Homers Give Portland Beavers 5 to 3 Victory Over Oakland

Oakland, Cal., Apr. 22—(U.P.)—The weight of three Portland home runs, two by Joe Brovia and one by Mickey Rocco, provided enough punch to defeat Oakland 5 to 3 here this afternoon. It was the fifth Pacific Coast league homer for Brovia, the fourth for Rocco.

It was losing pitcher Earl Jones' last appearance for the Oaks, having been sold to the Little Rock Travelers of the Southern Association along with catcher Frank Kerr. Jones lost four for no win this season. Ball Hits Polich.

Portland's first two runs came in the third inning when Jones southpawed the ball to hit Batter Joe Polich. Jimmie Gladd was walked and Center Fielder Luis Marquez singled them home.

Brovia and Rocco both smashed home runs in the sixth inning, repeating Thursday's performance at Oakland when they each slammed a circuit.

Brovia Connects Again

In the eighth, Brovia hit his second for the afternoon, to end the Beaver scoring. Oakland's three runs came in their half of the eighth inning. Artie Wilson doubled and George Metkovich homered him in for two. Two singles and a walk filled the bases for the Oaks and Cookie Lavagetto singled to score Left Fielder Earl Rapp.

Portland 5 9 0
Oakland 3 8 0

Tennis Team Meet Today

Medford men interested in playing on a city tennis team and to take part in inter-city matches with Ashland, Klamath Falls, Roseburg, Redding, Cal., and possibly other cities, will meet today at 9 a.m. at the senior high school courts.

Already letters have been exchanged between Medford and three or four other cities concerning inter-city matches and as soon as a local team is chosen games will be scheduled. Tod Tibbut, a member of last year's Medford team said Saturday.

Others on the 1949 city tennis team included Howard Dugan, John Richard, Bill Deakins, Tom Lytle, Paul McDuffee and Bill Coffman. Tibbut said that no position on the team has been filled and anyone having the qualifications will have an opportunity to play this year.

The high school courts are open after dark each evening with the only cost a small coin to pay for the lights.

Dr. Stanley Leads Peirce

Dr. Bruce Stanley had a 5-up advantage on Max Peirce yesterday when the two finished the first half of their 36-hole final match for the men's spring golf handicap diadem at Rogue Valley Country club yesterday.

They were to start out on the second 18 holes about 9 a. m. today.

Stanley was one down at the end of nine holes yesterday but roared back with a 32-stroke second nine to gain the margin. He had a 75 for the full 18 while Peirce got an 85. Stanley, under the handicap provisions, must concede Peirce three strokes.

Redskins Defeat St. Mary's 12-0

St. Mary's high of Medford was presented its fourth baseball loss of the county "B" loop season Friday when Jacksonville blanked the Crusaders 12 to 0 at Jacksonville.

Driscoll on the hill for the Redskins gave up only six safe singles but Jacksonville capitalized on 11 Crusader errors. A five-run sixth canto was the Redskins' biggest. They brought in three each in the third and fifth and one in the first.

Jerry Pawlowski smashed a double and Paul Hardy a triple for Jacksonville. Jim Gleason got two hits for St. Mary's.

Short score:
St. Mary's 0 4 11
Jacksonville 12 8 2
Driscoll and Rombach; Clay, Hardy and Hardy, Taylor.

Semi-Pro Baseball Due Today at Vets Center

Veterans Center, Apr. 22—Baseball will be on the sports menu at the Camp White Veterans center field Sunday at 2 p.m. when the Eagle Point town team meets Hill, Cal., in a non-league game. Eagle Point is a member of the Rogue Valley semi-pro baseball league.

Last week Sunday the Eagles nine lost a close decision to Prospect in a practice game here.

Demaret, Ferrier Tied

Virginia Beach, Va., Apr. 22 (U.P.)—Jaunty Jimmy Demaret and Jim Ferrier blazed home with four-under-par 65's today to tie for the first round lead in the $10,000 Cavalier specialists golf tournament.

Both shot eagles to come in after the first 18 holes deadlocked for the lead.

The 54-hole tourney winds up tomorrow with 36 holes over the 6,084 yard Cavalier Yacht and Country club course.

Semi-Pros Game Today C. P. Field

Central Point, Apr. 22—Today on the Central Point diamond at 2:30 p.m. Hoosier Haffard's Central Point team will tangle with the collegiate nine from SOC.

Manager Haffard is out to avenge the 7 to 6 defeat by the hands of the college boys last year.

Ted Schopf, coach of the college nine, will pick his starting pitcher from Johnny Gray or Tex Gatlin. Behind the plate will be Gene Farthing, veteran catcher.

Haffard will start Clarence Melby or Cliff Piland, with Paul McCoy in reserve. The rest of the Central Point lineup will be picked from Frank Roodland, Alex McDonald, George Gitzen, Fred Stammen, Dint Cox, Hal Adams and Norm Lulich.

The college will pick the rest of its lineup from Snuffy Smith, Lutz Campbell, Taylor, Blevins, Barger and Gatlin.

Two Appointed to OSC Athletic Board

Corvallis, Ore., Apr. 22—(U.P.) President A. L. Strand today announced appointment of Paul M. Dunn, dean of the school of forestry, and J. H. Reardon, Corvallis feed and seed dealer, to the Oregon state college athletic board.

Dunn has been dean of the forestry school here since 1942 and Reardon is one of Oregon State's all-time athletic greats. Reardon was an all-coast football quarterback in 1917 and all-coast basketball guard in 1917 and 1919.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—THREE

Booster Club to Meet Monday Holland Hotel

Athletics Booster club of Southern Oregon will hold its weekly meeting in the Holland Hotel Monday at 8 p.m. when reports on plans for opening day of the Medford Rogues will be discussed and new club members will be welcomed.

Saturday it was announced that the dinner for Rogues players, Manager Tommy Nelson, Coach Tex Chandler, Business Manager Mel Carpenter, club members, officers of Rogue Valley Baseball, Inc., guests and their wives will be held at the YMCA Monday night, May 1.

Cost Said Small

Site of the dinner was undecided for several days because two or three places in Medford were not available. Cost of the dinner will be $1.50 per plate.

Yesterday a booth was opened in downtown Medford where opening day tickets, season tickets and individual game duets were placed on sale. The Booster club in charge of the project announced that the booth will be open again next Saturday.

Parade Floats

Places for floats in the opening day parade scheduled about 4 p.m. May 4 are still available. Local firms interested in entering may do so by contacting Ken Hamer at the Holland hotel.

Men, women and young people interested in joining the Athletics Booster club will be welcome at Monday's meeting. Dues are small and cover the entire sports year.

Redding Beats Salt Lake

Redding, Cal., Apr. 22—(U.P.)—The Redding Browns of the Far West league trounced Salt Lake City of the Pioneer league, 16 to 8, last night in an exhibition game.

Three Redding home runs by Russ Rossberg, Ken McGee and Ernie Choculus produced eight of the Brown runs and the difference in the score.

FOR PROFITABLE FARMING—

Get better silage faster— at less cost with these proven NEW HOLLAND Forage Machines

New Holland's Farm Engineered Forage Harvester, Hay Chopper-Ensilage Cutter, and Forage Blower move your crops into the silo with minimum labor and waste

The Advantages of Putting Up Silage: Returns are higher from an acre of corn, alfalfa, soy beans or other crops if fed in the form of good silage. Larger amounts of dry matter, protein and carotene can be obtained by making forage into silage. Silage means dollars in better fattening—can cut veterinary bills.

New Holland's great Forage Harvester moves your feed crops from field to wagon to silo or barn in one operation—saves time, saves labor, saves expense, saves feed! Cuts clean, uniform lengths from 1/2 in. to 4 in. Slices like a knife—does not squeeze crops as in ordinary, scissor-type machines. Changes from row to windrow attachment, or back, in only 30 minutes!

The New Holland Forage Blower gets crops into the silo fast! Pile your forage onto the extra wide feed table of your New Holland Heavy Duty Forage Blower. Positive feed moves it through extra-large 140-square inch throat opening for rapid blowing up 8" pipe. Handles up to 10 to 25 tons of corn per hour—up to 20 tons of hay.
