

Episcopal Church To Hear Musical Selection Sunday

Special events scheduled for St. Mark's Episcopal church Sunday will include a corporate celebration of holy communion for young people of the parish at 8 a. m. followed by a fellowship breakfast in the markade. A novel feature of the evening hour at 7:30 will be presentation of "The Genesis Suite," conceived by Nathaniel Shilkret, composer and conductor, and recorded by the Werner Janssen symphony orchestra of Los Angeles. This massive concept of orchestrating opening chapters of the Bible was the inspiration of Shilkret and is shared by such celebrities as Igor Stravinsky, Arnold Schoenberg, Darius Milhaud, Alexandre Tansman, Ernst Toch and Mario Castelnuovo-Tedesco.

Characters Listed
Biblical incidents interpreted include the Creation, Adam and Eve, Cain and Abel, Noah's Ark, the Covenant, Babel and the postlude with narration by Edward Arnold.

"The Genesis Suite" will be presented following a brief opening service and will be followed by an anthem by St. Mark's Girls' choir under the direction of Mrs. Stephen Nye. Music lovers will be welcome at this service. Other services during the day will be held at the usual hours.

PROTEST DROPPED
Spokane—(U.P.)—Edward Kloburber, 62, started to protest when a state patrolman ticketed him for having defective equipment. The officer cited Kloburber for having no safety chain to hold his house trailer to his car. The latter quickly swallowed his protest as he discovered the 18-foot trailer had broken loose and was in a ditch 14 miles back on the road.

Temple Baptists To Mark Second Year in Medford

Members and friends of Temple Baptist church will celebrate the second birthday of the church, Sunday, April 30. Fellowship services will begin at 9:45 a. m. and continue through the day.

The pastor, Perry M. Johnson, will speak at 11 a. m. Covered dish dinner will be served at the church following the morning services.

The afternoon will be taken up with testimonials of thanksgiving by members. Fellowship in singing will be led by E. V. May, director of music for the church.

Encouraging growth has marked the passing of the two years, according to the pastor. Total membership at the close of the second year is 178, he said.

Among the major achievements of the past year have been the establishment of a mission Sunday school and recognition of the Sunday school unit as standard through systematic grading, trained leadership and other points of efficiency.

Local One of Few
The Medford church has the only Sunday school in the state to qualify as standard through the denominational offices. Montella Freeman is the superintendent.

Further advances have been reached in the Training union program directed by C. L. Chew and in the Women's Missionary Union of which Mrs. Perry M. Johnson is president.

Mrs. Floyd Eaves is state W. M. U. president and E. D. Marr is state Sunday school president. Temple Baptist church is one of 27,000 churches in the fellowship of the Southern Baptist convention.

Methodists Announce Special Sunday Music
Sunday morning service at the First Methodist church will be broadcast from 11 a. m. to 12 noon over KYJC. Rev. Meredith Groves, pastor, will speak on "God's Renewed Radiance."

Special music will include anthems: "Redemption" by Mrs. Howard Bush and chancel choir; "Come Unto Me," Methodist men and chancel choir; chapel trio "Be Still My Soul".

Bill Walker will play the following organ selections: "Allegretto"; "Larghetto" and "Postlude in D Minor".

At the Sunday evening service the Rev. Mr. Groves will speak on "A Runaway Couple"; the vesper choir will sing.

Portlanders Unhappy Over Price of Duck

Portland, Ore., Apr. 28—(U.P.) Five would-be Portland hunters aren't happy about the price of duck in Portland courts today. They were found guilty by District Judge John F. Cahalin of bagging a duck out of season and fined a total of $125 for their untimely marksmanship.

Douglas, Donald, and Eldon Frye, Charles Gonsavage and Leroy Slaby got fines of $25 each. Meanwhile, the game commission claimed the duck.

Judge Cahalin also made fishing portable for Otto Martinson of Portland. The sportsman was fined $25 and his fishing tackle was ordered confiscated because he was convicted of fishing without a license.

Today's hens lay about twice as many eggs during fall and winter as were laid by hens in 1925.

Columbia Rate Case Dismissal Suggested

Portland, Ore., Apr. 28—(U.P.) A report from the interstate commerce commission today recommended dismissal of the four-year-old case involving joint rail-barge rates on the Columbia river.

It is the second adverse report to be filed on the issue. Four years ago, Inland Navigation company asked the ICC to force establishment of joint upstream petroleum rates and downstream grain rates between lower Columbia river ports and inland empire points.

The company asked that differentially lower rates be set from the all-rail shipments. Farm economists at the University of Illinois have estimated that the number of farm boys in Illinois is about twice the number needed for "replacement."
