Jacksonville Church Scene Of Harris-Hackert Wedding

Jacksonville—An event of April 9 in Jacksonville was the wedding of Miss Myrna Mae Hackert, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Albert Hackert, Jacksonville, to Donald T. Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harris Sr., formerly of Jacksonville and now of Myrtle Point.

The vows were read at three o'clock in the afternoon at the First Presbyterian church by the Rev. E. J. Clark of Phoenix, and Mr. Harris gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Enid McKee was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. George Wendt. The bride's gown was of white marquisette over satin fashioned with a train, and her lace-edged short veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and pink rosebuds, centered with two white orchids, and her pearl necklace was a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Delbert Hackert, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of blue silk crepe and lace and carried a bouquet of pink and blue hyacinths centered with a camellia.

Miss Enid McKee and Miss Anita Heckert, cousins of the bride, Mrs. Charles Anderson, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Trudy Harris, cousin of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They wore blue and yellow frocks with matching hats and carried old-fashioned nosegays of hyacinths and camellias.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a gold-colored suit with green accessories and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a black suit-dress with white accessories.

Little Gayle Offenbacher was flower girl. She wore a long dress of embossed blue organdy and carried a basket of flower petals. Michael Smith was ring-bearer. Gayle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Offenbacher and Michael's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, all of Jacksonville.

Ray Harris Jr., brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and Elmer Bowman and Gene Campbell were ushers. They also lighted the candles.

Tall baskets of spring flowers and lighted tapers provided a setting for the ceremony. The flower arrangements were by Mrs. Leonard McKee and Mrs. William Smith, and they had also made the bouquets carried by the bride's attendants and those worn by mothers of the bride and bridegroom.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Ray Harris Jr. served punch and Mrs. Tom Dunnington, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Riley Norris, Mrs. Paul Godward and Mrs. Otto Heckert, all aunts of the bride, assisted. Miss Beverly Moody took charge of the bride's book and Miss Connie Frohs and Miss Loreta Clay took charge of gifts.

The punch bowl used for the reception, loaned by Mrs. Edward Moore, cousin of the bride, is more than 100 years old and the punch ladle, which belongs to Mrs. E. E. Evans, is also an antique. The cake was baked by George Tedrick, one of the wedding guests, and brought from Klamath Falls.

In Jacksonville for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Hackert, Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brewer, Myrtle Point; Mr. and Mrs. George Tedrick, Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. LaMonte Dewey and children of Vallejo, Cal.

Fellowship Day Program Planned By Church Women

All church women of Medford and their friends are invited to attend the annual observance of May "Fellowship Day" of the Medford Council of Church women. Instead of a luncheon this year, a tea will be held in the First Presbyterian Church, Eighth and Holly streets, on Friday, May 5, beginning at 1:15 p. m.

This year the May "Fellowship Day" committee has again chosen a theme of fundamental importance to families: "Our Daily Bread"—stressing that a Christian economy needs to be the concern of church women everywhere. According to Mrs. William Myers, general chairman, "the fellowship of Christian women united to serve in their communities gives inspiration and hope in today's world, because it is the women who are helping to break down barriers, and to build the ecumenical church."

Mrs. Mabel Winston, dean of women of Southern Oregon college, has been chosen as the main speaker. Devotion will be given by Mrs. W. T. Frost. Music is being arranged by Mrs. C. R. Adamson.

Other committee chairmen are Mrs. G. L. Floux, hospitality, and Mrs. Lionel G. Rankin, in charge of the food.
