

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

By VIRGINIA MacPHERSON
United Press Correspondent

Hollywood, May 31—(U.P.)—Hollywood, which just wiggled out of its reputation as a city of sin, is sending some of its top citizens to Kansas City to show 'em how they did it.

Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Robert Young, Phil Harris, and Jane Wyman will help the big town on the Missouri tell the folks about its cultural activities, its grain and cattle markets, and its churches and schools.

This is all part of Kansas City's 100th birthday party and the city fathers have tagged everybody from President Truman on down to help 'em convince people things like gangland massacres don't go on there every day.

Movie celebrities, who know how it feels to sizzle in the limelight of congressional investigations on after-dark morals,

O and C Timber To Be Sold Here

Five tracts of O and C timber in the Jackson county area of Medford district, bureau of land management, will be offered for sale on June 19 and June 20, according to Daniel L. Goldy, Portland, bureau regional administrator.

On June 19 an oral auction will be held at the Medford district office in the city hall on 7,430,000 board feet in the Grizzly creek area north of Pinehurst.

Tracts Listed
Sealed bids on the four others will be opened at the Portland office on June 20. The tracts are 6,100,000 feet in the Copper district; 5,350,000 in the Deadwood section in the Dead Indian area; 1,205,000 near Big Butte creek south of McLeod, and 2,085,000 three miles southwest of McLeod.

Total of the five tracts is 22,170,000 board feet.

The O and C tracts are among 32 throughout the state which will be up for sale the week of June 19.

Walter Pearson Spent $6,500 in Election

Salem, Ore., May 31—(U.P.)—Supporters of State Treasurer Walter J. Pearson for the democratic nomination for governor spent more than $6,500 in their unsuccessful try, they disclosed today in a campaign expenditure report to the secretary of state's office.

State Sen. Austin Flegel was the successful bidder for the democratic nomination. Lew Wallace came in second and Pearson third and last. All are from Portland.

Pearson himself spent $300 in his campaign. Edna L. Murray, secretary-treasurer of the Pearson for Governor committee reported expenditures totaling $6,296.13.

Next largest campaign expenses reported today were for Courtney Johns of Albany for republican nomination for Linn county district attorney. Johns reported that he spent $345.50 himself. And Jack Peace, treasurer, Johns for District Attorney club, reported expenditures of $552.81.

Optometrists End Annual Convention Locally Monday

Dr. Raymond R. Roy, Portland, was elected president of the Oregon Optometric association here Monday at the business session of the first annual mid-year convention of the organization. He succeeds Dr. Clarence Carkner, Portland.

Officers reelected were Dr. Glenn W. Patch, Portland, first vice-president, and Dr. Fred E. Chambers, Portland, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Harry Fredricks, Klamath Falls, was chosen second vice-president. Dr. Carol Croissant, Seaside, was named to the advisory board of Pacific university college of optometry.

Banquet Monday
The business session was held at Rogue Valley Country club, and a banquet and dance there Monday evening concluded the two-day conclave.

An educational meeting at the Jackson hotel Sunday afternoon opened the convention. This portion of the conclave was sponsored by the Oregon state board of examiners in optometry. Visual training care and new techniques, particularly in regard to children were emphasized.

Speakers were Dean Bryson, legal counsel to the association, and Dr. Harold Haynes, Dr. Charles Margach and Dr. Carol Pratt, all of the Pacific university college of optometry.

New methods of correcting eye defects—making eyes function or more functional—without surgery, were discussed.

Dr. Richard Feinberg, dean of the optometry college, was a speaker Monday. In the Monday golf tourney Dr. Sam Taylor, Eugene, won the president's cup. Approximately 40 linksmen participated.

About 100 association and auxiliary members attended the convention.

The women reorganized, electing Mrs. Glenn W. Patch president; Mrs. Ted Sahlstrom, Albany, first vice-president; Mrs. George Jennings, Medford, second vice-president; Mrs. August Glutsch, Medford, third vice-president; Mrs. J. Vernon Horne, fourth vice-president; Mrs. Horace Whilon, Gresham, secretary, and Mrs. Frank Freeburger, Medford, treasurer.

Center Manager Honors War Dead

Camp White, May 31—Tribute to the American war dead was paid by Paul Hatton, domiciliary center manager, at Memorial day ceremonies here Tuesday. Escorted by a color guard, Hatton placed a wreath at the parade ground flagpole. Colors were at half mast in memory of those whose lives were given in the defense of their country.

After the traditional firing party salute by men from Headquarters Co. and Co. A, 188th Infantry, "Taps" were sounded by Dick Baize, bugler. Those participating in the ceremonies were mostly center members and personnel. A few visitors from neighboring communities also attended.

The Central Point high school band, directed by H. L. Myers, played for a half hour prior to the laying of the memorial wreath, and during the chapter services at the newly erected stand in front of the chapel. Chaplain John Cumisky asked the invocation. Lincoln's Gettysburg address recited by Winfield U. Foster, the first member to be enrolled at this station.

Three Medford women, Gertrude Lewis, Phyllis Corliss and Mary Nowd, sang two hymns, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Corliss.

Two short addresses were made by the chaplains. Father Cumisky entitled his speech, "Let Us Forget," and Chaplain Anderson chose as his theme: "In Memoriam." The benediction was pronounced by Chaplain Anderson.

Introduced from the stand was Mrs. James Cech, president of Medford's chapter of the Gold Star Mothers. Chief of special

New Montgomery Ward Assistant Manager

George Deziak arrived here Monday from Salinas, Cal., to assume assistant management of the local Montgomery Ward and company store. Deziak replaces C. A. Baker, who left recently to become manager of the Yreka store.

The new assistant manager has been with the company for the past five years. During the war he served as an ensign in the naval air force.

Deziak will go to Salinas this week-end to bring his family here. They will make their home on East Jackson street. Mr. and Mrs. Deziak have two children: David, five, and Vyvyan Lee, one.

Ashland Students Honor Journalists

Ashland, May 31—Journalism students of Ashland high school gathered here Monday evening to honor graduates who have served on the Rogue News, and The Rogue, high school newspaper and annual, and juniors who have been active in journalistic activities.

Speaker at the occasion was Eric Allen Jr., city editor of The Medford Mail Tribune.

services, John L. Kelly, presided.

LAWN and GARDEN IRRIGATION SCHEDULE

CITY OF MEDFORD — WATER COMMISSION

In order to assure an adequate supply of water for all, it has become necessary to regulate the use of city water for lawn and garden irrigation.

Effective midnight, June 1, 1950, the following schedule for lawn and garden irrigation shall be in force:

RESIDENCES HAVING EVEN HOUSE NUMBERS

All water users having RESIDENCES WITH EVEN HOUSE NUMBERS may use city water for lawn and garden irrigation only between the hours of 6:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. and from 4:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. on the following days:

Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and on Sundays from 6 A.M. to 11 A.M.

RESIDENCES HAVING UNEVEN HOUSE NUMBERS

All water users having RESIDENCES WITH UNEVEN HOUSE NUMBERS may use city water for lawn and garden irrigation only between the hours of 6:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. and from 4:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. on the following days:

Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays and on Sundays from 4 P.M. to 9 P.M.

These regulations apply to all users of water supplied from the Medford Water System, whether inside or outside the City of Medford. On rural roads with unnumbered houses, the users on the NORTH AND EAST sides may irrigate on the same days and hours as the even house numbers in the City of Medford. The users on the SOUTH and WEST sides may irrigate on the same days and hours as the uneven house numbers in the City of Medford.

Your cooperation and help in observing and enforcing these regulations is needed. Violation of Water Department regulations subjects the violator to a fine or discontinuance of water service, or both.
