

Klamath Wins But Morris Of Medford 'Talk of Town'

Klamath Falls high won the annual 20-30 club invitational track and field meet on its home oval yesterday but Jack Morris of second-place Medford was the talk of Pelican Town following the thirteenth carnival.

Klamath scored 190 5/6 points, Medford 136 1/3, Ashland 46, Grants Pass 32 5/8 and Rogue River 14.

Morris won the 100-yard dash and the 200-yard low hurdles, was on the second place relay team and tied for fifth in the broad jump to take individual scoring honors with 23 1/2 tallies. But it was the way speedy Jack ran his races that drew the plaudits.

Sets New Records

He set a new meet record of 22.6 seconds, .2 second less than the state record, in the low hurdles running both the preliminary heat and the final in that time. The old mark of 23.4 seconds was held jointly by Morris and Bob Redkey of Klamath.

Morris toured the century sprint in 9.8 seconds in the morning and 10 seconds flat in the afternoon.

However, the speed merchant's most amazing performance was in the half-mile relay. A bad baton pass made a 20-yard deficit for the Medford anchor man to make up and Morris almost did it. Morris sprang out on the final leg in an almost superhuman effort. He lacked but an inch in catching the Klamath first place anchor youth at the tape.

Other Medford first place winners were Frank Morris with a 15.4 seconds high hurdles, Warren Wendt with an 11-foot seven-inch pole vault, Lou Bittle with a 53.4 seconds 440-yard dash, Bill Buckingham with a 23.1 seconds 220-yard dash and D. C. Mills with a 161-foot, 10 1/2 inch javelin throw.

Frank Morris was second in the low hurdles, Buckingham second in the broad jump and fourth in the century and Don Vincent second for Medford in the javelin. Bateman tied for third for Medford in the pole vault. Roger Hobbs was fourth for the Tornado in the half-mile and fifth in the mile. Mills won fourth in the discus.

Other Medford scorers were Bill Pruitt fourth in the 220, George Goodman fourth in the high jump, Leo Parker fifth in the shot put and Marshall Berg sixth in the discus. On the relay team with Morris were Bittle, Pruitt and Buckingham. Bostock was fifth in the hurdle. Jim Gleason and Larue Smith were fifth and sixth in the 880, and Walker sixth in the 440.

Medford won seven first places to only three for Klamath but the Pels piled up nine seconds and 10 thirds.

Other participants in the meet were Bonanza, Henley, Lakeview and Malin and Dunsniur, Tulalake, Weed and Yreka, Cal.

Three Deadlocked Lead Weatherhane Golf Play

Pebble Beach, Cal., Apr. 29—(U.P.)—That rugged old debbie, Pebble Beach, proved too tough for the ladies today and not a par was cracked anywhere as a trio of feminine golfers tied for the first-day leadership in the $17,000 cross-country Weatherhane tournament.

County Class B Track at Ashland Soon

Jackson county class B high schools expecting to enter boys in the county meet at Ashland next Saturday, May 6, today were asked to send their list of entries to Coach Ed Knapp at Gold Hill high school by Monday night.

Knapp explained that quick listing of entries is needed so he as chairman of the meet can arrange for times of events, especially in case many prelims have to be run off.

Prelims at 9:30 a.m.

Preliminaries next Saturday will start at 9:30 a.m. on the Ashland high field with finals slated for 1:30 p.m. Knapp said that entries are expected from Gold Hill, Rogue River, Talent, Phoenix, Jacksonville, Butte Falls and St. Mary's (Medford).

Only Prospect high probably will not send a squad. Gold Hill won the meet last year and also in 1948 but Knapp foresees this year's competition as much greater. The Beavers placed second in the class C Hayward relays.

Tennis Today At Senior Hi

Medford tennis players interested in playing an inter-city matches this summer, Saturday were reminded that there will be a meeting of netmen today at the senior courts at 9 a.m.

Last Tuesday a meeting of those interested in a Medford tennis organization met with Tod Tibbitt to discuss promotion of player-spectator participation, availability of rackets and balls, types of equipment and ball, upkeep of courts and such subjects.

Today there will be an opportunity for other men in the city to join those already playing tennis at the high school courts and join a club if there are enough interested.

Those in charge stressed that the season is just getting started and that anyone wishing to play on a city team is invited to attend today's practice session.
