Final Meeting Held By Eagle Point Unit; Lighting Is Subject

Eagle Point—Thirty-five members and guests of Eagle Point Extension unit assembled at the home of Mrs. Jack Brummitt May 11 for the final meeting of the season. At the opening of the business meeting all responded to roll call with a tribute to mother.

The treasurer, Mrs. Cliff Moore, read her report and members learned the year was ending with more money in the treasury than in October. Mrs. H. Hanscom announced a joint meeting with Eagle Point Parent-Teacher association at the school May 23 at 3 p. m. when a cancer film will be shown. A large attendance is hoped for.

Mrs. Carroll and Mrs. Hayes reported on 4H work and Miss Eula Wintermote suggested that the unit be responsible for judging kits for use of 4H girls. Mrs. C. R. Beebe installed officers for the coming season. They are Mrs. Rukovina, chairman; Mrs. Earle Jossy, vice-chairman; Mrs. Don Ullom, secretary; Mrs. C. Moore, treasurer; Mrs. M. Heckenberger, librarian.

Cooperators reports were filled out under the direction of Mrs. Jossy.

Lunch was served from the tables in the yard, and the kitchen committee for the day was Mesdames Young, Greb, Vandergrift and Ousterhout. Project for the day, "Improved Home Lighting" was presented by Miss Wintermote. A light meter was used to compare light in various parts of the room and also in the different types of electric bulbs. Miss Wintermote stated that in installing lamps and light fixtures several points should be considered, including cost, ease in cleaning, use and special uses, such as display of a collection, as well as proper light for reading, etc.

Program for next season was read and discussed. A special meeting on rat control is to be held next October.

The chairman thanked all members for having helped to make the year successful and asked for continued cooperation next year. Mrs. Brummitt took motion pictures of the group as members were leaving for home.

Butte Falls Extension Holds Final Meeting; Outline Coming Year

Butte Falls—Mrs. Fred Kincaid was hostess for the last meeting of Butte Falls Extension unit. Fifteen members, as well as four visitors, June Tunge, Elma Leatherman, Mrs. Fulton of Los Angeles and Mrs. Ben Gardner of Eagle Point, with Miss Eula Wintermote, county agent, enjoyed the day. A potluck luncheon was served at noon.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Freda Moore, chairman, the club voted to change the meeting day for next year to the first Thursday of each month. A picnic was planned for June 2 at Whiskey Springs for members and their families and invited guests. Those needing transportation are asked to meet in the city park at 10:30 a. m. Officers for the coming year will be installed at that time.

Eight members who had attended the annual festival in Central Point gave reports. Mrs. Mattie Carson reporting on the style show, Mrs. Fredenburg reviewing the skits and Mrs. Jean Holt giving a complete summary of the address by Dr. Edith Freeman.

Cooperators reports were made out by members under the direction of Mrs. Naomi Fredenburg, vice-chairman.

Mrs. Ernestine Beeman gave a complete outline of work for next year.

In the afternoon an interesting lesson on "Improved Home Lighting" was given by Miss Wintermote. She stressed that correct lighting is sufficient light, properly placed and properly diffused.

Our improved pattern—visual with easy-to-see charts and photos, and complete directions—makes crochet and knitting easy to do.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—THREE

Applegate Extension Ends Season Program With Recent Meeting

Applegate—Winding up a highly successful club year was one purpose of the meeting of the Applegate extension unit held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Meier Wednesday. The luncheon also was a main feature, having been prepared by Mrs. Meier and Mrs. Lance Offenbacher as the demonstration of a "broiled dinner." Fruits, meat, and vegetables were prepared in this manner.

In the summary of achievements for the past year it was noted that the unit made the third annual contribution of $27 to the state building fund for Azalea house, girls' dormitory to be constructed at Oregon State college.

Those completing wool dresses under the leadership of Mrs. Fred West, were Mrs. Rolland Smith, Mrs. Glenn Smith, Mrs. Lee Port and the leader.

Those completing lamp shades under direction of Mrs. Robert Webb and Mrs. Loren Cooper were Miss Mollie Ray, Mrs. Port, Mrs. Lance Offenbacher and the leaders. These were displayed at the county festival this month.

Mrs. Lee Port, retiring chairman, was presented with a pink dogwood shrub in appreciation of her three years of service. The plant blossomed with life size paper flowers, each bearing the signature of unit women. Installation of officers was performed by Mrs. Port, alumna member of the county extension committee. Those installed were Mrs. Robert Webb, chairman; Mrs. Lance Offenbacher, vice-chairman and Mrs. W. H. Ziegler, secretary.

Mrs. Fred West was introduced as the new member of the county committee from the local unit. A brief review of topics offered for study next year also was given, and particular notice will be given the question of surplus food distribution and other important issues. Mrs. Dave Winningham is in charge of such legislative matters.

Mrs. Winningham also gave a detailed report on cancer control, stating that cancer is the second leading cause of death both in the state and nation. She said that cancer is on the increase, and advised a physical check-up twice annually after 40 years of age. Mrs. Clifton Childers also assisted in this report.

The final event on the day's schedule was presentation of gifts to Mrs. Childers whose home was burned last month. Mrs. Childers had high praise for the Jackson County Red Cross which she said generously aided her family in re-establishment of its home. Twenty-nine women attended, and guests were Mesdames Alvin Heffron, George Redhead, Orval Mayfield, Omar Cuiy and Verna Cuiy. Extension work is adjourned until October.

Daughter Here

First Sgt. E. J. Jacobs of the women's army corps arrived in Medford Saturday to spend two weeks' leave with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Jacobs, 299 Lincoln street.

A number of informal social events are planned for the visitors. The Jacobs gave a dinner last night for their daughter, with eight guests, and a number of friends have planned small parties.

Since Sgt. Jacobs likes fishing, a week-end trip is being planned to some spot where this sport can be enjoyed. She is stationed at Fairfield Suisun air field base in California.
