

Name Queen Contestants For Phoenix May Festival

Phoenix—Candidates for queen of the annual Phoenix May Festival have been announced, and a queen's ball will be held Saturday, April 29 at the grade school gymnasium to open the contest which will select a queen to reign over the two-day event.

The contestants are Miss Wanda Norton, sponsored by the Phoenix Parent-Teacher association; Miss Rosalie Klason, Phoenix Grange contestant; Miss Virginia Roberts, Phoenix Garden club; Miss Sally Tripp, Phoenix Thimble club; Miss Barbara Barlow, Youth club; Miss Shirley Dudley, Phoenix Thursday club.

The queen committee of the Phoenix Community club and Youth center consists of Mrs. Charles Hockersmith, chairman, Mrs. Bert Stancliffe, Mrs. Delno Sloan, Mrs. Herb Good, Mrs. L. O. Anderson, Mrs. Marvin Fisher, Mrs. Leonard Halfhill and Mrs. David Lowery.

Dance admission tickets will entitle the holders to vote for the queen of their choice during the dance, and later contestants will be placed in down town stores to receive votes up until May 13.

The winner will be crowned queen, and the remaining contestants will be princesses for the festival.

Mrs. Fischer, girl scout leader, states that scouts will have an ice cream and cold drink concession at the dance.

Losing Contest Teams Give Dinner Friday In Odd Fellow Hall

Gold Hill—The Odd Fellow and Rebekah losing teams in the recent membership contest held the "payoff" dinner Friday night at the lodge hall. Mrs. Lester Parker and Bill Ferguson were captains of the losing sides and these two, with their committees, prepared a chicken and noodle supper for about 100 persons.

The menu for the winners was written on special cards and consisted of such "rare" dishes as scrambled catfish eyes and broiled skunk livers. Mrs. Melford Hood and Bill Hittle were captains of the winning teams.

Following dinner a skit was presented in the auditorium and Sonny Hendrickson and his son, Jack, and Mr. Musty played for dancing. John Gray called for the square dances.

Secretaries' Group Will Be Installed Thursday At Hotel

A southern Oregon chapter of the National Secretaries' association will be installed at a meeting set for Thursday at 8 p. m. in room 2 off the mezzanine floor of the Medford hotel. Dessert will be served.

Mrs. Evelyn Schroeder, secretary to Glenn L. Jackson, vice-president of the California Oregon Power company, will serve as president of the new group. The association is a professional, non-profit, non-union organization. Mrs. Jean H. Williams, national organizer, states that the membership is still open and any woman engaged in secretarial work interested in becoming a member may contact her at the Medford hotel.

Work-a-Way Club Meets on Thursday

Members of the Work-a-Way club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Othar Richey, 1708 West Main street. Games followed the business meeting, with prizes awarded, and a birthday gift was presented to Mrs. Glenn Bowles.

Mrs. Murry Orgain was a visitor.

Mrs. Richey was hostess to the club members again Friday morning for a "come as you are" get-together.

THEY CAN DREAM Hanover, N. H.—(U.P.)—When 4,000,000 board feet of lumber was harvested from the Dartmouth college land grant, undergraduates hopefully noted that the yield would provide enough planks to build a 110-mile boardwalk to Smith, a girls' college at Northampton, Mass. Unromantic college officials ordered the lumber sold to furniture dealers to finance Dartmouth scholarships, however.
