Central Point Club To Sponsor Show At Veteran Center

Central Point—Central Point Navy Mothers' club is sponsoring a puppet show to be given at the Camp White domiciliary center Sunday, April 30, at 2 p. m. The show will be given by seventh grade pupils of the Central Point schools, of which Mrs. A. E. Eitemiller is teacher.

The Navy Mothers will also serve cookies and coffee for the veterans during the coffee hour and Mothers' day cards will be distributed. Earlier in the season the Central Point schools cooperated with the club in presenting a puppet show and one-act play for the veterans. These were much enjoyed, it is stated, and men of the center have asked for another performance.

Portland, Ore., Apr. 28—(U.P.) A sixth pet dog has been poisoned in Portland's northeast residential district, police said today.

Luncheon And Show Planned Tuesday By Church Circle

On the calendar for next week is a luncheon and style show planned by Grace circle of First Presbyterian church for Tuesday. The luncheon and show will be held from 11 a. m. until 1:30 p. m. A baked food sale will also be held during the event.

Tickets will be on sale at the door. Mrs. Ben Stafford is luncheon chairman and she will be assisted by other members of the circle. The style show will be given by Adrienne's store.

Four Guests Honored At Birthday Dinner

Jacksonville—A birthday dinner was recently held at the new ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dale near Jacksonville, the occasion celebrating the birthday anniversaries of four members of the family.

An enormous birthday cake was served in honor of all four honored guests, and gifts were presented.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sharris, Applegate; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tyman and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Hodge, Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Gonzales and family, Medford, Mrs. Edith Dale, Leonard Settell and the host and hostess.

Horticulturist Speaks For Jacksonville Club; Mrs. Coleman Reports

Jacksonville—Guest speaker for the last meeting of the Jacksonville Garden club was Don Berry, horticulturist in the office of the county agent. The meeting was held in the club rooms in the U. S. hotel, with Mrs. Lawrence Luy as hostess and Mrs. Dee Hendrickson and Mrs. Minnie Offenbacher co-hostesses.

Mr. Berry told how to recognize a few of the 800,000 types of insects, friends and foes, and advised his audience to buy insect sprays from a reliable source and to follow instructions on package or bottle when using. He encouraged his audience to seek advice from the extension office for their gardening problems.

Mrs. Ray Coleman reported on the Jacksonville Memorial park project, saying a town beauty spot had been created. Several trees have been planted and the lawn is carefully tended. She reported a guard rail of logs is being considered.

Members were asked to attend the district meeting of garden clubs to be held May 9 in the Rogue River Grange hall. This will be an all-day meeting.

Miss Claire Hanley displayed magnolia blooms from her yard and briefly spoke on roadside beauty as well as the beauty of the old fruit and nut trees in Jacksonville.

The tea table was centered with a colorful small May pole, each ribbon ending in a candy-filled basket used for favors. Mrs. William Wingham and Mrs. Godward poured.

Medford Mothers Plan Party

Medford Navy Mothers' club will sponsor the last of a series of card parties on Monday, May 1, at the Girls' Community club. Dessert will be served at 1 p. m. and pinocle and bridge will follow.

The card parties have been given by the club to raise funds for projects carried on at the Camp White veterans' domiciliary center.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—FIVE

Mrs. Lewis Conger Hostess for Circle

Last meeting of circle five, Woman's Society of Christian Service, was held at the home of Mrs. Lewis Conger on Ross lane. Mrs. H. Chirgwin presided over the meeting and also gave the devotions.

Mrs. F. E. Brandon read an article on rummage sales. Following the meeting, Mrs. Conger served dessert.

Next meeting of the circle will be held May 16 at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Brood. A potluck luncheon will be served, and members will tie a quilt. Members are asked to meet at the church at 11 a. m. for transportation and are to bring a pair of needles, thimble and a pair of scissors.

DEER LANDS IN JAIL

Metaine Falls, Wash.—(U.P.)—A nine-year-old deer which had become the town pet went to jail for three days when he got out of line. The mule buck tried to grab some candy a three-year-old girl was eating and fell on her. So, into the clink he went until game department officials took him six miles out of town and let him loose.
