

Candidates for State Office To Speak Saturday

Talks by democratic candidates for governor, United States senator and representative from the fourth district will highlight the program at the final meeting of the Jackson County Democratic Central committee to be held at the YMCA Saturday at 3 p. m.

BORROWED QUEEN—Miss Lois Butler, San Francisco State College coed, pulled hard on the reins as she strikes up an acquaintance with a quartet of thoroughbred yearlings at California State Polytechnic College in San Luis Obispo, Calif. Miss Butler was borrowed by the all-male student body at Cal Poly to reign over their 18th annual Poly Royal, a "country fair on a college campus."

In and Around Rogue River

Rogue River, May 5—Fire Warden W. A. White is one of the men engaged in building a new lookout on Roundtop mountain, according to his wife who says building a tower on a snow-covered mountain top is cold work.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elder, Portland, are visitors at Trailerland for a few days. They spent some time there last year in their trailer and have returned to fish for salmon.

The regular meeting of the city council was postponed due to the illness of Councilman Phil Engle and the absence of other members. Engle is suffering from influenza. A special meeting of the council is scheduled for Tuesday, May 9.

Commander Jack Stewart announced VFW District 7 will hold the annual spring meeting in Grants Pass VFW hall at 2:30 p. m. May 7. Dinner will be served at 12:30 p. m. Post 2302 and the auxiliary are the hosts.

Mrs. Don Brady arrived by plane from Coos Bay Tuesday to visit her mother, Mrs. Juanita Wittick. The two women motored to the coast Wednesday.

Neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Green on Cedar street, Tuesday afternoon for a surprise shower given to Mrs. Faye Stehl. She received many beautiful and useful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Whipple spent Sunday at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Smith and enjoyed a drive around the Evans valley roads. They report the loop made by the east and west roads is a beautiful scenic drive to recommend as a tourist attraction.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 5—(U.P.)—Adm. William H. P. Blandy said today that young doctors would be induced to practice in rural communities, if they were assured of modern equipment.

Blandy, president of the health information foundation, told the annual convention of the American pharmaceutical association that community adoption of an equipment-supplying plan would relieve the shortage of doctors in smaller communities.

Firemen flushed the hydrants in the downtown area Wednesday evening in a practice drill and at the same time washed the paved streets. The public has been requested not to throw paper and other litter on the streets.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Bernard, Wimer, have just returned from a week's visit with their niece in Washington. They also visited Mrs. Bernard's sister at Battleground.

Campers will pay 50 cents a day or $3 a week for car party of not more than six persons. Picnickers will pay 25 cents a visit for a party of not more than six.

Some 1100 other national forest campgrounds in Oregon and Washington will remain on the free list.
