 Boston, May 19—(U.P.)—One-time golfing great Bobby Jones was reported recovering today from a five-hour operation performed in an attempt to cure a paralysis of his right leg.
 Dr. Gilbert Horrax of Lahey clinic said the delicate surgery "went well" but that it was too soon to determine whether the famed Atlanta, Ga., golfer ever would regain complete muscular control.

Rogues Score 8 in 9th; Reno Here over Weekend

Reno Silverfox will be in town tonight to open a three-game Far West league series with the Medford Rogues. Single games will be played this evening, Saturday and Sunday at the fairgrounds starting at 7:45. No doubleheader will be played Sunday.

By Hank Green

Yep, they did it again last night—but this time the powerful Pittsburgh Diamonds also came through with their most potent weapon—a homerun blast—and the Medford Rogues went down to defeat in 10 innings 10 to 9 at the fairgrounds.

The Rogues put on another of their last minute specialties by tallying eight runs in the ninth inning to tie up the game at 9 to 9 before Player Manager Vince DiMaggio of the Diamonds blasted a two-balls pitch over the left centerfield fence for a roundtripper.

Third Game

This was the third time in a game played here this season that the Rogues had come back in the eighth or ninth inning to tie or win a game.

John Popovich opened that ninth for the Rogues before the largest crowd ever to see a pro baseball game here, by drawing a walk, Bob Haddock also walked, Don Williams singled, Al Bolen went to first on an error, Bill Adams and Milton Martin walked.

After relief Pitcher LaVerre Herrmann had struck out, Russ Stuart lined a solid single to center. That was all for Pitcher Howard Davis and Ace Joe Angel took over.

Cooney Lines Single

He was greeted by a line single to center by Jack Cooney, a walk to Popovich up for his second time in the inning and after Haddock had fled out, Williams lined a single to left for the final Rogues' runs. Bolen fled out to end the inning and rally.

Medford had picked its first run in the opening inning on walks to Stuart, Williams and Bolen and a single by Haddock.

Stuart made a nice play on a high hopper over the pitcher's head and a snap throw to first base in the sixth inning for Medford and Adams ran a "country mile" to snare a looping drive in the same sixth for local fielding gems.

Ladies' Golf Finals Due

Mrs. William Schel and Mrs. Tom Ness this week became finalists in the women's spring golf handicap tournament at Rogue Valley Country club.

Mrs. Schel walloped Mrs. James Wyatt 6 and 4 and Mrs. Tom Ness tripped Mrs. Allyn Monroe 1 up over 19 holes in the championship semi-finals. In the first flight Mrs. Belle Schenck defeated Mrs. Harvey Robertson 5 and 5 and Mrs. F. G. Bunch beat Mrs. Jack Eldswick 3 and 1 to gain the finals.

Mrs. Eldswick wins the "A" division of the ladies' day tournament yesterday. Mrs. Ralph Odell won in the "B" group and Mrs. B. L. Nutting in the "C" division.

Starting next week pairings will be made on Tuesdays for 18-hole Thursday ladies' day play. It is planned to publish these pairings on Wednesday. Those unable to participate will be asked to call Mrs. Sam Colton or Mrs. Ray Miller by 9 a.m. Thursdays.

Members of the governing board of the women's golf association met at the home of Mrs. Aletha Vawter yesterday for luncheon and their regular business meeting.

'Preakness' Due Saturday

Baltimore, Md., May 19—(U.P.)—Headed by Kentucky Derby top three—Midground, Hill Prince and Mr. Trouble—a field of seven three-year-olds was expected to be entered today for Saturday's 74th running of the Preakness.

If the track comes up fast, as anticipated, the number of actual starters in the run for the black-eyed susans will be cut to a possible six or even five. But seven names were due in the box today.

Outside of the big three, none of the others are given a chance in the mile and three-sixteenths gallop. But hopes were high among the outsiders because only 20 favorites have won the classic in its 73 years.

King ranch's Middleground, winner of the Kentucky Derby two weeks ago, seemed a certain starter as did Christopher Chenery's Hill Prince, C. V. Whitney's Mr. Trouble, Mrs. James Carson's Kinsman and Mrs. W. H. Labrot's Balkan.

Max Patkin Does Stuff Before 2,000 Onlookers

Max Patkin, famous baseball clown and former coach for the Cleveland Indians, brought many laughs and much applause last night as he performed as "coach" for the Medford Rogues against the Pittsburgh Diamonds out at the fairgrounds.

The largest crowd ever to see a professional baseball game in Medford looked on with an estimated 2,000 fans in the stands and in the bleachers.

Grade School Ball Results

Washington grade school continued to lead the local baseball league and captured its second victory over Roosevelt this season by downing the Roughriders 11 to 5 at the Roosevelt school field yesterday afternoon.

The other game in the grade school league saw Lincoln wallop Jackson 11 to 2 at Lincoln's grounds.

Cooksey on the mound for Jackson fanned 8 and Cearley struck out 13 for Lincoln. Cearley was much less liberal with his walks, giving up but two to 10 for Cooksey. Hammer of Jackson pounded out a home-run in the second with none on. A double by Fellows with one on in the second stanza and Morehouse of the same Lincoln team with two singles paced the winners batting against Jackson. Hammer relieved Pitcher Cooksey for Jackson in the second inning. Copple was catcher. Boyd caught Cearley's pitching.
