'Delayed' Degrees to Be Given to Students

State College, Pa., June 8 — (U.P.) — Pennsylvania State college will award "delayed" degrees Monday to two students who should have been graduated more than 25 years ago.

Earl V. Singer, 49, Dover, N. J., was a member of the class of 1924, but because of unexcused absences from chapel, his degree was withheld. Since chapel attendance no longer is a prerequisite for a degree, Singer now is eligible for his bachelor of science degree in metallurgy.

Ralph B. Yountz, 55, Berkeley, Cal., went Singer four years better. Yountz last attended college 30 years ago. He started at Penn State in 1913, but left to fight in World War I. He completed his work in 1920, except for his thesis.

Yountz, a construction engineer, recently took several weeks off from work and finished his thesis.
