Klamath Gems Score Record Runs Number

Klamath Falls, Ore., May 6 (U.P.)—One of the highest team scores in baseball history was made by Klamath Falls of the Far West league Friday night in defeating Reno, 32 to 3.

Only 650 fans saw the endless procession of Klamath Falls base runners across home plate after being held scoreless in the first inning.

The modern major league record is 28 made by the St. Louis Cardinals on July 8, 1929.

Ducks Upset Husky Thins

Eugene, Ore., May 6 —(U.P.)— The University of Oregon's star-studded track team remained undefeated today, taking a 73-58 win from previously unbeaten Washington.

Only one record was set on the track, slowed by a week's rain and a 10-mile headwind at the straightaway. Oregon's George Rasmussen cleared 14 feet, 1 inch, to break the mark of 14 feet. Set by George Varoff of Oregon in 1938.

Two upsets marked the meet. Pete Mundle of Oregon outran Washington's George Abbey in the two-mile and Dave Kolden upset Bill Olson in the high jump.

Seals, Oakland Take PCL Baseball Games

San Francisco, May 6 —(U.P.)— After spotting Los Angeles five runs in the top of the first inning, San Francisco came back Saturday to wrest a 10 to 6 Pacific Coast league baseball win.

Hollywood, Cal., May 6 —(U.P.) Ernie Groth pitched Oakland to a series-clinching 7 to 2 Pacific Coast league win over luckless Hollywood Saturday.

SOC Baseball Twin Bill Cancelled, Wet Grounds

Ashland, May 6 — Saturday's baseball doubleheader between Southern Oregon college and San Francisco State college was called off because of wet grounds, Coach Ted Schopf said. It was to have marked the final appearance of the 1950 Raiders at the local park.

Sunday the SOC nine will play an exhibition game with the Cheney Studs team at Central Point at 2:30 p.m.

Ducks Unlimited Given $5,000 by Oregonians

Oregon sportsmen contributed more than $5,000 to Ducks Unlimited last year, Alfred H. Schmidt, state chairman of Portland, reported Saturday in a release to newspapers.

The same $5,000 quota has been set for Oregon this year.

Restorations of Canadian waterfowl breeding areas will proceed at top speed as result of appropriations approved by trustees of Ducks Unlimited, Schmidt said.

HOCKEY COACH QUITS

New York, May 6 — (U.P.) — There was a boom in National Hockey league coaching opportunities today as Lynn Patrick resigned from the New York Rangers, leaving half the clubs in the loop temporarily without a coach for next season.

Cheney Studs Vs. SOC At C. P. Field, 2:30

Central Point, May 6—Cheney Studs will play the strong Southern Oregon college baseball team in a non-league affair at the Central Point field Sunday at 2:30 p.m. It will be the last spring training game before the league season opens on May 14.

Ted Schopf, SOC coach said, he will pick his starting pitcher from Ronnie Pinkham, Tex Gatlin, John Gray, Hennebeck or Russ Martindale, with Gene Farthing catching.

Stud Manager Hoosier Hoffard said his team will be out to set the college nine down to avenge an earlier defeat this season. At that time the Studs were not in top shape in either the fielding or batting department, Hoffard said.

A new infielder, Howard McDonald, has been signed by the Studs and will make his first appearance before the home fans Sunday. McDonald is an experienced ball player, having played four years at Pacific university where he graduated last spring.

In the summer of 1949 he played with Banks, Ore., the Oregon State semi-pro champions and also for Bellingham, Wash., the Washington State champions, who played in the national tournament at Wichita, Kan.

Manager Hoffard will start Clarence Mellbye or Cliff Piland on the mound with Frank Roelandt handling catching duties. The rest of the lineup will be picked from Howard McDonald, Alex McDonald, George Gitzen, Dint Cox, Freddy Stammen, Hal Adams and Norm Lucich.

Helen Thompson Ousted 1950 Spring Tournament

Miss Helen Thompson, 1949 champ, fell out of the running for the 1950 women's spring golf handicap crown of Rogue Valley Country club in a quarter-finals match yesterday. She lost 4 to 2 to Mrs. Tom Ness.

In a first flight match Mrs. Belle Schenck downed Mrs. C. B. Collins 2 to 1.

Chez Winning Pitcher As Stanford Tops Cal

Joe Chez, former Medford high and semi-pro hurler, was given credit for the victory when when Stanford university edged California 7 to 6 Saturday afternoon. Chez relieved the starting pitcher in the fourth inning and gave up but three hits and a single tally.

California was ahead 5 to 2 when Chez took over the duties but his teammates came up with five runs to help him out. This was Chez's fifth CIBA win against no losses and was the first time Stanford had swept a three game series with Cal in one year.

Ashland Semi-Pro Nine Dates Drill on Monday

Ashland, May 6 — First practice session for the Ashland team in the semi-pro Southern Oregon Baseball league will be held at the high school field Monday at 5:30 p.m., Player-manager Tex Gatlin said Saturday.

The Lithians are scheduled to open their SOL season Sunday, May 14, he said.

HANDICAP TOURNEY

Members of Medford Bowling association wishing to enter the city handicap tournament at the Medford Bowling lanes today may register for the events not later than 1 p. m., officials in charge said Saturday.

There will be singles and doubles events with rolling slated for 1 p. m.

'Middleground' Victor in Derby

Louisville, Ky., May 6 —(U.P.) Middleground, a Texas tornado from the sprawling King ranch acres in the Lone Star state, came like a twister in the stretch today to win the 76th running of the Kentucky Derby.

Coming out of nowhere in the drive down the last, long piece of horse highway to the pay-off window in America's most glamorous gallop, the son of the 1936 Derby winner—Bold Venture—gave the King ranch its third rose run triumph when he finished a length and a half ahead of Virginia's highly-touted Hill Prince.

C. V. Whitney's Mr. Trouble was third, as Your Host, the California comet who went off the favorite in the field of 14 faded badly after setting the pace most of the way.

CAVEMEN DOWN PELS

Grants Pass, May 6 — Grants Pass high baseball team nipped the Klamath Falls nine 3 to 2 in 13 innings in a Southern Oregon conference get-together here Friday afternoon.

Washington Wins Thinclads Meet

Washington grade school overwhelmed three local opponents in the annual all-city track meet yesterday afternoon at the senior high field by piling up 168½ points to 73½ for Jackson, which placed second.

Roosevelt took third position with 56 points and fourth was Lincoln with 46.

A complete summary of all results in the track meet will be published in The Mail Tribune on Monday.

Ben Hogan Practically Assured Golf Champ

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., May 6—(U.P.)—Bantam Ben Hogan virtually wrapped up his first championship since starting up the comeback trail when he turned in a five under par 65 today in the third round of the Greenbrier open golf tournament.

The mighty mechanical mite from Texas who has led the field since the start of the 72-hole competition, had a 193 total for his three trips around the picturesque "old white course."

WSC Continues To Hold PCC Baseball Top Spot

By United Press

The Washington State baseball team still held its narrow lead in the northern division of the Pacific Coast conference Saturday but the Washington Huskies were hot on the Cougars' heels.

Both Washington teams won over Oregon schools Friday; the Huskies sweeping a doubleheader from Oregon State by shutouts of 4-0 and 1-0 while Washington State downed Oregon 5-2.
