Jean Hart's
Diary

Sunday, May 14

Every summer, several years ago, when I was a customer—I would vow to have more play clothes next year—more sun dresses, more comfortable shorts. Then when actual summer came I could never find them. Well, I've found them now. Dozens of them—not only for me, but for you and you and YOU.

I have shorts and shirts and pedal pushers in seersucker, sail cloth and denim. And denim this year has a cast of many colors—including plaid—and I have them all. I have jackets to match the shorts, slacks and pedal pushers. I have sleeveless shirts and T-shirts in stripes and plain colors. I have tops for added sun and short fitted bolero tops for controlled sun. I have beach clothes, pool clothes, barbecue clothes—and if it's as hot as it was Thursday I have BATHING CLOTHES and I'll tell you all about them next week.

If you are planning an active summer fishing, gardening, swimming—just see me—Jean Hart, the Vacation Kid.
