

Jacksonville Club Sets Show and Tea Tuesday Afternoon

Jacksonville — The annual spring flower show and silver tea of the Jacksonville Garden club will be held Tuesday, May 23, from the hours of 12 noon to 5 p. m., in the Jacksonville Presbyterian church recreation room.

The show will be non-competitive and entries are solicited from other groups or individuals. Anyone interested is invited to attend. Mrs. W. H. Arnold is chairman of the show. Further information regarding exhibits, if desired, may be had by calling Mrs. Arnold, phone Medford 2-1437.

Final plans for the show were made at a meeting of the club at Mrs. Leonard McKee's home Thursday. The gathering was held in the yard where those attending viewed the iris gardens. Mrs. McKee experiments with crossing iris varieties.

Mrs. Kenneth Farley and Mrs. J. B. Noble received prizes during the afternoon.

Mrs. Grubb of Grubb's Nursery gardens, Ashland, gave two cans of spray and one climbing rose bush for Jacksonville's small memorial park.

Mrs. Bert Harr extended an invitation to the members to picnic at the Harr's Squaw lake grounds during the summer.

Mrs. Lawrence Luy, retiring president, and Mrs. Robert Firney, president-elect, were elected first delegates and Mrs. W. W. Wingham and Mrs. Minnie Sawyer were elected alternate delegates to the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs convention to be held in Klamath Falls June 13, 14 and 15.

Officers for the next term were nominated and will be installed at the next meeting. Mrs. R. T. Nichol, Medford, gave a short talk on lilacs, giving their origin, culture and species. Mrs. Nichol replaced Miss Claire Hanley, who was unable to attend because of illness.

Mrs. Wingham took moving pictures of the group while inspecting the McKee flower garden.

Officers of the group call special attention to the change in date of the June meeting which will be June 8 instead of June 15.

Members attending the flower show Tuesday are to take two dozen cookies to the church recreation room before noon that day.

Co-hostesses for last week's meeting were Miss Mollie Ray and Mrs. D. C. Mills. Mrs. Richard Teal and Mrs. Harold Reed poured tea. Table decorations were arrangements of spring flowers.

Meeting Set

Mrs. Charles Holloway was honored at a tea Thursday afternoon which observed her 90th birthday anniversary. Mrs. Holloway, a native of England, came to Oregon in 1889 to be married and lived in eastern Oregon and the Willamette valley before moving to Medford 20 years ago. About 75 friends of the Medford woman extended their congratulations at the tea, held in First Methodist church. —(Brainard photo).

Medford Woman Honored On Ninetieth Birthday

Mrs. Charles Holloway, who celebrated her 90th birthday anniversary Thursday, May 18, was honored at a tea given in the parlors of First Methodist church. About 75 guests called during the event to extend best wishes to the honored guest, who has lived in Medford for some 20 years.

Hosts for the tea were Mrs. Holloway's son, William, who came from Tempe, Ariz., and her daughters, Mrs. James Fleming of Medford, Mrs. Dale Sturges of Boring, Ore., and Mrs. William H. Gerretsen of Roseburg, Ore.

Mrs. F. F. Burk and Mrs. Fred Strang cut the birthday cake, and serving punch were Mrs. W. P. Brooks and Mrs. Edna Pursel. An arrangement of yellow tulips centered the refreshment table, and other garden blossoms were in vases about the parlors.

Mrs. Robert Taylor took charge of the guest book. Mrs. John Poage, accompanied by Mrs. L. E. Van Ausdall, sang "Little Old Lady" and Mrs. Strang sang "Love's Old Sweet Song" and "Mother of Mine," accompanying herself.

Mrs. Holloway is a native of England, having been born there in 1860. She was married in 1889, coming to this country to join her fiance, and the two were married in Morrow county. They lived on a farm between Arlington and Heppner for almost two years, and then went to the Willamette valley, living at Brownsville for about 40 years.

Among the many messages received by Mrs. Holloway were two from England from her sister, Mrs. Charlotte Williams, and her brother, William Skelton. Mr. Skelton recently retired after having been on the staff of the lord chief justice of London for 50 years and Mrs. Holloway told how she had been a confidential nurse for the children of the then chief justice before she came to the United States to be married.

For the party Mrs. Holloway wore a blue frock with touches of white and a purple orchid.

Methodist Fellowships To Hold Installation In Evening Ceremonies
