Freeland-Morris Marriage Service Held at St. Mark's

St. Mark's Episcopal church was the scene Saturday, May 27, of the wedding of Miss Dolores Louise Morris to Jim Hensley Freeland. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel E. Morris, 516 Belmont street, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wallace A. Freeland, Beall lane.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster officiated for the rites, held at 10:30 o'clock in the morning, and Mr. Morris gave his daughter in marriage. About 75 guests were present.

Mrs. Ernest Conrad was at the church organ and Kenneth Williams was soloist.

The bride's white satin wedding gown was designed with long sleeves and a short train and her veil was fingertip length. She carried a white orchid on a white prayer book.

Miss Caroline Freeland, sister of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor. Her gown was of pink net worn with pink mits and a light pink hat. Her bouquet was of Cecil Brunner roses and valley lilies.

Neil E. Morris, Portland, brother of the bride, was best man for Mr. Freeland and John Lloyd and Peyton Newcomb acted as groomsmen.

A reception followed in the parish house. Mrs. Merton S. Lyster and Mrs. George Moses, the latter of Klamath Falls, poured, and Mrs. C. O. Webber and Mrs. Frank Little cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Fred Rehnig took charge of the guest book.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a dress of aquamarine colored sheer with black jacket and black accessories and her corsage was of bronze roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a suit of navy blue with pink accessories and her flowers were pink roses.

White stock decorated the church altar for the ceremony, and on the chancel rail were arrangements of white cranberry, spirea and white peonies.

For the reception the bride's table was arranged with mixed white blossoms and crystal candelabra holding white tapers. The punch table held a bowl and cups of early American glass.

Mixed bouquets of pastel colored roses, Russell lupine and iris were used about the room.

Mr. Freeland and his bride made a wedding trip to the Oregon coast and will live in Medford. The bride is a member of this year's graduating class of Medford senior high school and the bridegroom attended Howland Payne college of Brownwood, Tex., following his graduation from school here.

In Medford for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George Moses and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Sutherland, Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Kennerly Sr., Roseburg.

Former Residents Here As Guests of Friends
Miss Elizabeth McKay, 318 Crater Lake avenue, has as her visitors, Mrs. H. B. Clark, San Diego, Cal. The Clarks are former Medford residents and have many friends here.

The couple is beginning their third trip of the United States and plan to tour points of interest throughout the country for the year. From here they will leave for Yellowstone park where they expect to stay about a month. They then plan to visit Glacier National park. After visiting on the east coast they expect to spend the winter in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Church Rites Wed Marjorie St. Clair And Navy Radioman

A mid-day wedding was that of Miss Marjorie Jean St. Clair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. St. Clair, 613 Bartlett street, Medford, to John O. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Johnson, of Omaha, Neb. The ceremony was held May 13 at 8 p.m. in First Christian church, with the Rev. Holly Roy Jarvis reading the service.

Mr. St. Clair gave his daughter in marriage.

The minister also sang, with Miss Verene Bailey as accompanist.

For her wedding the bride wore a pink afternoon dress and carried a bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. Miss Virgie St. Clair was attendant for her sister. She wore a yellow afternoon dress, and her flowers were a corsage of purple sweet peas.

William Powell was best man for Mr. Johnson, and Frank Quigley and William A. Lowery were ushers.

The reception which followed the ceremony was at the bride's home. Miss Virgie St. Clair cut the wedding cake, and Miss Wanda Lofland poured. About 30 guests were present.

Bouquets of snowballs and pink tapers decorated the church, and purple iris were used for the reception decorations.

Following a short wedding trip north, the couple left for National City, Cal., where the bridegroom is stationed with the navy. He is a radioman.

The bride attended senior high school before the wedding and the bridegroom attended high school and college in Nebraska.
