Jean Hart's Diary

April 23

Have you seen the beautiful new dresses the fruit trees of the valley are wearing? Neat crisp cottons if I ever saw one. I'll admit the cherry trees might be wearing ordinary... or perhaps that new nylon that is as fresh as a spring salad.

Our cottons are just as refreshing and delightful. It makes you feel gay just to look at them. A watermelon nylon with contrasting touches of soft grey. Starchy voiles with a permanent finish so that they stay perky no matter what the humidity. Linen suits for summer traveling and straight easy to iron dresses of linen and pongee. Sun dresses with jackets to completely disguise their double purpose.

And speaking of doubling—shortie coats are wonderful to wear with cottons for the cooler evenings all summer... and ideal as a party coat all year... especially if you choose a soft pastel color.

Yes... in a Jean Hart cotton... you'll blossom out yourself.

Gold Hill Family Attends Wedding In Klamath Falls

Gold Hill—A wedding of interest to the people of Gold Hill was held in Klamath Falls, Saturday, April 15, when Miss Helen Corum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jewel D. Corum of Silver Lake, Ore., and Victor Frost, son of Mrs. John Frost of Gold Hill, were married in the First Baptist church of that city. The bride's grandfather, the Rev. Waterhouse, read the ceremony.

The bride wore a pale blue suit with white accessories and carried a white Bible with a spray of white roses.

Mrs. Connie Corum, sister-in-law of the bride, acted as matron of honor. She wore a beige suit with pink accessories and carried pink roses.

Robert Beach of Ashland, acted as best man and Roy Hoover of Klamath Falls and Bruce Bennett of Gold Hill were ushers.

White snapdragons and pink and white carnations decorated the church and parlor where a reception was held following the ceremony.

The bride is a surgical nurse at Klamath Valley hospital in Klamath Falls. She attended Oregon State college and received her nurse's training in Portland.

Mr. Frost attended Southern Oregon college at Ashland and is now a student at Oregon Technical Institute at Klamath Falls.

The couple left immediately after the reception for a trip to the coast. About fifty relatives and friends attended the wedding. Those from Gold Hill who attended were Mrs. Silas Fleming, grandmother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Frost, his mother, Mrs. Robert Drake, his sister, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bennett, former classmates of Mr. Frost.

Medford Student To Go To France For Year's Study

Miss Charity Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Williams, 1975 Houston road, a sophomore in liberal arts at University of Oregon, has been accepted in the group of students from the United States who will study at Sorbonne university in Paris next year.

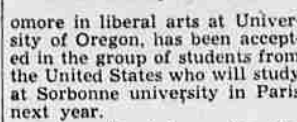

She will study under the "Junior Year in France" program sponsored by Sweet Briar college. The group was limited to 75 students this year, and selections were made from colleges and universities throughout the United States. The students are chosen on the basis of scholarship and achievement in French.

Miss Williams is now studying French composition and conversation. She expects to study French literature and history and possibly take a course in philosophy while at the Sorbonne.

Miss Williams is a member of Pi Delta Phi, French honorary society.

The students will leave from New York aboard the Queen Elizabeth, September 7.

Miss Williams was valedictorian of her class when she graduated from Medford high school in the class of 1948. She is an honor roll student, with a university GPA of 3.8.

Dear Mrs. Medford:

A poet once said that "copper was brass with its heart showing..." for it has a depth of beauty and warmth that cannot help but add happiness to a home.

We have copper fashioned into tea pots that would be at home on a fireplace crane... and copper chests to hide your jewels or love letters. We have copper planter plates to hang either as flower or plate arrangements. We have copper and brass combined for double charm... and we have COPPER MUGS. Heavy gleaming mugs for planting or drinking...

For decorating or patio parties... whatever... one thing we know—the more you have—the more you will want.

Very Special—Copper Mugs—$1.00
