

Memorial Marker Is Dedicated by Gold Hill V.F.W.

Gold Hill, May 31—The Veterans of Foreign Wars held a ceremony Tuesday dedicating the new memorial marker that replaced the one broken several months ago. The new bronze marker was installed by Everett Drake.

Clyde A. Beck, senior vice-commander, presided over the ceremony. The invocation was given by Rev. L. D. Stiles. Beck read the dedication service and A. E. Smith acted as chaplain. Mrs. Charles Askin gave a few words of appreciation for what the veterans had done for their country. William Bell, adjutant of the post, gave words of tribute to the departed comrades. The benediction was read by Chaplain Smith.

A wreath of ivy was placed on the marker followed by a wreath of red roses placed by William Collier, white flowers by Mrs. David Gordon and blue flowers placed by Mrs. Vada Dahl. Adjutant Bell placed an American flag beside the marker.

A firing squad composed of Cecil Bell, James Martin, David Gordon and George Stone with William Collier, officer of the day, fired the salute and taps closed the ceremony, played by

Days Creek Resident Passes in Eugene

Fred Wheeler, 42, resident of Days Creek, and formerly of the Applegate, died May 27 after a short illness in a hospital in Eugene. He was a logging contractor for the Deer Creek Logging company.

He was born May 18, 1908, in Steele, Mo. He lived a number of years in the San Fernando valley, moving from there to Applegate and then to Days Creek, living there for the past four and a half years. He was a member of the Seven Day Advent church.

Surviving are his widow, Genevieve, Days Creek; a son, Richard, Days Creek; a daughter, Joanne, Sanitarium, Cal.; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Wheeler, Porterville, Cal.; a brother, Harold, Porterville; four sisters, Mrs. Ora Tyree, Prescott, Ariz.; Mrs. Christine Benson, Mayer, Ariz.; Mrs. Alberta Conner, Saligman, Ariz.; and Mrs. Nettie Watson, Modesto, Cal.

Funeral services will be held in The Chapel of The Roses, Roseburg funeral home, today at 11 a.m., with Pastor C. V. Hartnell officiating. Cremation will follow in the Eugene crematory.

Osteopaths Planning To Attend Convention

Drs. W. W. Howard, G. S. Jennings and J. S. Heatherington were to leave during the week to attend the northwest convention of osteopathic physicians and surgeons in Tacoma, which will begin June 2. The local men are members of the Southern Oregon Osteopathic association which is associated with the northwest group as well as the national association.

Dr. Howard, accompanied by Mr. Howard, left Tuesday to attend a pre-convention assembly of the Academy of Applied Osteopathy. Drs. Jennings and Heatherington, accompanied by Mrs. Jennings, expect to leave the end of the week. The doctors' wives will attend the auxiliary's convention held at the same time.

Osteopathic physicians and surgeons and auxiliary members from Oregon, Washington, British Columbia and Idaho will attend.

Navy Chief Arrives For Recruiting Duty

Lester Maurer, navy chief engineer, arrived in Medford Monday to assume his duties as recruiter in charge of the Medford navy recruiting station. He succeeds Chief T. L. Bartholomew in the position.

Maurer, who has spent 11 years in naval service, saw duty aboard three submarines during the war, the S-31, the Parchi and the Cubana, in Pacific waters. He is unmarried.

Bartholomew, who has spent about two years at the station here, is now awaiting reassignment. He said that when he is through with recruiting duty, he will probably be assigned to training reservists at the request of the commanding officer of the 13th naval district. Bartholomew is married and he and his wife have made their home here during the chief's tour of duty.

DUV Group Sponsors Frolic Dance at Camp

Camp White, May 31—Daughters of Union Veterans and friends staged a "Funny Frolic Dance" for center members at Camp White recreation hall Monday evening.

Prizes were ladies' wearing apparel for men, and men's equipment, such as shorts and neckties for women. Readings were presented, as was close harmony singing. Dancing was held between stunts. A trio of men played "old time" numbers. Sandwiches, home made cake and coffee were served.

El Centro Still Leads Sunset Baseball League

By United Press
El Centro Pitcher Jack McClung gave up only four scattered singles last night as his teammates landed on three Porterville batters for a 19 to 0 Sunset league shutout.

El Centro continued to climb above the other teams in the league, stretching its league lead to 2½ games over Mexicali.

LARRY SHEPARD WINS
Larry Shepard, former Medford Dodgers player-manager and one of the best hurlers in the Far West league two years ago, continued to be tops in the Pioneer league Monday by hurling Billings, Mont., to a 5 to 1 victory over Great Falls. He allowed but four hits.
