Recital Presented By Piano Students In Medford Church

Piano pupils of Mrs. D. F. Huson and her daughter, Miss Margaret Huson, were presented in recital recently, the event being at the First Presbyterian church parlors.

The rooms were arranged with bouquets of iris and bridal wreath, and tapers lighted the scene. Ushers were Misses Ann Denman, Laura Mae Huson, Laural Jewett, Ruth Jones, Nancy Cottingham and Barbara Cook. John Van Dyke, Jim Perry, Douglas Pruitt and Stephen Sanders assisted with seating arrangements.

Refreshments and a social hour followed the program, and pouring were Mrs. Frank Van Dyke, Mrs. Kenneth Denman and Mrs. Albert James. Serving cake were Mrs. O. H. Bengtson, Mrs. Paul Selby, Mrs. Allan Perry and Mrs. Aubrey Norris.

Pupils of Mrs. Huson who appeared were Shirley Hopkins, Sandra Jewett, John Norris, Brent Bengtson, Karalee Selby, Linda Norris, Douglas Pruitt, Bonnie Van Dyke, Diana Gellchell, Jim Perry, Laura Mae Huson, Ann Denman, Margaret Selby, John Van Dyke, Jacques Colton, Janet Merrill, Melody Pierce, Sandra Laing, Steven Sanders, Barbara Cook, Nancy Cottingham, Margaret Huson and Laural Jewett.

Miss Huson's pupils playing were Forrest Cook, Judy Morris and Linda Smith. Ruth Jones and Laura Mae Huson sang a duet, with Barbara Cook as accompanist.

Guests musicians for the recital were members of the senior high school string quartet, Miss Joyce Montgomery, violinist; Miss Maureen Rice, second violin; Miss Robene Starcher, violinist and Miss Margaret Huson, cellist. They played two numbers. Miss Melba Chehak is director of the quartet.

Shady Cove Plans Box Social Tuesday As Benefit Event

Shady Cove—Shady Cove residents have planned a box supper and community sing Tuesday, March 23 at 7 p.m. at the schoolhouse as a benefit for the George Hook family, whose home was destroyed by fire last Sunday.

The public is invited and all women of the community are asked to bring decorated luncheon boxes with enough food for two people. As is the traditional custom, each lady will eat supper with the man who purchases her luncheon box.

During the community sing, the program will be for the most part of old songs which it is believed everyone will enjoy.

A great deal of interest is being shown in this community effort to aid the Hook family, it is stated, and it is believed that such benefit events will become a community custom.

The Hooks have two sons, and in addition a niece of Mrs. Hook is making her home with the family. They are now living in a temporary garage shelter erected by friends shortly after the fire.

Cecilia Anne Fichtner Entertains on Birthday

Cecilia Anne Fichtner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Fichtner, was hostess to a group of friends May 13 in celebration of her eighth birthday anniversary. Table decorations were in pastel colors. Games were enjoyed throughout the afternoon and prizes were given.

Many Events Planned For Girl Scout Troops; Fly-up To Be Tuesday

These last days of May are busy ones for the Girl Scouts. St. Mary's neighborhood will hold its court of awards and Brownie fly-up Monday, May 22, in conjunction with a meeting of St. Mary's Parents' club.

Fourth grade Brownies of other neighborhoods will meet Tuesday, May 23, at 4:15 p.m. at the Scout house and will take part in the annual fly-up when they will receive their wings and be invested as intermediate Girl Scouts.

Third grade Brownies will sing farewell to their sister Brownies, the "fly-ups" will be welcomed into the ranks of the Girl Scouts by fifth grade scouts, and the traditional fairy will wave her wand over each Brownie as she recites her Girl Scout laws.

Saturday, May 20, the J. C. Penney store will open its Girl Scout equipment service. Each Girl Scout visiting the department will receive a souvenir. Uniformed Girl Scouts will serve as ushers at the foot of the stairs and will direct scouts to the new department.

Artist To Exhibit With Azalea Show

Gold Hill—Fritz Wertz, Gold Hill artist, has been invited by the all-year events committee of Brookings, Ore., to show his water color paintings in conjunction with the annual azalea show to be held in Brookings May 20 and 21.

Mr. Wertz expects to exhibit about 80 paintings in all. Twenty-nine will be the portraits of the "Gold Hill old-timers." These were shown last summer at the famous Maryhill Museum of Fine Arts and later were shown in the art gallery at Yakima, Wash.

Remainder of the show will include ranch scenes on the Rogue river, buildings and scenes of historic Jacksonville and scenes painted on the Oregon coast.

Paulena Carter To Play Sunday

Miss Paulena Carter, young pianist, will make her first appearance on the Standard Hour this season when she plays Sunday, May 21 at 8:30 p.m. DST over the NBC broadcast. Miss Carter, who has relatives and many friends in Ashland, Medford and Gold Hill, will be playing for the 13th time on the Standard Hour.

She will be heard with Bruno Walter and the Standard Symphony orchestra of Los Angeles. Miss Carter will present Weber's well known "Concertstuck" best described as a piano concerto in miniature, or "concert study."

Orchestral numbers will include "Der Freischutz" Overture by Weber; three German dances by Mozart, "Forest Murmurs" by Wagner and three sections of the "Damnation of Faust" suit by Berlioz, including "Minuet of the Will o' the Wisp," "Dance of the Sylph" and "Rakoczy."

The program will originate in the Los Angeles studios of NBC and will be the 1206th broadcast of radio's oldest hour of music.

Guests Attend Meeting Degree of Honor Club
