Radio Dial Lights

By John Ahern

Our best wishes to an old timer who wrapped up her typewriter yesterday and shoved off for greener pastures. We hasten to add that "old timer" refers to Pat Wilkinson's time with KYJC, and not her time in this mortal coil.

Pat leaves for a better position, and a lot of listeners as well as the staff at the station wish her all good luck.

Now to the more mundane items on the local radio scene.

It may not surprise you, but the Third Man theme made so famous by the wax companies, was from the picture "The Third Man." However, the pic had more than just this theme to listen for, as is shown tonight on the Louella Parson show, when L. P. has Valli, the winsome eyeful, as a guest.

If Johnny Olson has his way, radio will be getting in your hair, quite literally. The Johnny Crooner spot on his show has become so popular that New York's leading hair stylists will introduce a new hair style in their spring showings. It's called, of all things . . . the "Johnny Bob." What it looks like we don't know.

Have a whole list of biographs here, from which we chose this one. Did you know that Art Baker was the first man to get into radio in memoriam? Seems Forest Lawn cemetery in Los Angeles wanted an exclusive announcer for a program of theirs . . . with a total salary of ten dollars. Art was beat out, but the man who won didn't stay with it, so Art was hurriedly called into duty. That was the start that has since put him in pictures . . . and on his own show—Art Baker's notebook . . . on KYJC at 3:45 p.m., four days weekly.

Incidentally, kids, don't forget the June Storey show tomorrow night at eight.

Butte Falls

Butte Falls, May 5—Mrs. Jack Rodgers has been staying in Central Point the past week taking care of her mother who was ill.

The three-act play, "The Ghost Chaser," presented by the high school last Friday evening was a huge success and attended by a large crowd.

Butte Falls town team downed the Central Point Millers there Sunday 7 to 5. This made the third win for the Loggers, no defeats.

Mrs. Jim Arnold has returned to her home after staying in Medford for three weeks with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Greer.

Mrs. Robert Beeman entertained a group of friends Friday at her home with a Stanley party.

While planting a garden last Friday, a rock flew into Edwin Arnold's eye. Mrs. Bill Edmondson drove him to Medford where he was given medical attention.

Home Extension unit will meet Friday, May 5, at the home of Mrs. Fred Kincaid. The project will be "getting the most from electricity," by Miss Eula Wintermote.

Since this is the last regular meeting it will be a pot luck at noon.

People interested in forming a garden club met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Frank Carson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McDonald, Eugene, visited over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Edmondson.

Mrs. Marion Rice and Nora Caples sister and niece of Keith Scott from Ft. Bragg, Cal., visited at the Scott home last week. After leaving here they traveled north and to coastal points.

Clyde Wilson is home from a Medford hospital where he has been confined due to injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Peckner, San Francisco, were guests last week at her parents' home, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Green. They were on their vacation having already visited Yellowstone national park, and from here were traveling to Washington.

Ike Smith has returned home from the hospital where he has been confined because of illness. Mrs. Smith took him to Medford again Monday for medical attention.

Mrs. Edyth Price and her parents, Ashland, visited with Dora Price here Tuesday.

The Gun club held their regular meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Clay Conley.

Mrs. Bill Fontaine and children, Medford, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hereyford, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Moore.

Table Rock

Table Rock, May 6—Mrs. Harold Sharp, Portland, formerly of this area was a recent visitor at the Ray Doran home.

Mrs. Sharp was interviewing school boards in regard to a position as teacher in one of the valley schools.

Owing to the nightly smudging activities here last week the attendance at the last community meeting was smaller than usual.

Jimmy Allen showed some colored pictures taken in the vicinity of Grand Canyon and Salt Lake City and played some recordings of noted composers which were highly enjoyed by all present.

Visitors at the meeting from other communities were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brenneshoitz of Arnold lane, former residents here, and Don Grissom and Mr. Phillips of Lake Creek.

The next meeting of the Table Rock Ladies club will be held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Doty Wednesday afternoon, May 10.
