National Commander Of DAV Auxiliary To Visit Medford

Mrs. Henrietta Mills, Los Angeles, national commander of the Disabled American Veterans' auxiliary, will visit Medford Friday, May 5. Mrs. Mills first interest is hospital work, and she will visit the veterans administration center at Camp White while here.

A no-host luncheon will be given for Mrs. Mills at 12 noon at the Jackson hotel, and reservations are to be made with Mrs. E. R. Neff, 2-7275 by noon Thursday.

After the luncheon two local women, Mrs. E. R. Neff, national VAVS representative and Mrs. J. R. Lillis, state commander of the auxiliary for Oregon, will take Mrs. Mills on a tour of the Camp White center. Cars will be provided for other members of the auxiliary who wish to visit the center.

Mrs. Mills' work with veteran hospitals has extended over 26 years. The major share of this service has been at Sawtelle hospital in California, and Mrs. Mills has received a number of citations from the national department for her work.

A special meeting of the local auxiliary will be held Friday at 8 p.m. in the armory, with refreshments following.

Medford League To Elect Officers; Mayor To Speak

Medford League of Women Voters will hold the annual meeting, with election of officers and yearly reports, at the May meeting set for Saturday, May 6 at the Rogue Valley Country club. In addition, three city officials will be present and will speak on the city's affairs and on the coming bond elections to be held at the time of the primaries.

Speaking will be Mayor Diamond Flynn, Robert A. Duff, superintendent of the board of water commissioners, and Leo Weidner, acting fire chief.

Nominated for office in the league are Mrs. Frank Fairweather, first vice-president; Mrs. Richard Gray, second vice-president; Miss Elizabeth McCallister, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Paul Janney, treasurer; Mrs. G. A. Dierdorff, chairman of the nominating committee for 1951; Mrs. Ed Bolt and Mrs. O. L. Williams, board members.

Mrs. S. E. Phillips, president and Mrs. Leland Mentzer, recording secretary, are hold-over officers. Mrs. Phillips is in the east following the national convention, but will be in the city for the annual meeting.

The meeting will follow luncheon to be served at 1 p.m. at the club.

Miss Edith J. Freeman, home economist for the Oregon State college extension service, will speak at the annual Homemakers' Festival of Jackson county extension units tomorrow. The festival, to be held in the Central Point Grange hall, opens at 10 a.m., luncheon will be served at noon and Miss Freeman will speak during the afternoon.

Phoenix Association To Install Officers; Candidate Sponsored

Phoenix—Installation of officers will be held at the meeting of Phoenix Parent-Teacher association set for Thursday, May 4, at 2:30 p.m. in The Shack.

Grade school pupils will present a program under the direction of Bernard Windt.

The association is sponsoring Miss Wanda Norton as a candidate for queen for the Phoenix May Festival, and to raise funds for the candidate, unit members have started a series of "vanishing" luncheons. The first was given by Mrs. Norton Friday afternoon for 10 guests.

Of the 10 guests, five will hold similar affairs and invite four guests, each of these will in turn hold luncheons and invite three guests, and the series continues in this fashion until it "vanishes."

Guests Leave

Mrs. and Mrs. Gregory Smith of Tacoma, Wash., left for their home Monday morning after having been guests for the past 10 days of Dr. and Mrs. C. I. Drummond, Ross lane. Mrs. Smith is a sister of Mrs. Drummond.

New Officers Installed For Medford Rotana Club

New officers for Medford Rotana club, service organization for business and professional women, were installed at a meeting Thursday at Mon Dear Dining inn at Central Point. The ceremony also marked the first anniversary of establishment of a branch of Rotana in Medford and Miss Vada Hill of Salem, president of National Rotana, was present to install the new officers.

Mrs. Lelah Partch was installed president and officers chosen to assist her during the coming year were Mrs. Merle De Cordova, first vice-president; Mrs. Dolra Powell, second vice-president; Miss Stella Breed, treasurer, and Miss Louise Drew, secretary. Mrs. Bertha Pree and Miss Mabel Nye will serve as board members.

Miss Nye, past president of the club, presided. To open the meeting, members sang several club songs, accompanied by Miss Maccine Titus. Guests and members of the newly-organized Grants Pass club were introduced and a surprise announcement of the formation of the new club was made to Miss Hill.

Mrs. Bertha Pree paid tribute to the retiring club president, Miss Mabel Nye, for the "fine work she has done in the past year in developing a new club into a permanent organization." Miss Nye was presented with a special Rotana pin by club members as a token of their appreciation.

Mrs. Laura Farris, president of the Salem club, was also an honored guest. She gave a brief talk in which she explained some of the activities of the Salem club and complimented the Medford club on the work it has done in its first year.

Medford club members and their guests who attended the dinner were Mrs. Partch, Miss Jean Page, Mrs. Doris Elko, Miss Breed, Mrs. De Cordova, Miss Georgia Collins, Miss Mabel Nye, Mrs. Powell, Miss Grace Jones, Mrs. Bertha Pree, Miss Grace Holloway, Miss Mary Preston, Miss Irma Hill, Mrs. Lilly Belle O'Brien, Mrs. Ann Graves, Miss Titus and Miss Drew.

Representing the Grants Pass club at the meeting were Mrs. Vivian Wood, Mrs. Dorothy Warner, Miss Mina Anderson, Mrs. Leonel Heater, Miss Ramona Settle, Miss Velma Vollmer, Mrs. Maxine Anderson, Mrs. Evelyn A. Ethernott, Mrs. Linnea Durbarrow, Miss Elmore Jones, Miss Betty Hobart and Mrs. Henry.

A short business meeting was held by the Medford club, with Mrs. Partch presiding, and she announced committee chairmen for the coming year. These are membership chairman, Mrs. Graves; public affairs, Mrs. Mildred Eaves; fellowship, Mrs. Powell; education, Mrs. Pree; publicity, Miss Page, and finance, Miss Hill.

Plans were discussed for a rummage sale which will be sponsored by Rotana, May 12 and 13, in the showroom of Crater Lake Motors. A committee of Mrs. Powell, Mrs. Elko and Miss Hill was appointed to handle arrangements for the sale.

Delegates were chosen to represent the Medford club at the national convention, to be held in July. Mrs. Lilly Belle O'Brien and Mrs. Ann Graves were named delegates and Mrs. Doris Elko and Miss Jean Page, alternates.

Dinner arrangements were in charge of the program committee composed of Mrs. Partch, Mrs. De Cordova and Mrs. Powell. They were assisted by Miss Marie Barr of the Salem Rotana club. Miss Barr, a state deputy labor commissioner, has been assisting in organizing Rotana clubs throughout the state.
