

Rogues Play Willows Here Tonight, Saturday, Sunday

Jack Lloyd probably will be on the mound for the Rogues tonight when the Medford club opens a four game Far West league series with the Willows Cardinals at the Fairgrounds. Single games will be played tonight and Saturday and a doubleheader Sunday.

Sunday's doubleheader will start at 6:30 and the single games at 7:45.

By Hank Green
"It was cold outside" last night but the Medford Rogues and the Marysville Braves saw to it that there was plenty of action and the opening night crowd of some 1,018 fans braved the cool air and rain sprinkles to see the local Far West league team post a victory.

Medford came out on the long end of a 11 to 10 score through wildness on the part of Marysville pitchers but the same kind of work also kept the Rogues in hot water.

WALKS AID ROGUES
The winning run for the Rogues in the sixth inning was made on walks to Russ Stewart, Tommy Nelson and Milt Martin with two men out. A wild pitch finally allowed Stewart to score from third base with the big tally.

Player Manager Nelson of Medford had to remove himself from the game in the seventh inning when he strained a pulled muscle suffered at Reno. He said he probably will be out of the game for several days and that Lloyd Jones would take his place at the second base sack.

FLOYD SHOTWELL, starting hurler for the Rogues, gave up but two hits in the three innings he hurled but in that time the right-hander also allowed eight walks that proved his downfall.

Carl Hueners of the Jacksonville clan walked two and hit one with a pitched ball. However, three well-timed hits hurt him also.

HERMANN WINNER
LaVerre Herrmann of Central Point came in and pitched fairly effective ball and got credit for the victory. He allowed but three hits and two walks.

Four Marysville pitchers were just as wild as the Rogues mound staff as they passed 12 Medford boys and the cold wet weather seemed to effect both pitching staffs alike.

Big stick for the Rogues was Rightfielder Don Williams who rapped out four hits in five tries.

and drove in three runs. Milt Martin got two for four, Shotwell, Third Baseman Al Bolen and Russ Stewart one for two and Herrmann had a perfect night with one hit in a single trip.

The only extra base blow by Medford was a triple to the foot of the scoreboard by Martin in the third inning.

Double Play Good
Medford's "second" combination of Nelson and Stewart looked good on a double play combine in the fifth stanza with Nelson firing the grounder to Stewart who slammed the throw over to Cooney for the second out.

First Baseman Jack Cooney of the Rogues looked "classy" for his first appearance as a pro player and only a year or two out of high school. He arrived here by plane yesterday afternoon and insisted on playing last night.

Opening day ceremonies were conducted by A. Z. "Tubby" Dean, president of Rogue Valley Baseball, Inc., sponsors of the Rogues. Mayor Diamond Flynn represented the city and leaders in the Athletics Booster club helped.

The lineups:
Marysville — 020 610 010—10 7 0
Medford — 341 021 00x—11 11 2
Williams (2); Guyette (2); Grey (2); Agular (3) and Kenmur, Cummings (5) and Sachs (7); Shotwell, Hueners (4), Herrmann (5) and Martin (winning pitcher)—Herrman, Loring pitcher—Grey.

Schools in addition to Medford expected to enter boys are Klamath Falls, Gold Hill, Grants Pass, Central Point and Ashland. A local service club will be in charge.

Only the discus and javelin events will not be called tonight and this is because officials believe doing these under artificial light is too dangerous.

Preliminary heats will be run in all events where too many are entered to have them run off in one. All distance events will be so-called "short distance" except the 100-yard dash. In the other words the 220 will be a 150, the 440 a 330 and so on.

Educators Rap National Championship Athletics
Washington, May 5—(U.P.)—Educators today proposed a "sanity code" for high school sports, including a ban on national championship and extra-schedule games.

They also condemned the practice of universities which lure high school athletes with scholarships or job offers.

WALICK TOP MAN ARMORY WRESTLING
Leo Wallick is still the top bad man in Mack Lillard's wrestling stable following his defeat of Ted Bell in the final match of last night's battle royal card at the armory.

The end came when Bell missed a drop kick, injuring his back. Wallick picked him up for a pile driver but Referee Earl Yoakley stepped in and ruled that Bell was in no shape to continue. They were survivors of the battle royal.

After Bell, in the free-for-all, had given Wallick and Cummings a bad time for a few minutes, the meanies teamed up and were dishing out a solid drubbing to the Brooklyn boy when Wallick tripped Bob Cummings and Bell and the Chicago Cuffer piled aboard for the fall.

Cummings lost on a foul to Eddie Williams, third man eliminated in their regulation match. Yoakley ruled that Cummings had no business slamming Williams, the Flying Scotman, in to a turnbuckle in Williams' corner and therefore disqualified the champion. Cummings ranted long and loud but it brought him naught.

Charley Carr, first man out, had too much experience for Norval Stockstill, Ashland policeman, who was the second one eliminated, and won their scrap with a Boston crab.

Lillard announced that the Great Atlas, hated New York strong man, who is an expert with the full nelson, has been signed for next week's card. The promoter said he would open negotiations with Wallick or Cummings as possible opponents.

High School Golfers Vie

Play opened today at Eugene Country club in the second round of the upstate golf tournament for high school boys with Medford starting the round in second place behind Corvallis. The Tornado golfers won that position about two weeks ago at Corvallis.

The week-end tourney this time will consist of 18 holes to-day and as many tomorrow.

Taking part for Medford high are Phil Getchell, Ed Oldfield, Bill McAllister, Justin Smith and Bob Shepherd. Robert Shepherd, father of Bob, drove them up north.

Next week the local school golfers will conduct a playoff to determine who the four will be to represent the Tornado in the state high school tourney at Portland.
