 150 delegates registered for the district convention of Pythian Sisters, held in Medford Saturday. Here as a special guest was Mrs. Margaret Myers of St. Helens, grand chief of the lodge.

An invitation from Roseburg to hold the 1931 district meeting there was accepted. Convention officers elected were Mrs. Inga High, Roseburg, district deputy grand chief; Mrs. Ruth Walden, Medford, district deputy past chief; Mrs. Rose Yarbrough, Bandon, senior; Mrs. Grace Erwin, Grants Pass, junior; Mrs. Gladys Furnet, Roseburg, manager; Mrs. Ingrid Anderson, Roseburg, secretary; Mrs. Bertha Bays, Roseburg, treasurer; Mrs. Flora Heiser, Bandon, protector; Mrs. Maude Williams, Medford, guard.

Officers seated by Talisman temple for the 1930 convention included Mrs. Mae Gibson, Bandon, past chief; Mrs. Walden, district deputy grand chief; Mrs. Ruth Weiderhold, Grants Pass, senior; Mrs. Gladys Furnet, Roseburg, juniors; Mrs. Golda Nickell, Roseburg, master; Mrs. Claudine Hawks, Medford, secretary; Mrs. Edna Bryant, Medford, treasurer; Mrs. Anderson, protector; Mrs. Ethyle Lester, Grants Pass, guard; Mrs. Mary Cook, Medford, musician; Mrs. Williams, press correspondent.

Mrs. Dollie Love, most excellent chief of the Medford temple opened the afternoon session and Mrs. Beth Holloway of Yreka gave the invocation. Grand officers presented were Mrs. Natalie Caswell, Scio, grand press correspondent; Mrs. Eunice Burk, Salem, district deputy grand chief of district two; Mrs. Anne Erdman, Bandon, grand guard; Mrs. Elma Friday, Forest Grove, sitting past grand chief; Mrs. Marie Johnson, Yreka, grand treasurer of California; Mrs. Ella Roper and Mrs. Mabel Roberts, past supreme representatives; and Mrs. Myers, grand chief.

The Bandon temple gave an addendum and the address of welcome was given by Mrs. Roberts of the Medford temple. Mrs. Erdman of Bandon gave the response. Grants Pass members presented a memorial service.

A banquet at the Jackson hotel, attended by 130 members, followed the afternoon session. Entertainment was presented by pupils of Helene Blumenstein of Central Point, including Sandy Cessler, Sally Elden, Mary Lou Koch, Doreen Bohmert, Linda Bateman, Reta Bateman, Laura Setnes, Sharon Anderson, Patsy Charley, Judy Singleton, Janice Jones, Phyllis Perry, Pat Perry, Nickie Hammond, Sandra Schoper, Mary Elin Burkhardt, Maryline Bohmert, Louise Lull and Vicki Noel. Mrs. Gaston Floux and Pat Perry accompanied.

Mrs. Walden opened the evening session and introduced a number of additional entertainers. Fred Divisek gave accordion solos, acts were given by Miss Blumenstein's pupils and Carlton Neill sang, accompanied by Mrs. L. G. Frink. Mervin Payton also sang and J. D. Neill's dancing group gave two square dance numbers.

Competitive drills were staged by the Roseburg, Grants Pass and Medford temples, with high honors going to the local temple. All three teams have been invited by the grand chief to participate in the grand temple session to be held at Astoria in the fall. Judges for the drills and for scrapbooks were Mr. and Mrs. William Dyer, Mrs. Merle Ivie, Mrs. O. S. Walden and J. A. Larsen.

During the evening Ed High, past grand inner guard from Roseburg; Ernest Johnson, past supreme outer guard from Yreka, Cal.; Myron Gaston, district deputy grand chancellor from Grants Pass and Harry Bryant, past outer guard, Medford, were introduced.

The Yreka temple presented an addendum by forming a large red heart in the center of which stood the grand chief.

Mrs. Theresa Hainie and Mrs. Austia Barneburg were presented 25-year membership pins, with Mrs. Hainie receiving hers from her daughter, Loraine Hammond, and Mrs. Barneburg receiving her pin from her sister, Mrs. Hazel Anderson. Mrs. Ida Ireland and Mrs. Della Watkins, both of whom held office when these two were initiated, presented them with flowers.

VICTOR Says:

Did you ever stop to think why some businesses go on from year to year improving their services and always busy while others gradually run out and finally join the ranks of hangers on?

It is really easy to explain the one who prospers is the one who anticipates your needs and desires and provides for their satisfaction. We consider ourselves in this category. We not only have the materials to accomplish your wants but we have taken the time to learn how to use them correctly. Remember, there is more to baking a cake than just reading the directions on the package.
