Mrs. Thomas E. Ferris is the former Donna Carolyn Mullarky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Mullarky of Burns, Ore. Her wedding to Mr. Ferris was an event of May 7 and the newlyweds are now living at 516 South Ivy street in Medford.

Newlywed Couple Makes Home Here; Married in Burns

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Ferris, whose wedding was an event of May 7 in Burns, Ore., are now living in Medford at 516 South Ivy street. The bride is the former Miss Donna Carolyn Mullarky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Mullarky of Burns, and the bridegroom is a son of Garfield B. Ferris of Medicine Hat, Alta., Canada.

The service took place at St. Andrew's Episcopal church, with the Rev. Arthur Beckwith reading the ceremony.

The bride's gown was of white velvet and train and a white satin cap edged with orange blossoms held her three-quarter length illusion veil. She carried valley lilies.

Miss Barbara Lee Miller, maid-of-honor, wore an orchid nylon net and taffeta gown and carried a nosegay of pink roses and pink sweetpeas with a headpiece of pink rosebuds. Bridesmaids were Miss Ardis Newholm of Portland and Miss Allene Sitz. Their dresses matched that of the maid-of-honor and both carried nosegays of pink and white sweetpeas.

Wendell Mason of Eugene was best man for Mr. Ferris and ushers were Richard Gillespie and William Brighton, both of Eugene.

A reception in the guild hall of the church followed the ceremony. Mrs. H. A. Dillard and Mrs. Lee Miller cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Morgan O. Timms and Mrs. Robert Clay poured. Miss Ruth Miller took charge of the guest book and others assisting were Mrs. W. M. Bennett and Miss Gladys Holland.

The bride was graduated from the University of Oregon, and is a member of the university chapter of Delta Zeta sorority. For the past six months she has been employed in the classified advertising department of the Eugene Register-Guard. Her father, co-publisher of the Burns Times-Herald, was at one time secretary of Gov. Earl Snell.

Mr. Ferris is sales representative for the White King Soap company.
