

Tornado, Grant, Pels Favored Win Class 'A' Hayward Relays

Skiing Races Slated Hood Area Sunday

Portland, Ore., Apr. 21—(U.P.) The annual golden pole giant slalom ski race will be held on the slopes of Mt. Hood above Timberline lodge Sunday.

Race Chairman McJury said 35 class "A" racers, the largest number in the event's nine-year history, were registered for the contest so far. McJury said he expected the number to climb to 50 when all entries arrived.

Class "B" men and women entrants will make the field stand at about 90, he said.

Some of the better-known skiers entering the slalom race include Jack Nagel, Karl Stings and Morris Scott of Seattle, Tor Heyerdahl of Sun Valley.

Top finishers from last year's race entering include Rees Stevenson, Dick Lewis and Dick Ervin, all of Portland Multnomah Athletic club, and Allen Fischer, Portland.

Grant High Wins Swim And Diving, Portland

Portland, Ore., Apr. 21—(U.P.) Grant high school won the Portland interscholastic swimming and diving championships last night at the Multnomah Athletic club pool.

The Grants boys teams scored 79 points to 54 for runnerup Lincoln while the Grant girls took 12 firsts in 13 events for an even 100 points.

Medford and Grant of Portland are expected to give Klamath Falls, defending 1949 Hayward relays champion, its biggest battle for this year's honors when class A high schools compete Saturday afternoon at the University of Oregon.

Sixty-two schools and some 1,100 athletes were entered in all divisions—classes A, B and C, including teams from Vancouver, Kelso and Shelton in Washington State and Crescent City, Cal. Class B and C events were slated today.

Medford will compete Saturday starting at noon with the class A events to be completed by 2 or 2:30 so the University of Oregon vs. Washington State dual meet can start.

Also sending a relay team or two to the Hayward relays for class A competition was Central Point High.

Competing for the Black Tornado tomorrow as Medford high tries to get back into Hayward relays winning form will be:

440-relay — Buckingham, Pruitt, Goodman, J. Morris (F. Morris alternate).

880-relay—Bittle, Pruitt, J. Morris, Buckingham (F. Morris alternate).

1-mile-relay — Bittle, Walker, Matheson, Padgham (Birdseye alternate).

Two mile relay — Gleason, Smith, Vrooman, Hobbs (Bate-man, Drew alternate).

Distance medley — Gleason, Birdseye, Smith, Hobbs (alternates Vrooman, Lundquist, Harndon).

Shuttle hurdles — F. Morris, Faulkner, Spinax (alternate Bostock).

Discus—Mills (alternate Vincent).

Javelin—Mills (alternate Vincent).

Shot Put Relay — Parker, J. Morris, Highland (Tysver alternate).

Broad jump relay—J. Morris, Buckingham, Simonson, alternate Ward.

High jump—Goodman, Wendt, Ferguson (Bateman alternate).

Pole vault—Wendt (alternates Adams, Chitwood).

The local squad was scheduled to leave about 11:30 a.m. today and to return late Saturday evening after seeing some if not all of the college meet.

Bob Newland and Fred Spieglberg of the high school coaching staff were in charge of the squad.

Idaho Stops Ducks, 17-12

Eugene, Ore., Apr. 21—(U.P.) Idaho's Vandals won their first northern division Pacific Coast conference baseball game of the season yesterday by outscoring the University of Oregon, 17 to 12.

Bob Pritchett paced Idaho's attack with four singles and three runs batted in. Catcher Joe Segura of Oregon batted in four runs with a home run and three singles. Tobe Massingill batted out a triple, single and double for Idaho, while teammate Joe Vezesky got a homer.

Dewayne Johnson was losing pitcher and Cless Hineckley was winning pitcher.

Oregon trailed 17-6 going into the last half of the ninth but a six-run barrage gave the Ducks a more respectable showing for the day.

Pro Hoopers Still Battle

Syracuse, N. Y., Apr. 21—(U.P.) The Minneapolis Lakers, needing just one more victory to take the National Basketball association title, will be glad to get back home for the sixth game of the playoff finals on Sunday.

The Lakers sought that win here last night and ran smack into the Syracuse Nationals' famed home infallibility, bowing 83 to 76.

That left the Lakers still with a three-games-to-two advantage and the knowledge that whatever is left in the series must be played in Minnesota.

The Nationals saved themselves from elimination by a great second quarter. They went into that frame with a two-point deficit and came out of it with a 38-24 halftime lead. They ran that up to 21-point margin in the fourth frame and then coasted home.

Sunset Loop Opens Today

Los Angeles, Apr. 21—(U.P.) The Sunset Baseball league opens its 147-game schedule today with teams representing four states in two nations aiming at a 500,000 seasonal attendance record.

Eight teams in the league are El Centro, Riverside, San Bernardino, and Porterville, Cal.; Yuma, Ariz.; Las Vegas, Nev., and Mexicali and Tijuana, Mex. Yuma was the newest addition to the four-year-old league replacing Reno, Nev., which switched over to the Far West league.

League President Lew Powers said teams spent more than $100,000 in park improvements for the 1950 season. Riverside led the way with $37,000.

The schedule today has Tijuana at Mexicali, El Centro at Riverside, Yuma at Porterville and San Bernardino at Las Vegas.

Bowling Congress Tourney Results

Belcastro Seeks Bout Wallick; Draw At Armory

Pete Belcastro has asked Promoter Mack Lillard to give him a crack at Leo Wallick, the pile driving specialist, following Belcastro's draw with the Great Atlas in the armory wrestling pit last night.

The Belcastro-Atlas scuffle was more of a slugfest than a grappling contest but it kept the capacity crowd howling for more from start to finish.

Atlas Gains First
The Atlas, who prefers to be known as the Peacock of the Ring, won the first fall with a series of headlocks which had Belcastro groggy for several minutes before he was pinned.

Both men missed several attempts to apply their specialties, the surfboard and full nelson, but they connected repeatedly with well-aimed fists to each other's chin and midsection.

Belcastro turned on the steam after losing the first fall and pummeled the New York strong man all over the place before pinning him with a body press. Neither was able to gain an advantage in the remaining minute.

Grable Wins Bout
Lee Grable defeated Wallick on a disqualification after Grable had taken the only fall with a series of mat-dusting arm flips and an arm stretch. During the rest period Wallick wanted to continue and Grable accommodated him.

Both went out of the ring where Wallick applied a fire driver. The maneuver stretched Grable unconscious and Jerry Jerome of the Medford state athletic commission ordered the bout forfeited to Grable.

Ted Bell won two out of three falls over George Strickland in the opening bout which was packed with spectacular wrestling all the way.

Junior High Trackmen Scheduled Here Today
Medford junior high trackmen were scheduled to meet Ashland junior high trackmen in the opening meet of the season for the local youths with activities being held at the local senior high football field this afternoon.

Earlier this week the Ashland junior high youths came out on the short end of a triangular track meet with the senior high junior varsity of that city and a team from Grants Pass junior high. The Grizzly Cubs scored 56 points, Cave Kids 53 and junior high 31.

Paul Spurlock, former Medford Nuggets hurler and now hurling for Vancouver, B.C., in the Western International league saw action last night for one inning as Vancouver lost to Tri-City 8 to 7 in a WIL contest.
