

Local and Personal

Car Fire—A spark from a match was listed as possible cause of a car fire at Merrick's Motor Inn about midnight last night, firemen said today. Floor matting was burned but damage was slight, according to the report. The auto belonged to F. W. Roach, Roseburg.

Naval Reserves—Medford's naval reserve volunteer composite unit 13-11 will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the federal office building. The major part of the meeting will be devoted to preparation for the Armed Forces day parade to be held May 20.

Four-Hers Meet—Jackson county 4-H club members met last night at the fairgrounds for a discussion of tractor maintenance problems and to lay plans for next fall's 4-H fair. Leader for the group was Truman Bishop and the meeting was conducted by President Henry Padgham.

Howard Festival—Howard school students will present their annual spring music festival Friday at 8 p.m. in the school gym. The vocal and instrumental program will be under the direction of Edwin C. Root, music instructor, who will also present a guitar specialty. There will be no admission charge for the program.

Shady Cove Picnic—Shady Cove school children will hold their annual picnic Friday at the end of the school year Wednesday, May 17, starting at 11 a.m., on the school grounds. All children, their parents, other relatives and friends interested in the work of the PTA are invited to turn out and enjoy the affair. Those attending are requested to bring a covered dish, either salad, hot dish or dessert.

valley DRIVE-IN theatre
at Highway 99 north of BIG Y
LOCALLY OWNED
ENDS TONITE

The Great Dan Patch
ORRIS, RUSSELL, WARRICK, GREENWOOD
HERE WED., THURS.
Kathryn Grayson - E. Barrymore
in "THAT MIDNIGHT KISS"

PLUS "SMUGGLERS COVE"
NEWS CARTOON
Gates Open at 7:30, Show at Dusk

50¢ CHILDREN UNDER 12 FREE

Moved—Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Dorg have moved from here to make their home in Cloverdale, Cal.

Square Dance—The YMCA weekly square dance will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Huson in charge.

New Employee—Mrs. Florence Zimmerman began work yesterday as hostess in the offices of Monahan and Wiggins, optometrists.

Marine Meeting—A meeting of marine corps reserve VTU 13-21 will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the federal building, North Riverside and Sixth streets.

Money Taken—Mrs. Jane Trask, Room 4, 344 South Central avenue, reported to city police yesterday that a considerable amount of money had been taken from a purse in her room.

Shovel Taken—Mrs. L. M. Smith, 328 South Riverside avenue informed police that someone stole a shovel from her yard yesterday evening as she was working on her lawn.

Hub Caps Stolen—Bill Hous-310 West Jackson street, told police that hub caps and wheel rings were stolen from his car parked on Bartlett street last night while he attended the boxing matches at the armory.

Car Stripped—Richard Sutherland, 808 West Jackson street, reported to city police that his car was stripped of its motor wiring Sunday night and that the distributor was removed at the rotor and condenser taken.

Year of Duty—Floyd D. Doland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Doland, route 1, Sams Valley, a corporal in the army, has completed a year of duty in the far east, the army said today. He is an engineer, disc jockey, control man, announcer and assistant program director of the armed forces radio station WYKI at Itazuke air base, Fukuoka, Kyushu, Japan.

From Seattle—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sawyer of Seattle are visiting this week with Sawyer's brother, Roy Sawyer, 205 Portland avenue, and his sister, Mrs. D. M. Cleveland, 210 Portland avenue.

From Vacations—Mrs. Floyd R. Lawson, 19 Chestnut street, commercial teller at First National bank, and Mrs. Joe McCallister, Bellinger road, secretary at the bank, have returned to their employment following their vacations.

In San Francisco—H. H. Coleman, Crater Lake Motor company, left by plane yesterday for San Francisco where he will attend a dinner honoring Clem Powell, new branch manager for the Richmond area which includes this district. Coleman plans to return Wednesday. Returning today from Oakland is William Mantey of the local company, who was south on a business trip.

In Missouri—Mrs. Viola Bot-off, Hawthorne apartments, left Saturday to visit her mother and other relatives in Missouri. Mrs. Bot-off expects to remain there about a month.

Dinner for Reservists—The southern Oregon chapter of the Air Reserve association will hold its annual spring dinner at Mon Desir Saturday, beginning at 8 p.m. The regular chapter meeting which was set for Wednesday evening has been cancelled.

Court Records

Justice Court
Raymond R. Note, passing school bus while unloading school children, fine $2.50 and costs.

H. B. Stephenson, overloads, total fine $49.50 and costs.
George R. Morse, overloads, total fine $30 and costs.

Luola B. Bengtson, no operator's license, fine $1 and costs.
Bobbie G. Porter, no operator's license, fine $1 and costs.

Carl A. Delamar, drunk on public highway, 20 days in jail, pay court.

Police Court
Truman Gene Rennels, reckless driving, fine $35.

Harry Mueller, no operator's license and violation of basic rule, total fine $20.
John William Haven, violation of basic rule, fine $10.

Robert James DeGroot, no operator's license, fine $5.
Donald Lee Swank, no operator's license and loud muffler, total fine and bail $7.50.

Melvin Simons, failure to yield right-of-way, fine $5.
Kenneth C. McHugh, parked in front of fireplug, bail $5.

Steven Crippen, parked in alley, bail $5.
James Goode, assault and battery, 30 days in jail suspended, fine $25.

Whalers' church, built in 1844 at Sag Harbor, Long Island, stands as a reminder of the heyday of the whaling industry. It also is one of the country's outstanding examples of Greek revival architecture.

Daily Weather Report

FORECASTS
Medford: Fair, with increasing high cloudiness tonight, partly cloudy with showers Wednesday. Cooler Wednesday.

Western Oregon: Scattered light showers this evening, partly cloudy and cooler Wednesday. Low tonight 40 to 50. High Wednesday 55 along coast and generally 62 to 72 in interior.

LOCAL DATA
Temperature a year ago today: Highest 72, lowest 49.

Total monthly precipitation 43 inch. Deficiency for the month, 17 inch. Total precipitation since Sept. 1, 1949, 19.62 inches.

Excess for the season, 38 inches. Relative humidity 4:30 p.m. yesterday 20%; 4:30 a.m. today 86%.

Observations taken at 4:30 a.m. 120 Meridian Time

High	Low	Prec.
Boise	71	42
Boston	54	45
Chicago	60	53
Denver	75	47
Eureka	54	45
Have	64	42
Klamath Falls	69	39
Los Angeles	68	53
Phoenix	97	63
Portland	69	40
Reno	80	36
Seattle	72	38
Salt Lake	76	48
San Francisco	61	47
Spokane	87	45
Washington, D.C.	67	57
Yakima	79	41

Tomorrow
Sunrise 5:48 a.m. Sunset 8:26 p.m.

BRAKES FAILED—Five children were injured when this school bus crashed through a guard rail and plowed into the side of a freight train in Dennison, Ohio. The driver said his brakes failed.

Obituary

ROBERT MAY

Remains of Robert J. May, who passed away in the VA domiciliary center Thursday, will be forwarded this evening by the Conger-Morris funeral home to San Francisco for services and interment there in the Golden Gate National cemetery.

Mr. May was born in Glasgow, Scotland, Jan. 25, 1887. He was a veteran of World War I, serving from May 20, 1918, to Aug. 29, 1919, being discharged at Ft. D. A. Russell, Wyoming, as a machinist, 15th Co., 14th Grand division, transportation corps.

KATHRYN HOUCK
Kathryn Houck, a resident of Jackson county all of her life, passed away at the family residence, 202 South Oakdale avenue Monday.

She attended the Saint Mary's Academy at Jacksonville and finished her education in the Ashland schools.

Survivors are three cousins, George W. Dick, Hillsboro, Ore., Mrs. Margaret Henry, Sacramento, and Michael Dick, Vancouver, Wash.

Private funeral services, with her close personal friends invited, will be held at Perl funeral home Friday at 1:30 p.m. with the Very Rev. Father John Berger, pastor of the Sacred Heart Catholic church, officiating. Interment will take place in Siskiyou Memorial Park.

Pallbearers will be H. K. Hanna, Lyle B. Thurman, M. M. Morris, Elwood Hedberg, J. W. McCoy and H. N. Lofland.

It is the request of the family that flowers be omitted at the services.

FLORENCE SIMS

Florence Alberta Sims, 401 East 12th street, passed away at the family residence Monday. She was born on July 6, 1912, at Grand Junction, Ia.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Erma Morehouse, South Bend, Ind.; one son, Lloyd K. Tyson in the U. S. army in Vietnam, Alaska; and one brother, Curtis Sims, Tacoma.

Funeral arrangements are in charge of Perl funeral home and will be announced later.

Wall Street

New York, May 16—(UP)—End of the railroad strike today set off a chain reaction of favorable news that lifted the stock market to new highs for nearly four years in the general average.

Dow Jones closing stock averages: 30 industrials 219.70, up 1.66; 20 railroads 56.44, up 0.19; 15 utilities, 44.65, up 0.17; 65 stocks, 77.79, up 0.69.

Portland Produce

Portland, Ore., May 16—(UP)—Butter—Prices to retailers: Grade AA prints, 64c; AA cartons, 65c; B prints, 62c; 2c additional.

Eggs—Prices to retailers: Oregon singles, 37-41c; Oregon 5-lb. loaves 42-44c; 1-lb. triplets, 1-1/2c less than singles, premium brands, 50-51c; 1-lb. loaves 52-53c.

Asparagus sold for 15 cents a pound on the Portland roadside. Farmers wholesale produce market today with 30-lb. pyramids selling at $4.50. Lettuce brought $5.50-6.50 a crate. California strawberries were $3.75-4 a 12-up flat.

Cold storage onions sold for $2.40 a 2-lb. sack with Columbia red onions going at $2.50-2.60 a 50-lb. sack.

Poultry, Rabbits
Live chickens—Broilers under 2 lbs. 17c; 2-3 lbs. 25c; 3-4 lbs. 26-27c; 4 lbs. and over, 27-28c; fryers 2-3 lbs. 28-29c; 3-4 lbs. 32-33c; roasters 4 lbs. and over 32-33c; leghorns under 4 lbs. 18c; 4 lbs. over, 20-21c; roosters, 25c; heavy hens, all weights, 22c; old roosters, all weights, 12-13c.

Turkeys—Net to growers, dressed: A young toms, 27-28c; light hens, 41-42c.
Rabbits—Live white 4 to 5 lbs., 24-26c; 5-6 lbs., 20-24c; colored 2c lower.

Livestock

Portland, Ore., May 16—(UP)—Cattle 30-lb. steers, 150; market steers steady; medium steers at $27; high good to $30; common beef heifers, 25-26c; cutter cows $15-16.50; some held above $16; canners down to $14.

30-lb. steers, 150; market steers steady; medium steers at $27; high good to $30; common beef heifers, 25-26c; cutter cows $15-16.50; some held above $16; canners down to $14.

Calves 30, good-choice vealers scarce, $27-31; common 300 lb. calves, vealers mixed $17.
Hogs 150; early sales steady, good-choice 180-210 lbs. $21.75-22; few 250 lbs. $21; 300-350 lbs. $20.50-21.50; 16-30; good-choice feeders $21.50-22.50.

Sheep 150; scattered sales spring lambs steady, good lots to $26; medium $23; medium-good old crop lambs to $25 or above; medium feeders $20; good shorn ewes above $8.

Tuesday, May 16, 1950

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—ELEVEN

Shady Cove - Trail

Shady Cove-Trail, May 16—Mr. and Mrs. Bob Burns of Shady Cove are parents of a boy, weighing 8 1/2 pounds, born May 13 at the Community hospital in Medford. This is their third child and third boy.

Henry Hall of Shady Cove, brother of Mrs. Charles Braughton, also of Shady Cove, entered Sacred Heart hospital May 11 suffering from pneumonia.

Elk Creek Social club will hold a pie social Friday, May 19, at 8 p.m., at the hall. The entertainment committee is in charge. The social is for all club members and friends and each lady is requested to bring two pies.

Mrs. Mildred Frisbie and Mrs. Erma Craus of Selma visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burdett here recently. Mrs. Frisbie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burdett.

Of interest to all parents of babies and pre-school children is the pre-school and infant clinic to be held Monday, May 22, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., at Shady Cove school house. Immunization against smallpox, diphtheria and whooping cough will be offered. Mrs. Ola Houston of Shady Cove has been named chairman and anyone desiring further information should contact her.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Saari and baby son, Michael, of Los Angeles, are guests of Mr. Saari's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paavo Saari of Shady Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kindschi of Trail are vacationing in Los Angeles and Venice, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Trivoglio of Shady Cove are grandparents, a baby girl having been born April 29 to their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Yost of Vancouver, Wash. The baby has been named July Elaine.

Mrs. Al Rogers of Shady Cove spent Mother's day in Hood River with her son and family. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rogers, Mrs. Rogers' other son and wife, Robert Rogers of Salem, were also in Hood River over Mother's day.

Kenneth Paulson, husband of Gladys Paulson of Shady Cove, has returned from the Veterans' hospital in Portland, where he has been undergoing treatment.

Herb Sawyer of Los Angeles, spent several days here visiting his brother, Dale Sawyer, and his brother, Jim Sawyer of Trail.

Mrs. Frances Miller left May 12 for Portland to spend Mother's day with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Decker.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Trusty, who have been spending some time in their summer home on Elk creek, Trail, have returned to their home in Dunsmuir, where he will resume his position with the Southern Pacific.

Jerry Eastgate and Jack Pfeiffer of Shady Cove and Douglas Johnson of Trail accompanied Tom Tepper, assistant scoutmaster, on an overnight fishing trip last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. James Huffman of Eugene are visiting Mr. Huffman's uncle, Dale Sawyer of Shady Cove and Jim Sawyer of Trail.

Mrs. Lola Bartus of Shady Cove underwent an operation on her foot and ankle May 11 at the Community hospital in Medford. On her return from the hospital she will be staying at the home of Mrs. Florence Mason of Shady Cove.

Newcomers to Shady Cove are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Francis and son from Cascade Gorge, who have rented the Kees' residence. The Kees have now completed their rock house and moved into it in back of their other house.

Friends in Shady Cove, Trail and vicinity were grieved to learn of the passing of Jim Buckmaster at the Veterans' hospital in Portland on May 7. He served many years in the navy.

Mrs. Eva Segessenman has just returned from a trip to Portland and Vancouver, B. C. While in Vancouver she visited cousins and nieces and on her way home stopped off in Portland for several days for clinical work at the Portland Clinic. She was accompanied home by her niece, Miss Marian Roach of Vancouver, B. C.

Dead line on Classified Ads: 5:30 p.m. for following day; 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; noon Saturday for Sunday a.m.

Rogue River

Rogue River, May 16—A blast from the sawmill's whistle was heard in Rogue River Saturday noon. And the re-opening of the mill brought some new families to the town. Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Willson and their children arrived from Deer Park, Wash., last week. They are living on the Old Stage road west of Evans creek. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Willson and their two children, from John Day, will occupy the house next to the city hall. The brothers are employed as ratchet setter and sawyer at the mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foster of Grants Pass have rented the apartment at the Rogue River shoe shop. He is another new employee of the sawmill.

Among summer visitors to Rogue River were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Simmons from Van Nuys, Cal. They spent three days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bentley Shaw of the You Do It laundry.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Bellon and two children of Klamath Falls arrived Saturday to visit the H. J. Hoppers and to attend the wedding of Phyllis Hopper.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gammon and family of San Diego spent the past week at the country home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Dessel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hopper of Eugene motored to Rogue River to attend the Hopper-Hedgepeth wedding. They drove a new Austin of England motor car. Saturday Hopper invited several people for a trial ride, then parked the car on Main street for the inspection by the public.

Mr. and Mrs. James Roy of Albany have leased the Double Decker and are installing a Sweden Speed Freezer to manufacture soft cream and hard ice cream. They plan to be open for business Wednesday. In the meantime, while they are installing the machine and cleaning the building, the door is open because Jim Roy says it kept one man busy locking and unlocking the door for the townsfolk, and with a wide grin he explained it was this friendly community spirit as well as the good climate which led them to choose Rogue River as a suitable location, after searching from Portland to Los Angeles and return.

Another smiling Californian says he is going to retire and live in Oregon. Ray Brockman and Jim Handy of Los Angeles, called at Harry Hill's office Thursday and Brockman purchased the eighty acre Shaw place, adjoining the ranch of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cook on West Evans creek. Brockman said he is an attorney, is retiring, and plans to build a home on Evans creek.

The interior of the Chinook Sporting Goods store is being redecorated. The walls are done in a restful shade of leaf green to match the new venetian blinds and the window trim. The center partition has been removed to give a clear view of the snooker table at the rear of the room. This gives the store the congenial atmosphere of a sportsman's meeting place.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day motored from their home at Mount Shasta, Cal., Sunday to visit with Mrs. Martha Cary and to see the graves of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Albert McIlvain. They had received a notice of the Woodville cemetery clean-up day published in the Tribune, which was mailed to them by Mrs. Cary and as they could not come on the date set, May 20, they came on Mothers day, instead.

ROGUE RIVER MEETING

Rogue River, May 16 — The Men's Council will meet at Hope Presbyterian church Friday, May 19, at 8 p.m. A special speaker from New York will be provided by the national council. Layman Alan O. Dech will discuss national interests of secular and religious nature. All men of the community are invited. Especially does Mr. Dech wish to speak to the men of the church.

Starlite DRIVE-IN THEATRE
2 1/2 MILES SO. OF MEDFORD
Open 7 P.M. - Show At Dusk
ERROL FLYNN SMITH
RUTHLESS RANGE WARS
MONTANA
Gloria Henry
ROSS FORD
FAMILY FUN