

Gold Star Chapter To Be Instituted In Camp Ceremony

With department representatives presiding, a Medford chapter of Gold Star Mothers will be instituted in ceremonies at Camp White tonight at 8 o'clock. The new group will receive its charter and officers will be installed.

Representatives from other chapters in Oregon will be in attendance and the department drill team will assist with the installation.

Invitations have been sent to the heads of all patriotic organizations and to their auxiliaries, to attend the ceremonies. Mayor Diamond Flynn will present the charter and Miss Frances Thrun will sing. She will lead group singing, accompanied by Bruno Pellegrini.

All Gold Star mothers are invited to attend by Mrs. James Cech, who will be installed president of the new organization.

Phoenix Teacher Club To Be Guest

Miss Abbie Sturtevant, Phoenix school teacher and member of Medford Toastmistress club, won the district speech contest of Toastmistress clubs at a meeting last Sunday in Klamath Falls. She will now enter the regional contest in Seattle, Wash., May 20.

Miss Sturtevant gave the same talk on "Keys" which won her the Medford club contest recently, this subject having been chosen by her from the general theme, "Progress Through Enlightenment."

She was accompanied to Klamath Falls by Mrs. Marjorie Hopkins, president of the Medford club, who acted as toastmistress for the meeting and contest. Also attending was Mrs. George McIntyre, who presided over a business meeting of District 7, and during the session Mrs. Lola Reed of Medford was elected president to succeed Mrs. McIntyre.

Miss Dana Platz accompanied the group and acted as one of the judges.

Members of the newly formed Grants Pass Toastmistress club will be guests of the Medford club at a meeting Monday, May 8, in the Girls' Community club. Dessert at 7:15 p. m. will be followed by the regular program of talks. Mrs. James J. Boyle will be toastmistress and Mrs. Bren H. Starcher, topic mistress.

Theme of the meeting will be "Women Around the World." Speakers will be Mrs. Wallace Haskins, Mrs. Robert Claypool, Mrs. F. J. Runtz and Mrs. Scott V. Davis.
