Hockey

Detroit, Apr. 19.—U.P.—Don Raleigh's overtime goal, climaxing a brilliant third period rally, bounced the New York Rangers back into a Stanley cup finals deadlock with Detroit's Red Wings today.

The skinny, 150-pound forward scored in a "sudden death" period last night, giving the Rangers a well-earned 4 to 3 triumph and squaring hockey's world series at two games each.

The remaining games of the best-of-seven series will be played tomorrow and Saturday and, if necessary, Sunday.
