Many Parties Given For Mrs. Grant Todd; Couple To Leave City

Mrs. Grant Todd, who is leaving Medford to make her home in Reedsport, Ore., was honored at a number of farewell parties last week.

Mrs. Todd was honored Tuesday afternoon at a party and handkerchief shower given by Mrs. Wallace Brill at her home on Lozier lane. Twenty-eight members of Adarel Social club, to which Mrs. Todd belongs, were guests.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Frank Root was hostess for a party at her home, 601 Park Place No. 5, which honored Mrs. Todd. Dessert was served from a table centered with spring flowers, and Mrs. Todd was presented a gift from the 12 guests. All the guests are members of Adarel Past Matrons' club.

Mrs. W. L. Greenleaf was hostess Friday afternoon for a luncheon and card party in Mrs. Todd's honor. The guests were served luncheon at Omar's near Ashland, and then returned to Mrs. Greenleaf's home, 103 South Holly street, for tea. Guests were Mrs. Tom Young, Mrs. Susan Campbell, Mrs. George Jackson, Mrs. Minnie Bull and Mrs. Todd.

Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. Milton Winn entertained at a dinner for the Todds, the event being at their home, 1004 East Jackson street.

In Reedsport Mr. Todd will take over a marine distributing station for Standard Oil company, and will also operate a small store which handles fishing and boating supplies and equipment. He has been maintenance superintendent for this district for Standard Oil for the past 16 years.

The Todds are well known in the city's fraternal circles. Mrs. Todd is a past matron of Adarel chapter, OES, Jacksonville, and Mr. Todd is a member of the grand lodge committee of Eastern Star for Oregon and is also president of the newly organized Southern Oregon Association of Eastern Star.

Miss Deborah Tremblay To Leave City Monday; Farewell Parties Given

Various groups of the First Presbyterian church have entertained through the week honoring Miss Deborah Tremblay who has served as director of young people in Christian education in the church for the past five years. Miss Tremblay will leave Monday for San Jose, Cal., where she will take up duties there in directing Christian education throughout the church groups as well as do youth work.

For the first three years here, Miss Tremblay served as secretary and director of the youth education work combined. She came here from Minnesota where she had done similar work. They also presented Miss Tremblay in her honor.

Tuesday evening Sunday school teachers of the church entertained at a surprise farewell party for Miss Tremblay, following their regular meeting in the church. They presented her with a gift.

The young people of the church entertained at a dinner and handkerchief shower in the church Thursday in her honor. They also presented Miss Tremblay with a piece of luggage.

This evening following church services an informal gathering in the church parlors will be held in her honor.

Hillsboro Girl Wed To Leigh Duane Eden In Church Service

From Hillsboro, Ore., comes news of the wedding of Miss Barbara Jean Twiford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bernard Twiford of that city, to Leigh Duane Eden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Albert Eden of 211 Genessee street, Medford.

The rites were read Saturday, April 22 at high noon at All Saints' Episcopal church in Hillsboro by the Rev. Stein White-side, and Mr. Twiford gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Ardith Miller was organist.

The bride's gown was of white embroidered organza fashioned with a very full skirt, and a seed pearl halo held her net veil. She carried a bouquet of orchids and valley lilies. Miss Shirley Thurman of Boise, Ida., was bridesmaid. She wore yellow marquisette with full skirt and carried a bouquet of shattered yellow carnations and pale apricot colored transvaal daisies.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a beige crepe afternoon frock with corsage of pale pink dwarf lilies. The bridegroom's mother wore a suit of pale blue sharkskin and her corsage was of shattered yellow carnations.

Douglas Scott Eden of Yakima served as best man for his brother.

The reception which followed was at Scholls, home of the bride's parents. Assisting were Mrs. Milton H. Jones, Mrs. William A. Price, Mrs. L. W. Guild, Mrs. Thomas Lusk, Mrs. L. A. Montgomery. Church and reception decorations were of pink peach blossoms, white bridal wreath, white daffodils and white tulips.

One hundred guests attended the wedding and reception.

Mr. Eden and his bride will live in Portland following a wedding trip to Seattle. The bride attended the University of Oregon, where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega, and the bridegroom also attended the university, his fraternity being Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Mr. and Mrs. Eden both were in Hillsboro for the wedding, and other guests from Medford were Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hubbard. Also present for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George Schwarz and Miss Jo Anne Schwartz, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Eden of Yakima, James Snell of Eugene and Dr. Mabel Hardenbrook of Oregon City.
