MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—FIVE

... AROUND HOLLYWOOD

By VIRGINIA MacPHERSON
United Press Correspondent

Hollywood, May 22—(U.P.)—With movie big-wigs hepped on economy, Dennis Day's the best bargain in the business these days.

He does everything but a strip-tease — and nobody's offered him a good price for that yet.

A Hollywood who hires Day gets a four-way deal. He sings, he's funny, he acts, and he delivers anybody else who wants but can't afford. This he does with impersonations.

There's just one kicker in the transaction. He doesn't get four paychecks.

He does get famous, though. He's well-known to practically everybody—except his wife and kids.

Two weekly radio shows, recording sessions, movies, business conferences, singing lessons and personal appearances put Day on what he calls a "kissing acquaintance" with his pretty wife, Peggy.

"I come home late, kiss her goodnight, get up early and kiss her goodbye," he says. "And I hardly ever see my two boys, Patrick and Eugene."

Seeing Isn't Believing
That's one reason the kids have trouble getting to know their old man. The other is: They may see him but they don't believe it. Because whenever Day's home he's practicing impersonations and as far as the young'uns are concerned their mother could be married to anybody from Ronald Colman to Sophie Tucker.

"Those are the ones I'm working on now," Day explained. "Next week it'll probably be somebody else. No wonder the poor kids get confused."

This is what you might call "third generation confusion." Day's mother reports the same thing happened to her years ago. She was always rushing to the door with money for the milkman, the iceman or the butcher boy, she says, only to find the "voices" she heard were coming out of her young son.

He fooled his classmates the same way. And now, she says, he's pulling the same tricks on her grandchildren.

"I just listen to a voice," Dennis says. "It doesn't take me long to mimic it. I do Sophie for 20th Century-Fox's 'I'll Get By' but it would've come off better, I think, if they'd have let me make up to look like her. They wouldn't, though."

But it's be nice if they'd let him impersonate Dennis Day. Maybe then the Day kids could find out how he really sounds.

WELCOME TOURISTS
WELCOME

Company's Coming!

Oregon will soon be playing host to summer vacation tourists from all over the nation. Entertaining our tourist guests is an important job for all of us!

Last year, vacationists brought $110,000,000 of new income into our state. That's more than $63 for every man, woman and child in Oregon! The vacation industry is our third largest industry.

Our traditional Oregon hospitality and courtesy will go a long way toward helping our visitors enjoy themselves. A cheery word, a smile, a bit of helpful information will help keep them longer with us, and their friends will hear of Oregon's beauty and friendliness—and they, too, will vacation among us in future years.

It's plain good business to extend a special measure of hospitality to our visitors. Let's show them the grandest vacation in the world—Oregon at its best!
