Padres Down Stars 2 to 1 Even Series

San Francisco, May 25—(U.P.)—Big George Zuerink—he's six feet, four inches tall—up from Oklahoma City this year, tossed his fifth win last night against Hollywood in the San Diego-Star Pacific Coast league battle.

He gave up three hits and kept the Stars three games out of the lead with his close 2 to 1 win.

The series between the two top-run contenders rests at one game each, and anything still can happen this week.

Score One in First.

Last night the Padres scored a run in the first inning when Bobby Wilson and Milt Nielsen singled in order. With two out, Herb Conyers was safe at first on an error and Wilson crossed the plate. The Twinks added a run in the third as Mike Sandlock came home on a sacrifice.

The deciding run came in the seventh. John Bernardino got his first hit as a Padre since coming from Cleveland. Mike Tresh doubled and Bernardino beat a throw to the plate when George Zuerink filed to left field.

Two Hurlers Join Rogues

Optioning of two pitchers to the Medford Rogues by Idaho Falls of the class C Pioneer league was announced today by Business Manager Mel Carpenter of the local club.

Joining the Rogues at Eugene are Robert Lee Smith, a rookie left-hander, and John Greatly, a limited service right hander.

Earlier Carpenter had announced the outright release of Manuel Vargas, ex-Seals and Sacramento player, and Keith Bowman, both hurlers, and Jack Gleason, catcher.

Another pitcher, who is awaiting graduation from college, is expected to join the Rogues about June 15.

Whitey Pain Sportscaster

A story in this week's "Sporting News" magazine about George "Whitey" Pain, former Medford Nuggets hurler and now with Riverside, Cal., in the class C Sunset league, may be of interest to local ball fans. The story follows:

"George Pain of Riverside had the unusual distinction of both broadcasting and pitching in a Sunset league game against Porterville, here May 15. With Porterville ahead, 4 to 0, going into the last half of the sixth inning, Sports Director Jim Russo of KPRO decided the home team needed some runs and invited Pain to come from the dugout to the broadcasting booth and narrate the last half of the frame, with the hope the pitcher could break the hoodoo.

"Pain who had pitched a one-hitter two nights before, took over the microphone from Russo and the Rubes staged a seven-run rally to go ahead 7 to 4.

"Pain then returned to the dugout and, when Porterville threatened again, Manager Ray Wiers sent Pain, after a brief warm-up in the bullpen, to the mound in the seventh inning to protect the seven runs, for which he was orally responsible while broadcasting the previous half-inning. Porterville didn't score off Pain.
