Prospect Home Unit To Give Dinner Party; Festival Plans Made

Prospect—Prospect Home Extension unit met last week at the Community hall. Final arrangements were made for a dinner for husbands, with Mrs. Lewis Glevenberg and Mrs. Wallace Dinkens in charge of the dinner.

Plans for participation in the annual Homemakers' Festival May 3 were completed and it was decided the unit would be represented by the glove making project. Mrs. Lloyd Larson and Mrs. Burt Broomfield will be in charge of the display and Mrs. Lou Rogers was named to take charge of the sale of luncheon tickets.

Luncheon for the meeting was served by Mrs. Dinkens and Mrs. Klner.

The afternoon meeting was on the topic "Home Lighting" with Miss Eula Wintermote as demonstrator.

Last meeting of the year will be election and installation of officers.

The unit's president, Mrs. Wallace Neece, is moving to Gold Hill and will be very much missed by the unit and Prospect community.

Annual Banquet Held at Mon Desir Beta Sigma Phi

Beta Sigma Phi sorority held its annual Founders' day banquet at Mon Desir Friday evening. The dinner table was decorated with a centerpiece of yellow tulips and other spring flowers and yellow tapers.

During dinner a program was given. Mrs. Larry Carson gave the welcoming speech for pledges. Mrs. Vern Whitlatch gave a history of the sorority and Miss Doris Matheus, a guest, sang "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody."

Mrs. Jean Archibald gave "A Message From Mr. Ross" and the Founders' Day Pledge was given by Mrs. I. E. Schuler and the group in unison. "One World of Friendship" was the topic of Mrs. O. A. Eden and the program closed with group singing of the "Beta Sigma Phi Love Song."

After the banquet the ritual of jewels was given for a group of nieces including Mrs. M. P. Boehme, Mrs. John Black, Mrs. Donovan Foster, Mrs. Norval Hildman, Mrs. Barbara Norcross, Miss Garda Baker.

The ceremony was read by candlelight by the club president, Mrs. Jean Archibald.

Installation of officers for the coming year will be held at the next meeting May 11, and will take place at the home of Mrs. Carson.

Applegate Extension Changes Meeting Date

Applegate—The regular meeting date of the Applegate extension unit for this month has been changed from Wednesday, May 3, to May 10, owing to the Homemakers' Festival being held at Central Point Wednesday. A large number of the Applegate women will participate in this event, and an exhibit of lampshades will be arranged by them.

The local meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Meier on upper Applegate, and Mrs. Meier, with Mrs. Lance Oxfenbacher, will give the demonstration on broiled dinners. Other events of the afternoon will be a report on cancer control, installation of officers, and a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Clifton Childers whose home was destroyed by fire last month. The Childers are established in the Northey home which they purchased. Everyone interested is invited to attend, and to bring their own service. Meeting will start at 10:30 a. m.

Unions have grown fivefold in the United States since 1932.
