Gold Hill Rebekahs Sponsor Card Party

Gold Hill — Rebekah lodge members sponsored a card party at the lodge Friday. Pinochle, canasta and solo were the games played. High scores were won by Mrs. Wilmer Bailey and Cecil Bell in pinochle, by Wilmer Bailey in solo and by Mrs. Leonard Andrews and Lester Thompson in canasta.

The committee, Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Frank Carter, Mrs. Norman Gall and Mrs. Lester Thompson served refreshments after the games.

Chairman Named For Next Jamboree Of Square Dancers

Glenn Smith, chairman of the Medford YMCA square dance group, has announced the appointment of Frank Van Dyke as general chairman in charge of arrangements for the square dance jamboree to be held in the senior high school gymnasium the evening of June 3.

This event is of particular importance to square dancers because the caller of the evening is to be Jack Hoheisel from Los Angeles and the many who participated in the Hoheisel jamboree in March have been eagerly anticipating his return to the valley. Mr. Hoheisel is in great demand as a caller in southern California and has also made recordings which are very popular.

Mr. Van Dyke, as chairman of the square dance jamboree, wishes to call attention to the fact that tickets are now on sale at the YMCA, Pruitt's, at Purucker's Piano House and from members of the "Y" square dance committee.

Mr. Van Dyke states that committees have been appointed to assist him with arrangements for the dance. On the ticket committee are Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denham. Serving on the house committee will be Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Bessonet and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ragsdale make up the committee in charge of sound equipment.

Kenneth Denman heads the music committee. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith are the program committee and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jamison are on the concession committee. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crump and Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Huson are on the hospitality committee and Mrs. Denman and Mrs. Van Dyke are in charge of publicity. Taking tickets will be Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Blough and Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Williams.

Central Point Group Holds Work Session

Central Point—Central Point Garden club held a work session at the home of Mrs. Henry Conger, Ross lane, May 4, with members making favors which will be sent to the state convention in Klamath Falls June 13-15.

Mrs. E. W. Jermak, president, conducted a short business meeting. Each member brought a sack lunch and dessert and coffee were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Conger, Mrs. Warren Patterson, Mrs. Charles Taylor and Mrs. Paul Anderson. An arrangement of iris was displayed by Mrs. Conger.

Mothers To Sing For PTA Meeting Friday Afternoon

Roosevelt Mothers' chorus, one of the newest vocal groups in the city, will be featured on the program of Roosevelt Parent-Teacher association Friday, May 12. Organized more than a year ago, the group has made several appearances this season. Last appearance of the chorus was for a meeting last week of the Medford Council of Parents and Teachers.

Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer is director and Mrs. Richard Payne is accompanist. Organization of mothers' choruses is a state-wide project of the PTA, but so far the Roosevelt group is the first of its kind here. At the recent state convention, 230 mothers who sing in the choruses throughout the state were on the convention program.

Methodist Women To Give Luncheon

Women of the Methodist church will serve a "mother-daughter" luncheon in the parlors of the church Saturday, May 13, beginning at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. Everett Faber has been chosen toastmistress for the luncheon and Mrs. Jennie Lawless will give the welcome to daughters while Miss Alice Howard will give the welcoming speech to the mothers.

Mrs. Lyle Schoppert and her daughter, Susan will sing a group of duet numbers.

In charge of the luncheon are members of Circles two and three headed by Mrs. Meredith Groves and Mrs. Ray Harrison. Those planning to attend the luncheon are requested to notify the church office, phone 3-2585.

In Spain, which is about twice as large as Oregon, 5,000 rod-and-line fishermen live by catching trout and salmon for market. Netting is forbidden.

Christian Council Officers Elected; Program On Japan

New officers were elected at the last meeting of Woman's Council of the First Christian church, with Mrs. Vern Bailey re-elected president. Also named to office were Mrs. Arnold Bollert, vice-president; Mrs. Claude Cooper, recording secretary; Mrs. C. D. Hershiser, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ralph Cook, worship chairman and Mrs. A. H. Gregory, treasurer.

Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr. spoke, telling of the drive for funds to build a new Christian university for Japan.

Mrs. C. C. Sater spoke on "Japanese Flower Arrangements" and Mrs. Strauss and Mrs. Gregory told of "Churches in Japan." "Schools in Japan" was the topic on which Mrs. A. W. Denny spoke, and Mrs. Davis concluded the program with a paper on "Workers in Japan."

Mrs. Frank Heller presented the devotional program and Mrs. Wayne Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Cook, sang.

An executive board and general business meeting were held in the morning, with Mrs. Bailey presiding. Luncheon was served at noon by Kindred circle, with Mrs. Walter Kindred in charge.

Tiny Tot Fashions To Be Shown Friday

Plans for the "tiny tots" fashion show and silver tea to be held in the Methodist church parlors Friday afternoon, May 12, are progressing nicely, according to the committee members in charge of arrangements for the event. It is announced that all interested friends are invited to be present.

Gay colorful play outfits will be featured as well as more elaborate costumes. It is expected that ballet costumes will also be shown and small boys will show fashions popular with those who live in the west. Hours for the show and tea are from 2 until 4 o'clock.

Central Point Girls Plan Mothers' Tea Friday Afternoon

Central Point—Girls of Central Point high school have planned a Mothers' day tea on Friday, May 12, at 2:30 p. m., for the mothers of all students in the school.

A program is being planned for the mothers' enjoyment and this includes musical numbers, a skit coached by Mrs. Frances Ruck, dramatic director, and a style show of the clothing made by girls in homemaking classes. Miss Lois Camp will provide a musical background for the style show.

Miss Jean Hamilton, president of Girls' league, and Miss Venice Moon, president of Girls' Athletic association, will preside at the tea table.

On the invitations committee are Dorothy Thumler, chairman; Joanne Carrigan, Colleen Reisinger and Delores Walker. Laural Jewett is chairman of the decorations committee, with Galle Lewis, Shirley Edison and Charlene Paull assisting. Chairman of the refreshment committee is Charlotte Hook, with Lucy Har-nish, Esther Snook and Harriet Morris as members.

Beverly Moody is chairman of the clean-up committee, with Irene Williams, Aylene Sellers and Dorene Jones as members. Miss Marjorie Anderson, adviser for the GAA and the league, and Mrs. Frances Willett, homemaking teachers, are assisting the girls.

Mothers' Week-End Program Planned At Ashland School

Ashland — Southern Oregon college will be host to mothers of students at the annual Mothers' Week-end celebration Friday and Saturday, May 12-13. Advance registrations indicate an attendance of some 150 mothers. The Friday program will consist of registration in Church Hill Hall, tour of Lincoln Laboratory school and the campus, a fireside at Susanna Homes Hall, and attendance at the drama department production of "I Remember Mama."

Saturday there will be a women's honor assembly, Mothers' club meeting, luncheon, style show and tea, and Sigma Epsilon initiation. The program ends Saturday evening in order to allow mothers and students to return home for their customary Mother's day church services.

Daughters To Meet Friday at Courthouse; Dinner Recent Event

Daughters of Union Veterans will meet Friday, May 12, at 8 p. m., in the courthouse auditorium. Initiation is slated for the evening.

A recent event of the group was a dinner held at the home of Mrs. Genevieve Hyde in honor of the department president, Mrs. Martha Curran of Albany.

A meeting followed the dinner, attended by 14 members of the order.
