

Rogues Play Here Tonight, Saturday, Sunday; Win 11-3

Medford Rogues and Eugene Larks open a four-game series at the local fairgrounds park tonight with a single game starting at 7:45 and Lloyd Jones expected to hurl for the local Far West league outfit.

Another single game is scheduled at the fairgrounds Saturday evening at 7:45 and on Sunday a doubleheader between Medford and Eugene is booked for 6:30 p.m.

Eugene, May 27—(Special to Mail Tribune)—Medford Rogues made it four straight victories over the Eugene Larks last night when the southern Oregonians romped to a 11 to 3 win at the Eugene park, with the Medford club leading all the way.

Jack Lloyd on the mound for the Rogues repeated what he did this last Sunday against Reno by scoring a victory on nine hits and his fourth win against one defeat.

Two Score in Second
Medford tallied two runs in the second inning on Don Williams' triple, Al Bolen's squeeze play sacrifice, Bill Adams' single, Milt Martin's three-bagger and Pitcher Lloyd's sacrifice.

Two more crossed the plate for the Rogues in the third stanza on a walk to Jack Cooney, John Popovich's single and Bob Haddock's three-bagger.

The Rogues' single run in the seventh was made on a walk to Popovich, a stolen base, to third on an error and tallied when Haddock rapped out a single. Another run in the eighth came on Russ Stuart's single, a passed ball, a wild pitch and Popovich's long fly out.

Medford scored its final runs in the ninth when Bolen was hit by a pitched ball, Adams walked, Martin singled and Stuart homered over the left field wall, driving in one run ahead of him. Stuart with three hits, two runs batted in and two scored led Medford.

In racking up his victory which saw the Rogues gain a full game on Klamath Falls through the courtesy of Redding defeating the Gems, Lloyd fanned seven and walked six.

The line score:
Medford 11 0 0 0 11-11 12 1
Eugene 3 0 0 0 0-2-1 9 5
Lloyd and Martin; Kruk, McCrow (7) and Clyde.

British Golf Results Here

St. Andrews, Scotland, May 26—(U.P.)—Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., and Dick Chapman of Philadelphia, N. C., went into the semi-finals of the British amateur golf championships today with easy victories over their Scottish and Irish opponents.

Stranahan, seeking the title he won in 1948, eliminated Alex Taylor of Scotland, 5 and 4, and Chapman followed with a 3 and 2 triumph over Donald Cameron of Ireland.

Jim McHale of Philadelphia, the last of the U. S. players to gain the quarter-finals, also swept into the semi-finals by beating Peter Tait of Scotland, 1 up.

Lawn Tennis Tournament

Paris, May 26—(U.P.)—American tennis stars, as usual, were attracting most of the attention today in the international lawn tennis tournament.

Ready for second round play in the men's division were Billy Talbot of New York, Fred Koleski of Hamtramck, Mich., Vic Seixas of Philadelphia and Art Larsen of San Francisco.

Talbot, veteran U. S. Davis cup star, made the biggest impression in yesterday's opening round as he breezed past Andre Gentileno of France, 6-1, 6-1, 6-2.

Larsen whipped Irish Davis cupper Joe Hackett, 6-3, 6-3, 6-4; Seixas eliminated Egyptian Davis cupper Marcel Coen, 6-2, 6-2, 6-4, while Koleski won by forfeit from Georges Grange of Switzerland.

County Grade School Track Duel Saturday At Gold Hill Field

Gold Hill, May 26—The annual county grade school track meet will open at 1 p.m. Saturday on the Gold Hill high field just north of the city along highway 99 with six schools expected to take part.

This year the meet has been divided into two sections with class A consisting of boys of the seventh and eighth grades and boys in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades in class B. Bob Sage, director, said.

About 185 youths from grade schools at Central Point, Eagle Point, Howard, West Side, Gold Hill and Rogue River are expected to compete. Jacksonville indicated yesterday that it would not send any boys.

Class A events will include pole vault, high jump, discus, shot, put, 75, 150, 330, 660 and 1,000 yard runs, low hurdles over 120 yard distance and 440-relay.

Class B events will include 50, 75, 150 and 330 yard runs, the 440-relay, 70-yard low hurdles and the pole vault, high jump and broad jump.

Schools in Medford will not compete in the county meet, Sage reported.

The meet will be run off as quickly as possible although no preliminary events will be necessary except perhaps in one or two of the running events where there might be more entries than in some of the others.

A large crowd of parents and friends of boys from the six competing schools are expected to watch.

MORRIS OPPONENT—Neil Anderson, above, ace runner for Roosevelt high school (Portland) will probably be Jack Morris' strongest challenger in the low hurdles during the Southern Oregon-Portland inter-district track meet Saturday at the local school field. Events will start at 8 p.m.

Roseburg Loses In State High School Tourney

Albany, Ore., May 26—(U.P.)—Roosevelt, Hillsboro, Eugene and Albany emerged today with first-round victories in class "A" competition of the annual Oregon state high school baseball championships.

Roosevelt of Portland, led by Dwane Helbig's three home runs walloped Pendleton 21 to 8 in Albany's new Memorial field while Hillsboro edged out Roseburg, 5 to 4. Eugene battered Central Catholic of Portland 10 to 2 and host Albany shaded Salem 4 to 3 in a game that ended after midnight.

In tonight's semi-finals, it will be Hillsboro against Eugene and Roosevelt versus Albany.

The four-school state "B" tourney opened this afternoon with Astoria facing Amity and Drain's defending champions meeting Union of eastern Oregon.

Portland, Seals Play Two In North Tuesday

Portland, Ore., May 26—(U.P.)—Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast league will play a night doubleheader against San Francisco during the Memorial day holiday Tuesday.

Big Ten, PCC Study Rose Bowl Pacts

Evanston, Ill., May 26—(U.P.)—The Big Ten planned today to renew the Rose Bowl pact with the Pacific Coast conference but first it wanted assurance of a "fair" allotment of tickets along with the settlement of other details.

It was agreed at a joint meeting of faculty representatives, athletic policy making body of the Big Ten, and athletic directors, to form a committee to meet with a Pacific coast delegation to iron out another contract.

Agreement End Dated
The present five-year agreement ends next New Year's day and preliminary meetings between committees of both conferences already have been held on several points.

The Big Ten officials reportedly were in favor of a repeat of the present five-year pact.

The biggest gripe of the Big Ten appeared to be the ticket allotment, of which it received about 14,000 of a total of almost 100,000 seating capacity in the Pasadena bowl. The "other details" were agreed to be a minor consideration.

Wakefield to Appeal Yankees-Acorns Deal

Detroit, May 26—(U.P.)—Dick Wakefield was set to appeal to Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler for the second time in a month today but indications were that he was playing against a stacked deck.

Wakefield refused to report to the Oakland Acorns in the Pacific Coast league after the Yankees announced yesterday they had sent him there in part payment for Outfielder Jackie Jensen and Infielder Bill Martin, who were purchased last winter in a $100,000 deal.

He said he would demand to know why no major league club would risk $10,000 on a one-time $52,000 bonus beauty and

IN POLE VAULT—Warren Wendt, above, who tied for top honors in the pole vault at the state track meet last week-end with a height of 12 feet, will be top contender for similar honors at the Southern Oregon-Portland inter-district meet at the local field. Events will start at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Snead Leads Golf Tourney

Fort Worth, Tex., May 26—(U.P.)—Samuel Jackson Snead and Stewart (Skip) Alexander were out in front by two strokes today as the field turned into the second round of the Colonial national invitation golf tournament.

Snead, of white Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and Alexander of Lexington, N. C., each shot a four-under-par 66 in the opening circuit.

Only three other players were under par on that swing—Ed (Porky) Oliver of Seattle, Wash., with a 68 and Jimmy Demaret of Ojai, Cal., and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of St. Andrews, Ill., each with a 69. At 70 were Henry Picard of Cleveland, Harry Todd of Dallas, and Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C.
