What's New at BELL'S

44 South Central

Did you see Franciscan Fine China advertised in the May "House Beautiful" and other magazines? It's a lovely ad—but even the marvels of modern photography can't show the exquisite translucence, the fine light feel of Franciscan China.

So do come in and see our ten distinctive patterns, some of them brand new. Pick up a plate, hold a cup to the light, note the graceful lines, the clear colors. See if you don't agree that it is truly china to be cherished.

It's good news, especially for brides and those shopping for bridal gifts, that Franciscan China is available until June 17 at special lower prices.

Miss Maxine Ayers Wedded Last Month To Washington Man

Central Point—Of interest to friends in Central Point is news of the wedding of Miss Maxine Ayers, formerly of Central Point and now of Seattle, to Lyman L. Zimmerman of Seattle.

The wedding took place April 22 in Northminster Presbyterian church, Seattle, and a reception followed at the church. The Rev. A. Taylor Dunlap officiated.

The bride's gown was of white satin with veil of illusion and her bouquet was of white rosebuds with an orchid. Matron-of-honor was Mrs. John Sharp, Central Point, sister of the bride, who wore a frock of orchid taffeta and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow rosebuds. Other attendants were Mrs. William Grimes, Klamath Falls, sister of the bride, and Miss Betty Sharp, Central Point, niece of the bride, who was junior bridesmaid. Both wore orchid colored gowns and carried colonial bouquets of yellow rosebuds.

John Fullerton was best man for Mr. Zimmerman and ushers were George Malm, George Zimmerman and Gene Zimmerman.

The couple traveled to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., for the wedding trip. The bride was graduated from Central Point high school and the bridegroom served in the navy after his graduation from high school in Seattle.

Memorial Night

Jacksonville—Memorial night will be observed by members of Adarel chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, at a meeting of the group Thursday, May 18, at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Herbert Thomas will be in charge of the observance.

Mrs. Ina Huson, worthy matron, who has been ill for some time, will be back to conduct the meeting.

The wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman L. Zimmerman took place April 22 in Northminster Presbyterian church, Seattle. The bride is the former Maxine Ayers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Ayers of Central Point and her husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Noble S. Zimmerman of Seattle. (Johanson photo.)
