

Rogues Play Here Tonight, Saturday; Twin Bill Sunday; Locals Lose, 9-6

Medford Rogues and Klamath Falls Gems open a four-game Far West Baseball league series at the fairgrounds ball park tonight with single games this evening and Saturday starting at 7:45 and a double bill scheduled Sunday starting at 6:30 p.m.

Redding, Cal., June 2.—(Special to Mail Tribune)—The Redding Browns continue to be home of the Medford Rogues famous last minute rally Thursday when they stepped on the Oregonians with four runs in the eighth inning last night to win a 9 to 6 league game.

Three hurlers went to the mound for the Rogues in that eighth inning frenzy that saw Glen Hyatt, Jack Lloyd and Carl Huenners give up three walks before Ken Gible, Browns shortstop, tripled with the bases loaded and Manager Ray Perry singled home for four runs.

Three Redding Homers
Earlier in the Redding second baseman Ken McGee hit two homers and Bob Thompson, first baseman, hit another.

The Rogue picked up a single run in the fourth inning on a double by John Popovich, Bob Haddock's single and an error. They collected three more in the sixth stanza on walks to Popovich, and Al Bolen, a fielder's choice, Don Williams' single, Bill Adams' two-bagger and an error.

Medford picked a pair in the seventh frame when Herrman was safe on an error by Thompson and Mill Martin smacked out a homerun. In the Redding half of the same frame Martin was ejected from the game for beefing with the umpire.

Browns Still First
The defeat of the Rogues by Redding boosted the Browns higher into first place while Medford stayed in third spot.

The line score:
Medford.....000 100 200—6 8 1
Redding.....110 120 045—9 12 3
Herrman, Smith (7), Hyatt (10), Lloyd (8), Huenners (8) and Martin, Guglielmo (7); Dillon and Choukalas.

Salem Drops 8-5 Decision

By United Press
Like a homing pigeon coming to roost, Yakima bounced back into the upper division of the Western International league last night.

The Bears, who for the better part of the past week have been trading places with Tri-City on alternate days, put the whammy on the atomic city Braves 8 to 2 and salvaged sole possession of the No. 4 post on the league ladder.

Wenatchee pulled back into a tie with Salem for second, the Chiefs bumping over Spokane 6 to 3 while the Solons dropped an 8 to 5 decision to Tacoma.

A lone run in the bottom of the seventh gave Vancouver an 8 to 7 nod over Victoria.

Tommy Henrich Returns To Yankees For Games

New York, June 2.—(U.P.)—Tommy Henrich reported back to the New York Yankees today but the brilliant old pro's career was still shrouded in doubt.

Dr. George Bennett of Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore sent Henrich back to the Yankees last night after failing to find anything wrong with Tommy's ailing right knee.

Budge Patty in Finals Of French Tennis Play

Paris, June 2.—(U.P.)—Jaroslav Drobný of Egypt and Eric Sturges of South Africa will continue their interrupted semi-final match in the French tennis championships today to determine the final round rival for Budge Patty of Los Angeles.

Patty gained the finals yesterday by upsetting top-seed Billy Talbot of New York, 2-6, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4, 12-10.

Lincoln Boys As Athletes Given Party

An athletic party at Lincoln grade school at which members of the basketball, football, baseball and track teams were honored was held Monday with ice cream and cake served. Winners in the marble tourney conducted during the past few months were announced this week also.

The title marble tournament was made up of six boys playing a three game series round robin with each other. This was won by LeRoy Fellows who took 12 and lost three. Otis Turner was second, Richard McLeod third, Billy Evans fourth and Darwin Morehouse and Tommy Smith tied for fifth.

Fellows and Morehouse represented the sixth grade, Turner and McLeod the fifth and Evans with Smith the fourth.

The following boys were honored at the party: Tommy Boyd, Lloyd Cearley, Gerald Couch, LeRoy Fellows, John Foust, Garry Lewis, Dick Payne, Joe Shelton, Elton Warner, Darwin Morehouse, Eddie Albright, Ronald Anderson, Gerald Anderson, Keith Bailey, Benny Craig, Robert Garrison, Kenneth Hendrickson and Gary Hight.

Major Leaguers Scout Pitcher

Oshkosh, Wis., June 2.—(U.P.)—Major league scouts converged today to watch the last game of a high school pitcher who lost only one game in three years and pitched a perfect game last month.

Their quarry is tall, gangling Bill Hoelt, an 18-year-old senior at Oshkosh high school, whose only ambition is to pitch ball.

Bill has never lost a prep school game. And the climax of his high school career came a few weeks ago when he struck out every man who faced him in a game with the Hartford, Wis., high school team.

Oshkosh Coach E. J. "Snitz" Schneider said Branch Rickey of the Brooklyn Dodgers will fly here Saturday to watch Bill in action against Manitowoc, Wis., high school—his last prep school game.

Former Local Players Now Vie at Roseburg

Roseburg, June 2.—Three former players on the Medford Craters semi-pro team and also of the Medford Rogues or Nuggets aggregation are now playing with the Roseburg Chiefs of the semi-pro Southern Oregon Baseball league.

They are Tex Chandler, former manager of the Craters and early this year coach for the Rogues; Stan Norby, ex-Craters and Nuggets infielder, and Cy Whidden, former Craters and Nuggets hurler. Whidden hurled the Chiefs to a 7 to 2 victory over Myrtle Creek here Tuesday.

'Oddity' in Far West League Standings Now

By United Press
An oddity exists today in the Far West Baseball league standings as a result of Reno's win, 6 to 5, over Marysville, and Pittsburg's defeat of Willows 9 to 8.

Reno ended with a slightly higher percentage win over Willows, in last place in the standings. Yet Willows is 10½ games away from the leading Redding Browns, while Reno is 11 games removed.

Where To Fish

Portland, Ore., June 2.—(U.P.)—The upper Umpqua river area was expected to be one of the best sports fishing sections of the state this week-end, according to the game commission's weekly fishing bulletin.

Water conditions in the upper Umpqua region were reported excellent. Fly fishing is improving but bait and spinner angling was still the most productive. Salmon fishing above tidewater ended May 31 on the Umpqua.

Angling continued good in most streams and lakes in the Klamath area. The upper Rogue river was improving with fair catches expected to be made during the week-end.

SP Clerk Here Given Transfer, Promotion

W. D. Longmore, chief clerk of the district office in Medford for the past three years, has been promoted by the Southern Pacific company to chief clerk in the freight department in the Seattle office.

He and Mrs. Longmore have been active in social and church work. He is well known for his music work and has played in various bands and orchestras in the valley.

Longmore, accompanied by his wife and two young daughters, will leave Medford tonight on a vacation, then reporting for duty to the Seattle office.

Jack Hardy, Vancouver, B.C., succeeds Longmore in Medford and will report for duty soon. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Hardy, to whom he was married this week.

Slight Rises Expected In Northwest Rivers

Portland, Ore., June 2.—(U.P.)—Slight rises were predicted today by the weather bureau's river forecasters for most northwest rivers during the next few days as result of temperature rises in the upper Columbia river basin earlier this week.

The forecasters said a slight rise would occur in the Snake river today and in the middle Columbia by tomorrow.

The Willamette river above Oregon City was expected to rise slightly while rivers in the Portland and Vancouver, Wash., areas were expected to fluctuate with little overall change.

Meanwhile, the weather bureau said the pool of air which has kept western portions of the state dry and warm was fading. Forecasters expected more "seasonable" temperatures, probably this week-end.

Legal Action Seen On Showing of Film

Portland, Ore., June 2.—(U.P.)—Legal action appeared imminent today in the censorship action of the Italian film, "The Bicycle Thief," by Portland's municipal censorship board backed by the city council.

Mayer and Burstyn, New York distributors of the award-winning movie, have requested council to be retained and "any steps necessary be taken" to assure a Portland showing for the movie.

The controversy came to a head over a two-minute brothel scene which has to be cut, according to the Portland council, before the film can be shown locally.

Portland is the first city in the United States which has insisted on censoring the film.
