Birthday Party Given By Junior Red Cross

At Camp White Center

Junior Red Cross High School council gave the May birthday party at the Camp White Center May 31.

A musical program was given by Medford junior high school orchestra, directed by Miss Melba Chehak. A special number was "Perpetual Motion," six violins accompanied by the orchestra, and a bass viol duet. Other numbers included a duet by Janice and Cleo Linton of Ashland, who accompanied themselves on electric guitars, a solo by Nadene Davis of Eagle Point, a piano solo by Marilyn Foster, Ashland, numbers by a boys' quartet and a girls' trio from Rogue River high school, directed by Mrs. Virginia Waterfield, music director at the school.

Ronald Robbins, president of the council, was master of ceremonies.

Decorations followed the May day theme with maypoles and dancing dolls. Special birthday cakes were made by students from high schools in the council.

Gifts were presented to 46 veterans, following the program which was held outdoors in Sear's Hall Acre.

Serving punch were Mrs. Frances Flinn and Miss Chehak.

Hot crusty raisin corn bread sticks are perfect to serve with colorful fruit salads. If you don't have cornstick pans bake the batter in regular muffin pans.

MAUNA LOA ERUPTS ANEW—Molten lava and steam belches hundreds of feet into the air from fissures on southwest flank of Hawaii's volcano, Mauna Loa, after a new eruption. Two villages are reported destroyed, but all inhabitants in the path of the lava streams escaped. This photo was taken from Navy plane patrolling the area.

Frosted sandwich loaves are extra popular for fancy teas. Use sieved calavo for one of the fillings. Mash a butter-ripe calavo and season to taste with salt, grated onion, lemon juice and tabasco sauce.

Pan fried trout tastes out of this world with an almond, lemon and butter sauce. Combine slivered roasted almonds with lemon juice and hot browned butter.

Try this for a tasty summer salad. Mold finely shredded cabbage in apricot whole fruit nettar. Add lemon juice to taste to give it the right degree of tartness.
