Rehearsal Supper Given Friday Night; Rites Are Saturday

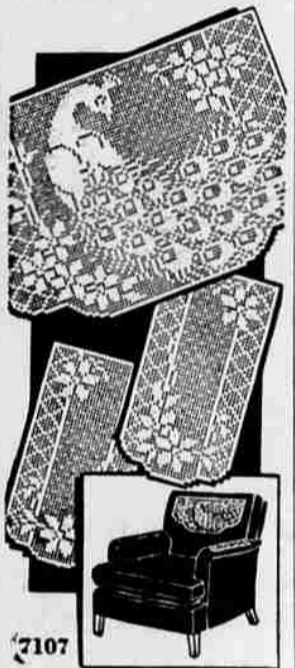

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Smith and Mr. and Mrs. James W. Grigby were hosts last Friday night for a rehearsal supper for the Smith's daughter, Miss Jeanne Smith, and her fiancé, Clifford Henderson, The Dalles. Miss Smith's wedding to Mr. Henderson took place Saturday evening at Zion Lutheran church.

The supper was held at the Grigby's home in Jacksonville. The bride-elect was honored at a number of parties before her wedding. One of these was given by nurses and staff members of Sacred Heart hospital, where Miss Smith has been a surgical nurse, the event being a miscellaneous shower.

The AAUW study group to which Miss Smith belongs honored her with a handkerchief shower at a recent meeting.

Mrs. Frank Baker Wins Tournament Of Duplicate Club

Mrs. Frank R. Baker won the 1950 annual individual tournament of Medford Duplicate Bridge club, second session of which was held Saturday night at the Medford hotel. Mrs. Baker's total score for the two-session tournament was 153½ points. Mrs. Van Gilbert was the defending champion.

Coming in second with the next highest over-all score was Mrs. W. W. Stevenson, with 145 points, third went to Mrs. Josephine Clark for 141½ points, Jack Barr was fourth with 133 points, W. F. Kennedy, fifth, 132½ and tied for sixth were Mrs. M. M. Herman and Budd Gail, both with 130½ points.

Winners for the second session Saturday were Mr. Kennedy, who topped the players with a total of 64 points for first place, Mrs. Clark, in second with 62½; Mrs. Stevenson, third with 57; and Mrs. B. L. Sanderson, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. G. H. Owens, who tied for fourth, fifth and sixth places, all having scored 57 points.

Mrs. Baker had won the first session with the high score of 98½ points. Second for the first session was Mrs. Herman, 86½ points; third went to Mrs. Stevenson with 85; Miss Isabel Sturtevant took fourth with 80 and Jack Barr was fifth with 79½ points. Al Gilhousen, Mrs. Clark and B. L. Sanderson all tied for sixth place with 79 points.

Over-all winners received master points, and session winners received double rating points.

The club will meet tonight at the Medford hotel at 7:30 p.m. for the usual weekly game.

Garden Club First In Table Contest; Lady Lions Second

Medford Garden club was winner of the table setting contest sponsored last week by Brophy's store and the Holmes and Edwards company, the store announced yesterday. The contest was decided by popular vote.

Lady Lions' entry won second place, the chapter AA, PEO, entry was third, Kiwanian Dames fourth and Junior Service league fifth. First prize was a chest of silver and each entry was awarded a prize.

The winning table was set for a dinner for six, with the table laid with a Chinese hand-drawn natural color tablecloth. The silver was Spring Garden, and the china was Bavarian in a white with pink rose border.

For the centerpiece Mrs. J. W. Jacobs arranged pink pinocchio roses, which are miniatures, and blue forget-me-nots, in a silver bowl edged with a rose design. Pink candles were in three-branched pewter candelabra, and goblets were of crystal. Corsages or boutonnières of the miniature roses were at each place and place cards were of the pink rose design.

The china and candelabra were the property of Mrs. Roland Beach, who aided Mrs. Jacobs and Mrs. A. C. Leighton, president of the club, in arranging the table.

The Kiwanian Dames' committee, composed of Mrs. I. E. Staples, Mrs. E. Ronald Rice and Mrs. Eugene Orr, chose a modern arrangement, using the bare table laid with embroidered linen place mats. The silver used was Danish Princess and the china, which belonged to Mrs. Staples, was English with a floral border of pink and blue in a deep shade.

For the centerpiece pink and orchid stock had been arranged in a low pink and blue pottery bowl around a Chinese head figurine, the flower shades being somewhat paler than those of the china design. The figurine was of dusty rose. The goblets were of early American glass, also the property of Mrs. Staples.

Cigarette holders, salts and peppers and ash trays were of silver. Even more modern in thought was the table which a committee from Lady Lions club arranged. The tablecloth was of tomato red with white fringe and the china was white Haviland with no decoration other than an edging design. The silver was Spring Garden.

White carnations with glossy magnolia leaves arranged in a crystal bowl centered the table, the bowl matching the early American crystal goblets and the crystal open salts holding tiny silver salt spoons. Three white deer figurines were grouped as a part of the centerpiece.

Mrs. Edwin O. McKeen, Mrs. Larry Neeley, Mrs. David Williams and Mrs. Lou Bates had arranged the table. The china was the property of Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, the goblets belonged to Mrs. E. L. Bartholomew and the tablecloth to Mrs. Neeley.

American Music Given For Chapter Program; String Quartet Plays

Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met Saturday at the home of Mrs. M. M. Morris, 204 Medford heights, for luncheon and a musical program featuring American artists.

A buffet salad luncheon was served, with Mrs. D. O. Hood and Mrs. Ray K. Bailey pouring at the table which held a centerpiece of spring flowers.

Mrs. H. E. Marsh introduced the program. A group of numbers was played by the Medford senior high school string quartet composed of Misses Joyce Montgomery, Maureen Rice, Robene Starcher and Margaret Huson. Their numbers were "Andante" by Dittersdorf; "Pizzicato Caprice" by Floyd Barnard and "Romany Life" by Victor Herbert. Miss Huson also played a piano solo, "Rustle of Spring."

Mrs. Lulu Saulsberry gave two readings, "The Clinic" by Alice Regan Rice and a satire on "mother's back seat driving" by Edgar Guest.

Mrs. Catherine Wendt then entertained the chapter with vocal selections including "Pale Moon," "I Look Into Your Garden" and "Awake, Beloved." Guests of the society were Mrs. U. G. Holderman and Miss Bertha Holderman of Santa Ana, Cal., nieces of Mrs. Carrie Young.

Assisting the hostess were Mesdames Frances Cockran, A. H. Hansen and C. B. Pankey.

Shower Party Given By Hostess in Talent

Wagner Creek—Mrs. Yarnell of Talent recently gave a shower in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ruby Yarnell. Many from Wagner Creek attended, including Mrs. Mildred Bailey and daughters, Joyce, Laura and Nora; Erma Hoffman, Mrs. Edna Hopper and Betty, Mrs. Delbert Johnson, Mrs. Russel Clark, Mrs. Layton MacDowell, Beverly Hill, Mrs. Wilma Arnett, Mrs. Mary Higgins, Talent; Mrs. Acre, Central Point, and Mrs. Yarnell Sr., daughter Margie and granddaughter Sandra.

Games were played, songs and music were enjoyed and the hostess served refreshments.

Women's Group Meets In Gold Hill Friday

Gold Hill—A group of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. James Clement, Friday, for the monthly potluck luncheon, followed by an afternoon of needlework. The women considered names for the group, but no decision was reached.

Present were Mesdames Cleo Gilchrist, W. D. Bell, Robert Pugh, Lester Thompson, Carl Routh, Melvin Hancock, Dale Clement, Bruce Bennett, Terry Clement, Cecil Van Horn, S. L. Routh and Paul Holderness, as well as a number of children.
