

Local and Personal

Attend Market Week—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson returned Thursday night from a week's visit in Seattle where they inspected full lines of men's apparel exhibited by national manufacturers during Market week. Robinson is owner of Robinson brothers men's furnishings store.

To Meet—The Home Economics club of Talent Grange will meet Tuesday, June 13, at the home of Mrs. Thomas Bell at 11:30 a.m.

From Tacoma—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Olson, former Gold Hill residents now living in Tacoma, Wash., have left after visiting here with Clint Walker, 33 Rose avenue, during the week.

To Coast—Mrs. Alto Pruitt, 403 King street, will leave tomorrow for Currier's village on the coast near Reedsport. She expects to return home Wednesday.

Reading Room—Open house will be held at the Christian Science reading room at 228 West Sixth street, Saturday, June 10 from 5 to 9 p.m., and on Sunday from 2 to 9 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Graduated—Harry A. Nordwick, 919 Reddy avenue, was among the 1,092 graduates who received degrees from the University of Arizona this month. He received his bachelor of science in public administration.

Shipmates—Shipmates class of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. A. E. Brockway, 2325 Stewart avenue, at 6:30 p.m. today for a potluck picnic. The affair will be held rain or shine, according to those in charge.

Foresters To Elect—Members of the Siskiyou chapter of the Society of American Foresters will elect officers for the coming year at a meeting at the Medford hotel at 7 p.m. today. Sam Taylor, of Elk Lumber company, is incumbent president.

Historical Society—The Southern Oregon Historical society will hold its annual meeting in the auditorium of the Jackson county courthouse at 8 p.m., Monday, June 12, according to the acting secretary, Mrs. Edith M. Gifford, who stated that officers for the ensuing year will be elected at the meeting.

To Portland—J. E. Hoxie, who has been here on an extended visit from San Diego with his sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hoxie, 953 Keyway street, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoxie, 43 Summit street, left this week to visit two other sons and families, one in Portland and the other Washington state. He expects to be away about a month.

From California—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gill, Monterey, Cal., and their daughter, Miss Bernice Gill, Los Angeles, arrived this week to visit Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pruitt, South Holly street, and Mrs. Alto Pruitt, 403 King street. The Gills are former residents. Miss Gill, a graduate of Stanford university and a registered nurse, is an assistant to a doctor of dermatology in Los Angeles.

Boy Hurt—Billy Joe Skeeter, seven, who suffered a laceration in a fall this week, is confined to Sacred Heart hospital for treatment. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Skeeter, Eagle Point.

From Lewiston—Mr. and Mrs. Oley C. Moen, Lewiston, Ida., arrived Wednesday to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Moen and family, 1019 Queen Anne avenue. Occasion of their visit here was to attend graduation exercises last evening for the Medford senior high school, in which their granddaughter, Miss Evelyn Moen, was graduated. From here the visitors will go to Shevlin to spend some time with a daughter and family living there. Until about nine months ago the Oley C. Moens were Medford residents.

Released—Mrs. Curtis N. Atkins, 2270 Howard avenue, who underwent major surgery on May 29, left Sacred Heart hospital today.

Car Stolen—A 1941 blue Buick sedan registered to John and Neta Rector, 214 West Jackson street, was reported stolen from Burgey's restaurant early this morning, city police said.

From Hospital—W. F. Blauvelt, 419 King street, was released from Sacred Heart hospital yesterday after being confined there about a month because of surgery. Visitors are invited to call on Blauvelt at his home.

From Berkeley—Mrs. Isobel Davis, Berkeley, Cal., is expected to arrive this week-end to visit her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Davis, Edgevale orchards. From here Mrs. Davis will proceed to Seattle.

In Prospect—Andy Anderson and Claud C. Haggart, of the Medford Lions club, attended a meeting of Prospect Lions Wednesday evening as boosters from the local club for the state Lions club convention to be held here this week-end.

New Employee—Miss Lois Nelson is a new employee in the bookkeeping department of the United States National bank. Miss Betty Peterson, of the same department, has returned to her employment after an absence because of surgery.

Graveling Completed—Workmen yesterday completed grading and graveling South Grape street between 13th and 15th streets. They are to finish laying base rock for an airport taxiway repair job tomorrow.

Discharged—Ray Millard, Prospect, who suffered severe leg injuries in a truck accident on Crater Lake highway last fall, was released from Sacred Heart hospital this week. He had been confined to the hospital here since September after undergoing treatment at Eugene. One leg was amputated.

Auto Accident—A car driven by Darrell Melvine Goede, 2229 East Main street, was considerably damaged about noon yesterday in a collision at East Main street and Crater Lake avenue, according to a report filed with police. Driving the other car involved was Thomas M. Smith, 547 Marie street.

Footlights—A special meeting of all Footlights who have volunteered to work on the dramatic activities project for eighth and ninth grade Girl scouts during day camp, will be held at the home of Mrs. Nancy Clark Jones, 401 Ranch road, at 8 p.m. today. Those unable to attend have been asked to contact Jim Sullivan, educational and training director for the theater group, or Mrs. Earl Knight, coordinator for the organization in the Scout project.

Youths Injured—Bob Messer, 422 Laurel street, and John Murphy, 735 West 14th street, suffered minor cuts and bruises in an auto accident yesterday afternoon, according to Conger-Morris ambulance men who took them to Sacred Heart hospital for treatment. The ambulance men said that a car operated by a turnip failed to negotiate a turn at the junction of Griffin creek road and South Stage road and crashed into an empty logging truck.

To Repair—Demorest Mort has applied at the city building inspector's office for a permit to make $700 repairs to a residence at 131 Vancouver avenue.

Office Closed—The DAV office, room 12 Brophy building, will be closed from June 10 until June 19 while the state convention is in session in Eugene, according to James E. Burnett, adjutant.
