June Brides and Grooms of 1950

AFTER the honeymoon is over you will be getting settled in your new home—the man of the house will be busy at his job of earning a living—the bride's responsibility will be the planning and preparing of 3 meals a day 365 days a year and trying to make her husband's pay check cover all the expenses. It's a mighty big job, but a job made a lot easier if you do all your food shopping at the Groceteria.

Away back in 1920 the first June brides began coming to the Groceteria for their Food Supplies. They found the shelves lined with down-right good food—brands they could depend on for Quality at the lowest prices in Southern Oregon—Many, many of the brides of 1920 and their sons and daughters are still steady Groceteria shoppers. They have found that year in and year out the Groceteria has been their most dependable source of supply.

What was true 30 years ago is still true today. If you want the best in food goodness at prices that will make your dollars go farther
