DAV Auxiliary Heads Make Official Visit To Newport and Taft

Mrs. James Lillie, department commander for the auxiliary to the Disabled American Veterans of Oregon, and Mrs. Ivan S. Hatfield, department adjutant, returned Friday from a visit to the auxiliaries of Newport and Taft, Ore.

The two women left Medford May 23 and were guests that evening of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Parke of Elmira, Ore. Mrs. Parke being senior vice-commander for the department and also commander of the Eugene auxiliary unit. Mr. Parke is commander of district two of the DAV.

En route to Newport Wednesday, the travelers stopped in Albany where they were joined by Mrs. Eva Bennett, junior vice-commander of the department. While on the coast the officials were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack TePolt of South Beach. Mrs. TePolt is past department commander and the present commander of district five.

Mrs. Lillie addressed a joint meeting of the Newport and Taft auxiliaries, held in the Newport city hall Wednesday night and Thursday morning Mrs. Lillie, Mrs. Hatfield and Mrs. Bennett were honored at a breakfast when all three were presented with gifts and flowers.

En route home Mrs. Lillie and Mrs. Hatfield stopped in Eugene to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Seals, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Lillie.

This is expected to be the last of Mrs. Lillie's official visits as department commander before the annual convention to be held in Eugene beginning June 13.

Presidents, Wives Studied by DAR; Officers Elected

"United States Presidents and Their Wives" was the topic for the program when Grater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met Saturday, May 27, at the home of Mrs. G. O. Taylor, 1334 Reddy avenue.

Members responded to roll call with items of interest concerning the "first ladies" of the past 150 years. On display was a photograph of miniature figures representing these ladies, each dressed in a replica of the gown worn at her inaugural ball.

Mrs. Ray K. Bailey, program chairman, discussed the presidents themselves. She brought out the fact that a recent poll of prominent historians elicited the opinion that six presidents had achieved the accolade of greatness, six were considered near great, while only two rated failures. The unanimous opinion of these fifty-five historians, reported Mrs. Bailey, was that Lincoln was the greatest of all the chief executives.

The speaker also touched upon some of the little known facts of interest concerning the presidents, one that Madison was the first president to wear long trousers, while Van Buren installed the first cook stove in the White House, thereby arousing the cooks to the point of revolt.

Following the program an installation ceremony, conducted by the chaplain, Mrs. E. C. Root, was held for the newly elected officers. They are Mrs. Bailey, regent; Mrs. Stanley Chirgwin, vice-regent; Mrs. C. O. Lovejoy, recording secretary; Mrs. G. O. Taylor, corresponding secretary; Mrs. T. J. Gifford, treasurer; Mrs. Frances Cochran, registrar; Mrs. O. E. G. Myers, chaplain; Mrs. C. B. Pankey, historian; Mrs. B. G. Harding, secretary; Mrs. D. O. Hood, Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini and Mrs. John W. Harrison, directors.

Corsages fashioned by Mrs. D'Albini were presented by her to Mrs. Hood, the retiring regent, Mrs. Bailey, the new regent, and to Mrs. Chirgwin, whose birthday it was.

During the tea hour Mrs. S. L. Divine and Mrs. R. G. Beach presided over the beautifully appointed tea table with its centerpiece of lupin sprays in varicolored shades. The exquisitely wrought tea and coffee pots of matched design had been in the hostess's family for 70 years, having been among her mother's wedding gifts. Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini assisted the hostess.

Plans were completed for attendance at the district conference to be held at Lakeview, Ore., June 2.

Neurosis, Normality Topic of Delphians; Plan June Meetings

"Neurosis and Normality" was the topic discussed at the meeting of Delphian society held last week. Topic speakers were Mrs. Glenn C. Phetteplace, Mrs. H. C. Drew, Mrs. Scott Davis, Mrs. Verne H. Wilson and Mrs. Don R. Newbury.

Mrs. Neil Davidson was a guest.

June meetings are to be held June 6 and 20, with the June 6 meeting to take place at the home of Mrs. H. C. Drew at 3528 Delta Water road. Members are to take a sack lunch.

The second June meeting will be at the Girls' Community club and will be the last meeting of the year.

Girl Observes Birthday At Eagle Point Parties

Eagle Point—Glenna Lee Hobbs was honored with two parties given during the week-end of her 11th birthday, which was May 19. The parties were also enjoyed by her mother, Mrs. Glen Hobbs of Medford, whose birthday is on the same day.

One party was at the home of Glenna Lee's grandmother, Mrs. Jack Fortin of Eagle Point. Present were Lois and Sandra Farlow, Orene Peterson, Barbara Brueger, Patsy and Rusty Clave, Nanette Grow, Tommy Hobbs, Francis Clave, Glenn Lee Hobbs and Mrs. Fortin.

The second party was a picnic in Touville park May 21. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Loren Farlow of Grants Pass and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Grow and daughters, Nanette and Kathy. The birthday dinner included two cakes and among the honored guests gifts was a cocker spaniel puppy.

JUROR FALLS OFF

Bushnell, Fla. —(U.P.)—County Judge P. B. Howell sent deputies looking for an errant juror, F. J. Spooner. They came back with two candidates for the county jail, including Spooner. Officers found the juror drunk in a local bar, along with Wilbur Woodward, who had been summoned to answer four charges of drunkenness. Both were given jail terms.
