By Johnny A. n

Peter Piper was a piker when it came to getting into pickles and Jay Stewart is out to prove it on Surprise Package, heard daily at 1:30 p. m. In preparation for National Pickle week, Jay is pushing a week-long contest, in which people from his studio audience present stories of "the worst pickle I've been in."

Previews of the "My True Story" program: On Monday, the answer to the question "Will a man who wants to be free ever make a good husband?"

On Tuesday, The Question: Can a lonely heart reach out to find love and happiness? It's the "My True Story" program. Monday through Friday at 10:30 a. m.

Seven p. m. one week from tomorrow is going to be the beginning of a grand round of entertainment that will last far into the night. At the Medford senior high auditorium and gym, you'll be having the time of your life, so keep the evening clear, if you possibly can. Instead of the regular Saturday evening canasta roundup, why not have the whole club on hand at the auditorium?

Remember, invitations are out for a fine show... "The June Storey program"... on Monday evening. Studios being what they are, we won't be able to get you into the show studio, but you'll be so close you'll never notice the difference, so how about coming out next Monday?

Our respects and best wishes to Al Cordon, who leaves for a new adventure, with his last day tomorrow. With his card tricks and magic, Al has been in the heart of just about every gag perpetrated at the station, but we'll miss that leering pan. When we get TV here in the valley, Al will probably be the first man who comes screaming from the screen. Give our regards to Broadway, Al!

ASTHMA? BREATHEASY GIVES INSTANT HELP!

We have good news for sufferers from bronchitis, asthma, hay fever and other respiratory ailments. A new, clinically-tested method that has proved a boon and a blessing to thousands of asthmatic victims, young and old.

This amazing method is new in this locality, but thousands of asthmatic victims in other areas where BREATHEASY has been introduced gratefully attest to the miraculous effect it has. BREATHEASY makes possible, they say, "we will tell everyone we know... I feel I owe my life to it."
