

New Corps Reviews Month's Activities At First Meeting

Women of the new community service corps of the Jackson county Red Cross, which has been in operation but a few weeks, took stock of the new program at a meeting held Thursday. As each worker gave her report enthusiasm mounted and at the close of the meeting there was no doubt in the minds of those present that the new unit was filling a definite need of the community. The new corps is the only one of its kind in the nation.

The workers, less than a dozen in number and who are organized as a special type of Gray Lady, have worked with the visually handicapped, with invalid children and adults and have performed such tasks as reading, mending, writing letters, teaching crafts and games to those unable to leave their beds and homes; they have shopped for the blind and provided transportation for the ill and handicapped.

These special Gray Ladies worked 80 hours during the month of April, making 43 visits in all. One worker calls once or twice a week to help a 31-year-old man who is totally blind and confined to his bed with arthritis. Another visits two invalid girls, taking them toys and gifts, playing games with them and sitting with them while the mothers shop or do necessary errands. Still another visits a small boy confined to his bed with rheumatic fever and who is being supplied with fly tying materials, books and games.

The corps takes only cases referred by an established agency or by a private physician. In addition to the efforts of the volunteer corps members, the chairman, Mrs. S. M. Tuttle, reported that directors of the Southern Oregon Sales, Inc., gave money which was used to purchase a wheel chair for rheumatic fever patients, and that the Colony club also gave a substantial sum of money which is being used to purchase materials and articles needed for handicraft and hobby supplies for the patients.

A report of the past month's work shows that in addition to the ordinary tasks of reading, writing and supplying of recreation and hobby material, the corps members have been responsible for one new case being reported to the Oregon Commission for the blind, have aided the visually handicapped in meeting others with the same handicap and have had the opportunity of encouraging the special talent of one visually handicapped person by displaying art work and poems.

Attending the meeting Thursday were Mrs. Tuttle at whose home the meeting was held, Mrs. Max Peirce, the co-chairman of the corps, Mrs. Chester W. Guches, Mrs. Arthur C. Sanders, Mrs. John E. Gribble, Mrs. Lila B. Thomas, Mrs. M. Dale Newton, Mrs. Edward Burgess, corps members, as well as Mrs. I. E. Schuler, chairman of volunteer services for the chapter and Mrs. Fred Rankin, executive secretary of the chapter.

Society Membership Begins Church Year; Mrs. Minear President

Election of officers for the coming year and drawing of new circle members featured the last meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist church. Mrs. Jessie Minear was named president of the group.

The new officers will be installed at evening service today at the church and the congregation and friends are cordially invited to attend a reception in the church parlors which will follow the ceremonies.

At the society meeting, new members were honored. Luncheon was served by members of circle seven, of which Mrs. William D. Longmore is chairman.

Speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. Everett Faber, who attended the recent assembly of the woman's society held at Cleveland, O.

An officers' training day has been set for June 6 at 10 a.m. in the church parlors. Those attending are asked to bring a sack lunch.

Spring Book Festival Slated at Library

A spring book festival will be presented June 1 to 10 by the boys' and girls' department of the Medford public library. New books available for summer reading will be displayed. There will be books for children from pre-school age to junior high school level. On June 13 the books displayed may be taken out for the first time. Parents as well as children are asked to look over the new supply.

The book week contest, which started in November, concluded on May 20. Prizes went to Susan Day, Beverly Sanderson and Jon Frederick, all of Sams Valley school, in the lower division. Upper division prizes went to Barbara Rains and Paul Elgin of West Side school. Talent third grade got a special award.

A summer reading contest will begin June 20. Portland, Ore., May 27 — (U.P.) — Hans F. Hansen, 77, of Bend, was killed by a Great Northern freight train here.

New Aeronautical Charts Available

Portland, May 27 — A new type of sectional aeronautical chart, containing many features of value to pilots, is now available for users in the northwestern part of the country, and soon will cover other areas.

The new charts, which will replace all current sectional charts before the end of June, are a joint project of the coast and geodetic survey and civil aeronautics administration.

Those now available include Portland, Klamath Falls, La Grande, Boise, Seattle and Spokane.

The back of each chart carries reference material which is needed by pilots. A complete list of airports with information on runways, fuel, repair facilities, runway lights, etc., is given. The back of each chart also carries a list of aeronautical symbols, information on airport traffic patterns, instrument and visual flight rules, flight plans, search and rescue procedures, emergency code distress signals and weather broadcasts.

The charts are available from coast and geodetic survey, 502 Panama building, Portland 4, Ore., or from authorized dealers at airports.

The Siskiyou Memorial

MAUSOLEUM and CREMATORY

Will Be Open for Public Inspection

MEMORIAL DAY....next Tuesday

Siskiyou Memorial Park presents a new and beautiful Mausoleum and modern Crematory for your inspection Memorial Day. We sincerely hope that you will grant us the pleasure and privilege of accompanying you through the new building and providing whatever information you may wish.

The desire to honor the memory of loved ones reflects the most sacred and religious beliefs of civilized peoples.

Through the centuries memorial customs have followed three definite patterns. With the addition of the Mausoleum and Crematory, Siskiyou Memorial Park now provides superb memorials of each of three: Earth interment with a vista of sweeping lawns, trees, and flowers protected and maintained under perpetual care; Cremation with the selection of a beautiful urn and Niche Memorial in the Columbarium room; and Mausoleum entombment with crypt space all within the means of the average family.

This new improvement at Siskiyou Memorial Park is a decided asset to Medford and the Rogue River Valley. We believe that you will share with us our pride in a job well done.

We Congratulate the Siskiyou Memorial Park Upon the Completion of the Beautiful New Mausoleum and Modern New Crematory
