Matron Entertains Officials of Court

Mrs. L. G. Frink, royal matron of Roxy Ann court, Order of the Amaranth, entertained officers of her court at her home on Thomas road Tuesday evening. Mrs. Frink and Edward C. Root entertained with piano and violin numbers and the group enjoyed singing. Refreshments were served.

The court, organized several weeks ago, received its charter at ceremonies held last Saturday night in the IOOF hall.

Become a DENTAL NURSE
A vacation offering you a professional career

BETTY JEAN STAFFORD
Newport, Oregon
Appointed upon graduation

Dental nursing is exclusively a woman's occupation and offers a place in a profession always needed. You will find dental nurses in dentists' offices, hospitals, dental laboratories, civil service, dental X-ray, clinics and other branches of dentistry. The dental nurse does not compete with men, machinery can never take her place, and she holds a high place in the social and business life of her community.

Complete course—only 4 months

Evans Valley—A special meeting of the Evans Valley Parent-Teacher association was called May 18 to discuss purchase of caps and capes for the school orchestra. It was decided to make the capes and caps. The school colors, royal blue and white, will be used. The members making the new uniforms expect to have them completed for graduation exercises to be held June 1.

Mrs. Harold Wood, newly installed president, announced her list of chairmen. They are Mrs. Nealy Sund, hospitality; Mrs. Harry Randall, membership; Chester W. Jensen, legislation; Mrs. Alfred J. Boulter, publicity; Mrs. Fulton R. Williams, program; Mrs. Charles W. McCoy, room representative; Mrs. Harold Colbert, founders' day; Mrs. Richard Hoffman, ways and means; Mrs. Joseph Deckleman, magazines; Mrs. Kenneth Damon, social hygiene; Mrs. Vilas Puddy, historian and Mrs. Harris Stone, canning chairman. Mrs. Edward Butterfield announced that May 20 would be the last moving picture show sponsored by the group. She expressed her appreciation for the help given her during the past year as ways and means chairman.

Medford Student Given Year Book Certificate

Eugene—Miss Barbara Earl, daughter of Mrs. Katherine L. Earl, 309 North Columbus street, Medford, recently received a certificate of achievement for meritorious service to the 1950 Oregoniana based on ability, dependability, and devotion of duty. The Oregoniana is the year-book published by the students at the University of Oregon. Miss Earl, an assistant editor, received an editorial staff certificate.

Miss Earl is a sophomore major in sociology.

Lady Elks Luncheon Tuesday Afternoon Attracts 200 Guests

More than 200 Lady Elks of Medford, Ashland and Grants Pass attended the luncheon and card party which the Medford group gave Tuesday in the party lounge of the Medford temple. Guests from Grants Pass numbered about 50, and approximately 60 came from Ashland.

Colorful garden blossoms decorated the luncheon tables, and each woman received a red rosebud as a favor. Entertainment for the luncheon was provided by the girls' sextet of senior high school, Misses Sue Hinkle, Jane Durno, Maxine Myers, Donna Mack, Florence Lyons and Virginia Richmond, directed by Miss Lorraine Veidt.

Mrs. Orrin L. Brown, chairman of Medford Lady Elks and party chairman, welcomed the guests and responses were made by Mrs. V. A. Sprinkle, chairman of the Grants Pass group, and Mrs. Delbert Jones, chairman of the Ashland unit.

Many prizes were given for bridge, canasta and pinocle, which followed luncheon. Prize winners from Ashland were Mesdames Mabel Penland, Mary Mayfield, Lorraine Zittercoob, Ray Sharp, Harry G. Travis, Foss G. Kramer, Rose Potter, Ray Stringer, David Whitney and H. E. Keller. Grants Pass prize winners were Mrs. Naomi Pedley, Mrs. Gladys Hornaday and Mrs. M. A. Frank and Mrs. E. H. White of Reno, Nev., also received a prize.

Medford women receiving were Mesdames S. M. Purcell, Corey, J. L. Davidson, Cliff Piland, John Henson, Deane Lambert, Bert Robb, John H. Tizokker, George Howard, Richard E. Mann, Edward J. Briggs and George Weir.

Many smart appearing summer suits and dresses were seen in the throngs of Medford women and their guests. Mrs. Sprinkle wore a brown and white print with brown straw hat and a corsage of lavender carnations presented by the Medford hostesses. Mrs. Jones wore a grey suit with white hat, and a carnation corsage.

Mrs. Brown, Medford chairman, wore a bouquet of deep red carnations on her white suit, and Mrs. Arthur D. Hess, her co-chairman, wore a navy blue ensemble with carnation corsage.

The chairman of the decoration committee, Mrs. L. G. Miles, wore a modish suit of cocoa brown and the bit of lace at the neck matched that which edged her brown straw hat. Mrs. Miles, whose costumes must be "king size," designs and makes many of her own clothes.

Miss Parker Serves As Air Stewardess; Mother Makes Trip

Miss Natalie "Penny" Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carold J. Parker, 610 South Central avenue, was recently employed as a Pan American World Airways stewardess. Miss Parker attended Reed college, Portland, and took nurse's training at Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore, Md. She is a graduate of Medford high school.

In her new position, Miss Parker flies the Arctic circle when assigned to flights between Seattle and Fairbanks or Nome, Alaska.

Mrs. Parker Left last evening by United Airlines for Wichita, Kans., where she will visit relatives of both her and Mr. Parker. It is the first time that Mrs. Parker has visited there since she and Mr. Parker moved from Wichita 30 years ago. She expects to be gone about a month.
