Flying Disks Said To Be Old Stuff; Romans Saw Them

Norman, Okla.—(U.P.)—Flying saucers are as old as the human race and the Romans of 2,000 years ago even had a name for them, a University of Oklahoma professor contends.

Frank G. Tappan, professor of electrical engineering, said, "Caesar's people called the mysterious discs muscae volitantes—flying flies."

Here's Tappan's theory on the saucers:

Theory Outlined
"Due to impurities in the vitreous humor of the eyeball or to scars on its surface, you can see small discs, saucers, cylinders, beads or strings of beads."

"They are particularly noticeable when seen against the background of a clear sky. They may drift about in the eye. They are seldom in the center of the field of vision and the eye turns automatically to bring them into the center."

"Naturally," he said, "they move still farther ahead and the eye follows. If you imagine you are seeing something external to the eye and far out in space, you decide they are moving at tremendous speed across the sky."

Tappan said something of this sort occurs when persons in electrical storms "see" fireballs entering their rooms.

Lightning Flashes
"If the person hadn't been looking exactly in the direction where a lightning flash takes place, the brilliant flash leaves a positive after image on the retina of the eye," he explains.

"The eye tries to bring it into the center of the field of vision but it moves ahead. The person chases it around the room, finally loses it in the brightness of a fireplace or of a window."

Tappan believes 99 per cent of today's flying saucers can be explained by this phenomenon. One per cent, he said, may be balloons, planes or meteors.

"I myself," he declared, "have been seeing flying saucers for 50 years."

Egypt, Ethiopia, and Liberia are the only independent countries in Africa. Libya is scheduled to become independent in January, 1952.

Portland Censors Crack Down on Film

Portland, Ore., May 19—(U.P.) The manager of a downtown Portland theater said today the academy-award-winning Italian film, "The Bicycle Thief," might not appear here because the city board of censors ordered deletion of a scene showing a thief chased into a house of prostitution.

Martin Foster, manager of the Guild theater, said he would have to get clearance from the picture's producer before he could comply with the board.

State Deputy Howes gave an interesting talk on his contacts with other Granges in the state. During his talk he quoted the Grange motto, In essentials, unity; in non-essentials, liberty; in all things charity.

City Council Returns Track to Government

At a special meeting of the city council held yesterday afternoon, the city of Medford returned to the federal government 3,013 feet of railroad siding and spur trackage at the east edge of the municipal airport.

E. B. Herren of the general services administration told the council the trackage had been conveyed to the city in error during the war. It has been re-conveyed to the federal agency so that it can be returned to the Medford corporation, its original owner. The trackage is on the right of way of the Pacific and Eastern railroad.

In approving the transfer of title back to the government, the council agreed the trackage was of little value to the city.
